HITLER'S REPLY TO PRESIDENT

BARE REBATES UNDER N. Y. MILK PRICE CONTROL

Illinois Group Finds Six Million Refunds.

BY HAL FOUST.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Gov. Henry Horner's milk investigators were convinced today that all that glitters on official reports of price fixing is not gold in the farmers' pockets. They learned that there are millions of dollars of faked entries in these reports. It was such financial figures that have aroused Illinois dairymen to petition the legislature for milk control laws. They asked for laws similar to those in operation here for five years until overthrown by the courts a few weeks ago.

J. C. Coulter, treasurer of the New York Dairymen's league, disclosed to the Illinois delegation that in one year under the state control laws here member farmers secretly rebated to distributors $6,000,000 on $62,000,000 in milk sales. Through the rebates the distributors obtained their milk at a price under that fixed by the control board.

"We had to compete with chiselers evading the price regulations," said Coulter. "We were forced to play their own game."

Chiseling Producers Cited.

Members of this league produce about 40 per cent of the milk consumed in this metropolitan area. Coulter estimated that the chiseling producers, as he called those who wouldn't conform to voluntary price pegging, furnished about 15 per cent of the milk for this market.

"This disclosure," commented Arthur Hartman of Hampshire, Ill., "upsets many previous calculations on the benefits Illinois farmers might expect from price control. If a group of 40 per cent of the farmers here admit rebating $6,000,000 in one year, then it's a reasonable surmise that the reports on how much all producers received in the market are faked a total of $15,000,000."

Hartman, who operates a Kane county milk coöperative, is a delegate of the Chicago Milk Producers' council on this investigation.

"It is not fiction, however," said Mrs. Wilbur E. Fribley, president of the Chicago Housewives league, "that the control laws boosted consumer prices 2 cents a quart. And now it appears retail prices were based on a legal price to farmers differing from the actual price to farmers."

Farmers Themselves Cutting.

"The strange feature of this disclosure of rebates," said Arthur R. Buehring of De Kalb, Ill., "is that the very farmers who wanted laws to fix the prices of underselling competitors were themselves cutting prices in violation of the regulations they had helped to enact."

"Of course," added Hartman, "we have jokers on the Chicago market without control laws as well as they have had here under control laws. Whether such laws relieve this situation is a point of special interest to me in this eastern investigation."

The dairyman was referring to the system of paying farmers two prices for their milk, one price for the part bottled and a much lower price for the part used for cream, butter, cheese, buttermilk, and the like. In testimony before the house agricultural committee at Springfield, farmers argued for control laws to audit dealers' books to determine what portion of their milk was being bottled.

Lean Toward Flat Rate.

Many Illinois farmers believe that their suspicions of dealers should be removed by their receiving a flat rate for all of their milk. This can be done, it was pointed out, either with or without price fixing laws. In the east, under control laws, the multiple price scheme is used in paying farmers. This has boosted the cost of milk going into bottles and, by stimulating overproduction, has depressed the farmers' receipts for processing milk.

The investigators, headed by Dr. H. A. Ruehe of the University of Illinois under appointment from Lieut. Gov. John Stelle, will be in Boston tomorrow. Yesterday afternoon, a trip to Philadelphia found the dealers there, under price control laws, charging 12 cents a quart at doorsteps and 11 cents a quart at stores as compared with Chicago prices of 12 cents at homes and 10 cents at stores. Philadelphia wages are low, wagon drivers getting $35 to $40 a week, as compared with $51 a week averaged by Chicago drivers.

THE BATTLE CRIES OF 1940 OR BEFORE?

Copyright, 1939, by Chicago Tribune ORR

REPORT ROOSEVELT INVITED DICTATORS FOR PARLEY AT SEA

New York, April 27.—(AP)—The New York Times, in a Washington dispatch by its correspondent, Arthur Krock, says President Roosevelt proposed to Premier Benito Mussolini, and through him to Chancellor Adolf Hitler, to confer with them at sea, or near some neutral island, and they rejected the suggestion.

"The President's purpose," the Times says, "was to learn from the dictators at first hand their minimum terms for pledging lasting peace, and, if he found these practicable, to offer his services as intermediary."

The time of the overtures was set at "some months ago, probably between the May and September crises."

CHICAGO RELIEF SHELTERS DRAW BUMS, COURT TOLD

Chicago is a great place for bums because of the ease with which they can obtain admittance to a Chicago Relief administration shelter, Eugene Burns, 33 years old, an army deserter, told Judge Frances Borrelli in South State street court yesterday. Burns said that bums from all parts of the country regard the CRA shelters as a mecca.

He was arrested Wednesday night and charged with having obtained shelter under false pretenses. Police said he had $147 in cash, although he was living in the shelter. Judge Borrelli sentenced him to the Bridewell for six months.

Burns told police that he deserted from the army at Fort Reilly, Kas., in 1934.

Five Winners! a Story That Ends in 'IF'

When Harold McMartin got his $47 relief check last Tuesday he had visions of horses romping home with vast winnings. So Harold, who is 31 years old and lives at 6106 Stewart avenue, took his $47 to a handbook.

On Wednesday he awoke to some realities. His money was gone. His two children were hungry. His wife was tight lipped. Then Harold went out and spent the morning earning $4 by washing windows. While doing it he got to thinking about the horses again. He figured out a list of six horses that looked very good to him. The visions returned. These horses couldn't lose. But he had only $4.

Recalls Three Jail Terms.

Harold's mind flashed back over his three terms in the Bridewell for stealing. But his memories did not deter him. He slipped in the back door of Mrs. Helen Strauss' apartment at 7352 South Park avenue. He grabbed her purse and fled.

Over vacant lots and down an alley he sped, then jumped a fence and landed in the arms of Sergt. Louis Stephens of the Grand Crossing police. The sergeant saw the pocketbook. In it was Mrs. Strauss' $8.

Wednesday afternoon the police waited for returns from Havre de Grace, comparing them with the list they had taken from Harold. The first winner was Quiet Time. Harold had that, all right. The next winner was Dissembler. Harold's list included it. The third winner was Orcades. It was there, too. The next was Imprudent and the fifth Drudgery. Harold's list was still 100 per cent.

Then the Sixth Race.

Finally came Balapin to win the sixth race. Harold had lost! But wait a minute! The second horse was Dark Friend and Harold had picked it. If he had been content to bet instead of burgle he could have made $125.40 with his $4. If he had parlayed his bets he would have rolled up—O, well, there just isn't that much money.

They didn't tell the fretting Harold until yesterday. Then, in the midst of his dejection, they added that Felony court was waiting today.

They gave the $4 he had earned to his wife. She bought bread and orange juice for the babies.

STORY OF 'A KILLING'

One of the four strangers who stopped yesterday in the Udina Triangle restaurant four miles west of Elgin was talkative.

"Knocking off that guy in Rockford for $450 was a good piece of business," he said.

A customer heard the remark. He hurried to the proprietor and whispered that the strangers were talking about a murder. The proprietor called the Elgin police. The strangers were seized a little later at the western edge of the city. Lieut. Frank Egner told them of the suspicions.

"We're just some horsemen on our way to the Kentucky Derby," said one of the four. "We were talking about a killing—but it was money we won from a bookie in Rockford."

The men identified themselves as J. B. McKenna, 627 Washington boulevard, a trainer of horses; James Leonard and Albert Holiday, jockeys, and Jack Powell of Dallas, Tex., an associate of McKenna. Lieut. Egner freed them.

SOVIET AIRMEN HOP ON NONSTOP ATLANTIC FLIGHT TO NEW YORK

MOSCOW, April 28 [Friday].—(AP)—Brig Gen. Vladimir Kokkinaki, soviet Russian long distance flyer, took off at 4:19 a. m. today [8:19 p. m. Chicago time Thursday] on a 4,600 mile nonstop flight to New York. He was accompanied by Maj. Mikhail Gordienko, veteran navigator and radio operator.

At 6:52 a. m. [10:52 p. m. Thursday, Chicago time], 2 hours and 33 minutes after taking off, Kokkinaki radioed that he was passing over Luga bay, 75 miles southwest of Leningrad and 400 miles northwest of Moscow, at an altitude of about 15,000 feet.

The official news agency, Tass, which announced the takeoff, said Kokkinaki would follow the great circle route on a direct course between Moscow and New York. On the map the course appears as a sweeping curve through Norway and Iceland, across the southern tip of Greenland to Labrador and Newfoundland, across New Brunswick and the coast of Maine, and over Boston, Mass., to Floyd Bennett field.

The flyers expected to reach New York in twenty-five hours to be there before the opening of the world's fair on Sunday.

BRITAIN'S ARMY DRAFT IS VOTED BY PARLIAMENT

Commons Backs Up Premier, 376-145.

LONDON, April 27.—(AP)—The house of commons tonight approved Prime Minister Chamberlain's proposal to introduce compulsory military service in Great Britain by a vote of 376 to 145.

Clement R. Attlee.
[Labor opposition leader.]

Following a debate which showed the house united on defense against any aggression but divided on the conscription proposal to break down the tradition of a volunteer army in peacetime, commons gave the Chamberlain government a vote of confidence.

It rejected by a vote of 380 to 143 an opposition Laborite amendment which called for censure of Chamberlain's policy.

House of Lords O. K.'s Scheme.

The prime minister announced yesterday that a bill would be introduced soon making all youths between 20 and 21 years of age liable to six months military training. This law would affect about 310,000 men. The first draft class was expected to be cut to 200,000, however, after deductions and exemptions.

Acceptance of the conscription principle by parliament—the house of lords also had approved it before adjourning—followed a personal plea by Chamberlain for a vote before Adolf Hitler's reply to President Roosevelt's peace appeal tomorrow. Chamberlain explained he did not want Britain's action attributed to anything Hitler might say.

Government supporters cheered the vote loudly in a house which was packed for the historic session.

War Chief Winds Up Debate.

Leslie Hore-Belisha, war minister, wound up the debate for the government. He replied to Laborite arguments that conscription of labor was imminent by saying that the government had no intention of taking such a step.

He declared far-reaching changes in British international policy, carrying important implications of military commitments on the continent, required compulsory service.

Seven opposition Liberals supported the government, including members of David Lloyd George's family.

The war-time prime minister kept silent, however, in the face of Chamberlain's attack on him. The prime minister said Lloyd George always was against the government. It was understood Lloyd George preferred not to wait until next week, when debate on the actual conscription bill comes up.

Churchill Chides Premier.

Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty in the world war, supported the government, but chided Chamberlain for rapid changes in policy.

"I agree entirely with the prime minister when he asks: 'Is this peace?'" Churchill said. "Indeed it is a war that has been going on for nearly three years and we have been losing this war."

Clement R. Attlee, leader of the Labor opposition, attacked the government for resorting to conscription when, he contended, sufficient men were available as volunteers. He accused the government of taking no concrete measures for conscripting wealth.

Arthur Greenwood, Laborite, termed conscription "a puny effort to lull this country into a false sense of security." If it were intended as a warning to Hitler, Greenwood said, "it may prove to be an irritant, doing more harm than good."

Premier Defends Self.

Chamberlain, referring to his previous declarations against peacetime conscription, said: "Conditions were very different from what they are today." He declared that war was not imminent then and added: "There was no question which appeared then to lead to war."

He said at another point: "I do not wish to give the idea that I think war is imminent. I don't. But I do think that we are in a condition when a very little weight one way or another might decide whether war is going to come or not."

ENGLAND MAY CANCEL KING'S AMERICAN VISIT

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 27.—Cancelation of the visit which King George VI. and Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain are scheduled to make in Canada and the United States was considered in London diplomatic circles tonight to be more than a probability. This view was a result of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's announcement this afternoon in the house of commons that the British admiralty does not think it safe for the battle cruiser Repulse to leave European waters. The king and queen were to have crossed the Atlantic in that warship.

Chamberlain said that because of the European situation the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Australia had been substituted for the Repulse to bear the royal couple to America. The belief was strongly held tonight, however, that if an emergency of such degree as to prevent the Repulse's departure exists, this emergency also may make it inadvisable for the British sovereigns to be out of England.

Cite Conscription Speech.

In fact, after Chamberlain's announcement it was stated semi-officially to THE TRIBUNE that "further examination of the situation may be required in view of the announcement made yesterday by the prime minister."

This undoubtedly referred to Chamberlain's announcement of conscription for this country on the grounds that these are no longer to be considered times of peace.

It was generally believed, however, that an opportunity to cancel the royal visit, even though there may be no great emergency, is not unwelcome in court circles which still are fearful lest the visit turn out to be a flop and do more harm to British interests than good. Fears of how democratic America would react to the royal visitors have been expressed. The British have been very sensitive about magazine articles and cartoons which have appeared in America.

At the same time today, in disregard of the cancelation probabilities, five councilors of state were appointed by letters patent to act for the king during his absence. Besides Queen Elizabeth the councilors will be the duke of Kent, youngest brother of the king; the duke of Gloucester, the next youngest brother of the king; the princess royal, wife of the earl of Harwood and sister of the king; Princess Arthur of Connaught, granddaughter of King Edward VII. and widow of Prince Arthur of Connaught, grandson of Queen Victoria. She is a cousin of George VI.

CANADA GETS HEADACHE

OTTAWA, Ont., April 27.—[Special.]—The visit of King George VI. and Queen Elizabeth of England, designed to promote unity within the British empire, so far has not contributed to unity within Canada. For those entrusted with arrangements for the royal tour, and especially with safeguarding the persons of the rulers, it has become a headache.

As though unemployed demonstrations and a possible extension of Irish terrorism to Canada were not enough

W-G-N PROVIDING COMPLETE COVERAGE ON HITLER'S SPEECH

Complete coverage of Adolf Hitler's speech to the German Reichstag today is being provided by W-G-N and the Mutual Broadcasting system.

From 5 to 7 a. m., Chicago time, Hitler's address was heard directly from Berlin via short wave, accompanied by a running translation in English by P. Howard Barringer. A commentary and analysis by Raymond Gram Swing, Mutual network foreign affairs commentator, followed.

From noon to 1:15 p. m. a condensed version of the Hitler speech will be rebroadcast on W-G-N by means of electrical transcription which will be made during his early morning broadcast.

At 8:45 p. m. a broadcast of a discussion and commentary on Hitler's speech will be heard. The discussion will be between F. A. Voight, foreign affairs editor of the Manchester, England, Guardian, and another British commentator.

News and analyses of the Hitler speech will also be heard on regular W-G-N and Mutual news broadcasts at 8 a. m., 11:30 a. m., 6:15 p. m., and 8:30 p. m. If the European situation warrants, bulletins will also go on the air throughout the day.

OFFERS PEACE SCHEME BASED ON RECIPROCITY

Tells Readiness for Mutual Pledges.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 28 [Friday].—Germany is willing to give other nations assurances of nonaggression on a basis of reciprocity, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler said today in answer to President Roosevelt's peace appeal to Hitler and Premier Mussolini of Italy.

But the states in question must ask for this assurance, he said. Such states must address their request to Germany, together with appropriate proposals he said. He said assurances would only be made with individual states.

Drives Through Rain.

Hitler drove in an open car through cold, rainswept streets from the chancellery to the opera house. There was an enthusiastic demonstration when Hitler entered the hall. The delegates jumped to their feet and cheered him deafeningly, shouting, "Heil, Hitler."

Field Marshal Herman Wilhelm Goering opened the session. He greeted the seven new members from Memel, which Germany acquired from Lithuania on March 22, and from Bohemia and Moravia, which became a German protectorate after the breakup of Czecho-Slovakia last month.

Hitler then began speaking.

HITLER'S ADDRESS

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Hitler's address follows in part:

"I have not taken any step that violated foreign rights but have merely restored the rights [of Germany] violated twenty years ago.

"Providence has let me find the ways for liberating our people from the deepest misery without bloodshed and for leading them upward again.

Frees Shackles from People.

"It [Providence] has permitted me to fulfill the only task of my life—to raise my German people from defeat and to free them from the shackles of the most disgraceful times of all.

"This was the sole aim of all my actions.

"I have merely desired to restore what others once had broken by force. I merely wanted to repair what satanic meanness or human lack of sense destroyed or spoiled.

"I have, therefore, not taken any step that violated foreign rights, but have merely restored the rights violated twenty years ago.

Belonged to Reich Ages Ago.

"Within the framework of the present day great German reich there is no area that has not belonged to it from most ancient times or that was not connected with it or stood under its sovereignty.

"Long before an American continent had been discovered by white men or, more than that, been settled, this reich existed not only in its present greatness but beyond that with many areas and provinces that had since been lost.

"When, twenty-one years ago, the bloody war came to an end the fervent hope burned in millions of minds that a peace of common sense and of justice would reward and render happy the peoples who had been visited by the terrible scourge of the world war.

"I say 'reward' because all these human beings on their part were not guilty of this terrible happening no matter what the findings of historians may be.

Soldiers Are Not Guilty.

"And if even today there still are politicians in several countries who even then could be named as responsible for this most cruel butchery of all times, nevertheless the great masses of the fighting soldiers of all countries and peoples could at best be pitied but in no case be found guilty.

"They all had a right to a peace of common sense and justice. Out of this peace, however, millions were at that time cheated. For the victors, too, the effect of the peace treaties was most damaging.

"Then for the first time the misfortune became evident of having men determine politics who had not fought in the war."

"The president of the North American union [Roosevelt]," he said, "has addressed a telegram to me, the unusual contents of which is known to you.

"Before I, as recipient, got to see this document the rest of the world had already received knowledge of it through the radio and press.

Calls It Clever Tactical Paper.

"In addition, we had received the friendly information in countless commentaries of the democratic world's organs that this telegram constituted a very clever tactical paper which was designed to place the responsibility for the warlike measures of the plutocracies upon the states governed by their peoples.

"I have therefore decided to summon the German reichstag in order thereby to give you as the elected representatives of the German nation the opportunity of getting to know my reply first and foremost and either to ratify it or reject it.

"Beyond that, however, I also deemed it expedient to remain true to the procedure adopted by President Roosevelt and on my part and with our means to give the rest of the world knowledge of my answer.

Humble Thanks to Providence.

"I wish, however, also to seize upon this opportunity in order to give expression to those emotions which are astir in me in view of the tremendous historical events of the month of March of this year.

"I can give expression to my deepest feelings only in the form of humble thanks to Providence which called me and which enabled me, the one-time unknown soldier of the war, to rise to the position of Fuehrer of my passionately beloved people."

"For, the soldiers knew no hatred—but those old politicians who had most carefully protected their costly lives from the terrors of war, as avenging spirits, became crazy and pounced down upon humanity.

"Hatred, meanness and folly were the intellectual fathers of the Versailles dictate.

Blames Crazy Politicians.

"Almost 115,000,000 human beings had their right of self-determination violated, not by the victorious soldiers but by the crazy politicians, were arbitrarily taken out of their old communities of interest and placed together in new communities without taking into account their blood, their derivation, common sense and economic necessities.

"The consequences were terrible. A flock of most stupid ignoramuses tore up an order within living spaces in which almost 140 humans per square kilometer must find their means of subsistence, which had formed itself out of almost 2,000 years of historical developments.

"To be sure, the new world order later proved by its consequences to be a catastrophe. Then the democratic peace dictators of American or European derivation were so cowardly that none of them dared assume the responsibility for what had happened.

"Our people plunged into the gloomiest period of its national misfortune.

"Note well, however, that was not National Socialist [Nazi] but democratic Germany—that Germany which for a moment had been weak enough to trust in the promises of democratic statesmen."

Destroy Economic Life.

Hitler then went into detail about the consequences forced upon those "condemned in Versailles."

"In fact, these democratic peace dictators with their Versailles insanity thoroughly destroyed the world economic life.

"Their senseless tearing up of peoples and states led to the destruction of the economic, production, and trade communities which had proved their worth during long centuries, thereby fostering attempts at autarchic independence and through that again the destruction of hitherto general world economic usages.

"How far I now was able to form a nation and create a new order of things out of the chaotic decay of the German people in the course of these twenty years, already now belongs to German history. But what I want to clarify today, first of all, is the aim of my political intentions and their realization.

"I have never left any doubts about it that it is hardly possible in Europe to find an all around satisfactory coordination of state and national borders.

"The world war removed the hope that finally a compromise would be found between the national individuality of the European peoples and the recognition of states that had been formed whereby the preservation of folk life would become possible.

"In the Versailles dictate neither was the right of self determination of peoples taken into account nor were the necessities of state or even of economics considered.

"Nevertheless, I never left any doubt that as already emphasized, even a revision of the Versailles treaty would somewhere reach its limits. With perfect frankness I have always openly said this, not only for tactical reasons but from innermost conviction.

The fuehrer gave specific assurances regarding the American continent.

"I should not like to let this opportunity pass without giving above all to the President of the United States an assurance regarding those territories which would after all give him the most cause for apprehension, namely, the United States itself and the other states of the American continent.

No Attack on America.

"And I here solemnly declare that all the assertions which have been circulated in any way concerning an impending German attack or invasion on or in American territory are rank frauds and gross untruths, quite apart from the fact that such assertions, as far as the military possibilities are concerned, could have their origin only in a stupid imagination."

Hitler declared that the basis for the naval treaty with Great Britain, limiting the reich's navy to 35 per cent of the British, had been removed and that he had notified the British government to that effect.

"Since England today, both by the press and officially, upholds the view that Germany should be opposed under all circumstances and confirms this by the policy of encirclement known to us, the basis for the naval treaty has been removed."

"I have therefore resolved to send today a communication to this effect to the British government.

"This is not a matter of practical material importance to us—for I still hope that we shall be able to avoid an armaments race with England—but an action of self respect.

Seeks an Understanding.

"Should the British government, however, wish to enter once more into negotiations with Germany on this problem no one would be happier than I atthe prospect of still being able to come to a clear and straight-forward understanding."

Regarding Poland, Hitler reiterated his views that "necessity of a free access to the sea for the Polish state cannot be ignored." He further declared that nations which, like Poland and Germany, were "condemned to live side by side would be well advised not to make life still harder for each other artificially and unnecessarily." [Regarding Danzig, Hitler for the first time publicly disclosed the concrete offer made to the Polish government.]

Demands Danzig's Return.

Here is his offer to Poland:

1. Danzig's return as a free state into the framework of the greater Germany.

2. Germany to receive a route through the corridor and a railway line at her own disposal possessing the same extra-territorial status for Germany as the corridor itself has for Poland.

In return, Hitler said, he was prepared to recognize all Polish economic rights in Danzig, to assure a free harbor in Danzig for Poland, to accept the present boundaries between Poland and Germany as ultimate, to conclude a twenty-five year nonaggression treaty with Poland and to guarantee the independence of Slovakia by Germany, Poland, and Hungary jointly.

Poland, Hitler said, "has rejected my offer and has only declared that it is prepared to negotiate concerning the question of a substitute for the commissioners of the league of nations and to consider facilities for the transit traffic through the corridor."

REPLY HEARD BY WORLD

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 28 [Friday].—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler today made his reply to the peace appeal of President Roosevelt—a reply tensely awaited by a Europe feverishly arming and lining up nations in two blocs.

Hitler's speech—which in text form was a 60 page document—was delivered to 862 uniformed members of the reichstag meeting in the Kroll opera house.

Germany virtually halted activity at noon when Hitler began to speak. The released workers gathered around loudspeakers erected in the beflagged streets.

Not only Germany listened—many thousands in foreign lands listened to broadcasts.

Rain fell early in the day as the assembly began gathering at the opera house. Streets leading from the chancellery, where Hitler has his office, to the opera house were lined with flags.

Hitler's speech was in reply to the appeal of Mr. Roosevelt on April 14, asking Hitler and Premier Mussolini of Italy to guarantee peace by giving "assurance that your armed forces will not attack or invade the territory or possessions" of thirty-one nations for at least ten years or, preferably, for a quarter of a century. The President offered his services as an intermediary.

Starts Tense Period in Europe.

Hitler considered the Roosevelt appeal of such great importance that on April 17 he summoned the reichstag to meet today to hear his reply.

Then began a feverish ten days in Europe. The Nazi fleet moved to the coast of Spain for spring maneuvers. The French fleet took over the guard of Gibraltar while the British fleet moved to the eastern Mediterranean and British troops were shifted to bolster the defenses of the Suez canal and Aden. Italy moved troops to its Aegean Islands. Meanwhile the United States fleet was ordered from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

While Britain and France sought the suport of Russia, Poland, Rumania and other nations in efforts to halt aggression—an action which Hitler branded encirclement—the Nazis asked the nations of Europe two questions: Do you have any fear of being attacked by Germany and did you ask Mr. Roosevelt for aid against aggression?

Indirect Reply by Duce.

Premier Mussolini, who has not made a direct answer to President Roosevelt, cited plans for an international exposition in Rome in 1942 as sufficient evidence that the Rome-Berlin axis was not planning aggression.

In an effort to soften the tone of Hitler's speech, Britain and France returned their ambassadors to Berlin. The envoys had been called home after Germany's absorption of Czecho-Slovakia, and still were in their home capitals when Italy absorbed Albania.

As a further emphasis of their support of President Roosevelt's proposals and of the unity of the European democracies, the British yesterday approved compulsory military training—a revolutionary step in Britain's peacetime history.

Today's meeting of the reichstag is likely to be the last held in the Kroll opera house. The building is to be torn down to clear the way for the Triumphal avenue which Hitler dedicated on the eve of his birthday, April 20. The reichstag building, which burned in February, 1933, has been repaired and future sessions are scheduled there.

Sees Movie to Relax.

Hitler relaxed last night after completing the revision of his reply to Mr. Roosevelt. Der Fuehrer saw a movie in the hall he built specially for this purpose in his new chancellery.

A large group of linguistic experts worked all night to translate his speech into foreign languages.

The United States was represented officially in the reichstag hall by Raymond H. Geist, chargé d'affaires, and Donald R. Heath, secretary of the American embassy.

In view of the nature of the speech, it had been suggested that the American chargé d'affaires should refrain from attending the ceremony. However, the American government held that courtesy required the presence of official representatives of the United States. Hugh R. Wilson, the American ambassador, is in America. He was called home last November after a Nazi outbreak against the Jews.

THE DUKE OF WINDSOR SUPPORTS CATHOLIC PROPOSAL FOR PEACE

LONDON, April 27.—(AP)—The duke of Windsor joined a number of other public figures today in indorsing an appeal by the London newspaper Catholic Herald, for a world-wide peace conference. A letter from the duke's secretary to the newspaper said:

"As a Protestant by faith and free from all official ties, the duke is confident that by a frank exposition of the thoughts and feelings of mankind today, and the honesty of the points used to emphasize the vital necessity not only of avoiding war now but to end this prolonged period of tension, this Catholic appeal cannot fail to commend itself to many millions, irrespective of creed, race, or political doctrins."

The Herald issued the appeal to 350,000,000 Catholics throughout the world and to all men of good will.

Among those writing letters in support of the move were President Hyde of Ireland, Lord Hailsham, former lord chanceller; Sir Oswald Mosley, Britain's Fascist leader, and Hugh Walpole, the novelist.

RUMANIA SEEKS HELP OF FRANCE TO CURB HITLER

Wants to Expand Trade with Democracies.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, April 27.—The rôle of Rumania, which many observers consider the most vulnerable point in the system of alliances which the French and British are trying to establish in eastern Europe, came to the fore today. Grigore Gafencu, Rumanian foreign minister, had a series of conversations with President Albert Lebrun, Premier Edouard Daladier, and Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet.

The Rumanian statesman, who is making a tour of the European capitals, was given a lavish welcome in Paris.

A statement will not be issued until after the final conversations between Bonnet and Gafencu on Saturday.

Aid of France Sought.

It was understood that Gafencu was able to assure the French that he had not made any politcal commitments during recent talks with Reichsfuehrer Hitler and Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, in Berlin. He also was understood to have told the French that the value of the British-French guarantee to defend Rumanian independence had not been compromised.

On the other hand, the Rumanian statesman was believed to have been quite blunt in pointing out the economic position of his country. As a result of the recent economic pact signed with Germany, Rumania can only be saved from economic subjugation to Germany by considerable expansion of its trade with the democracies, he is supposed to have declared.

Gafencu was reported to have told Bonnet that the capacity of Rumania to defend itself in case of war depends on the extent to which it receives assistance from France to build up defense industries.

In view of the present indications that France is anxious to back up soviet Russia in transforming unilateral guarantees into a general security system the price which Paris is likely to ask for increased assistance to Rumania in this field is relaxation of Rumania's hostility toward coöperation with Russia.

Hear Japan Will Aid Axis.

Extraordinary but vague rumors current in diplomatic circles concerning a military alliance between Japan and the Rome-Berlin axis powers took shape during the day in a report that Tokio has agreed to send Japanese troops to fight in Africa in the event of a European war, institute national conscription on the European model, and allow a German commission to organize Japanese industry on a war footing.

The Japanese also were said to have agreed to pursue defensive tactics in the Chinese campaign for the time being in order to be able to give greater support to the allies of the anti-communist pact.

According to the same report, Tokio balked only on one German demand—that it send part of its fleet to the Mediterranean to back up Italian and German units there in order to offset British and French superiority.

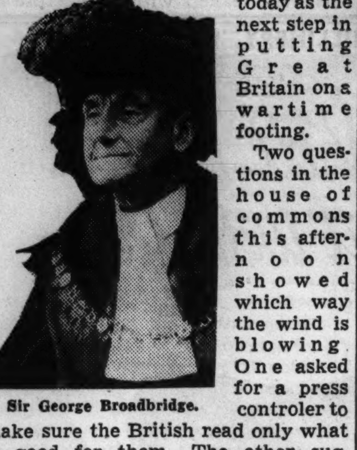
GAG ON BRITISH PRESS LOOMS AS NEXT WAR STEP

Pleas for Control of News [...]hed in Commons.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 27.—Firmer control of the British press appeared to be looming today as the next step in putting Great Britain on a wartime footing.



Sir George Broadbridge.

Two questions in the house of commons this afternoon showed which way the wind is blowing. One asked for a press controler to make sure the British read only what is good for them. The other suggested that the press set up an organization to gag itself.

Asks Representative Council.

Sir George Broadbridge, former lord mayor of London, who is active in City financial circles, asked for the controler. His chief complaint seemed to be that inflammatory news is hurting the brokerage business. Explaining his stand to a London newspaper, Broadbridge said he had been told by friends in the City [the London financial district] that it was "very difficult to sell even trustee stock without long delay" because of "scare articles, news and contents of bills which frighten the public and obstruct trade."

Sir Percy Hurd, fellow of the Institute of Journalists, suggested the setting up of a "representative council of conduct if necessary, with statutory powers to uphold fully the traditional dignity and responsibility of journalism." Hurd's council would consist of representatives of press associations. In a statement to a newspaper trade journal Hurd warned: "If the press wants to avoid government control, it had better put its own house in order."

Hoare Cites Premier's Words.

Sir Samuel Hoare, home secretary, dodged questions, referring the two members of parliament to Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's statement in the house of commons on March 6. At that time Chamberlain said he trusted that the influence of the more responsible newspapers was sufficient to keep out undesirable news.

Broadbridge's question created wide interest in Germany today, where the democratic press was called "world enemy No. 1" in a head line of the Voelkischer Beobachter.

Reports here that Hitler will make new demands for international press control in tomorrow's speech prompted British journals to ask: "Is freedom of the press to be sacrificed to the demands of Herr Hitler?"

FIGHT PROPAGANDA

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, April 27.—The government is taking energetic steps to remedy what many observers considered as the greatest weakness in the struggle with the dictatorships—vulnerability to enemy propaganda.

In addition to the recent but somewhat unwieldy decrees making it a criminal offense for a newspaper to spread race hatred and to receive money for political propaganda from foreign governments, Premier Edouard Daladier is taking quieter and more effective steps to protect the country's morale.

Yesterday, for instance, the premier took the unusual initiative of convoking the directors of all important Paris newspapers for a formal conference. Details of the conference were a closely guarded secret, but it is safe to assume that the premier probably outlined the objectives of a German propaganda attack under various conditions, and appealed to the patriotism of the editors to refrain from publishing anything which might further German aims unwittingly.

Henceforth, observers believe, it will be difficult for French journalists to disregard the premier's plea, and the danger that a so-called defeatist campaign, like that seen last September, will sabotage the government's foreign policy becomes negligible.

Convinced of Daladier's Stand.

This, it was believed, will strengthen France's position in the world considerably, since it is believed likely that instead of launching a sudden military attack—or at least before launching it — Reichsfuehrer Hitler will try to obtain part of his objectives by the same tactics which gave him victory at Munich.

Neutral observers, who hitherto have retained slight misgivings about France's ability to maintain a policy of resistance to the bitter end, now feel reasonably assured that France won't be swept into another Munich by any current of opinion generated on her own soil.

Neither is there the slightest doubt about Daladier's determination. Persons who have talked with the premier recently report that the present terrible responsibility which he has on his shoulders has brought out all the latent strength in his character instead of unnerving him. Daladier, these persons say, appears not only unshakeably determined to follow the course he has set, but also as calm as a piece of granite, though alert and bursting with energy.

Chamberlain's Pressure Feared.

One danger admittedly remains—that Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain of Britain will weaken at the critical moment and that Daladier will have no choice but to accept some new appeasement experiment. All who are in close touch with the French premier agree, however, that Chamberlain will have a hard job selling any appeasement to his French ally.

Daladier, it is true, yielded against his own judgment to British insistence that he send Ambassador Robert Coulondre back to Berlin, but did not yield, THE TRIBUNE was informed, until Chamberlain accepted immediate conscription, which he still is trying to stall off.

Gets Lead in Play

DORIS DUDLEY.

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Bide Dudley, drama critic, today said that his pretty blonde daughter, Doris, had telephoned him from St. Louis to tell him that she will succeed Elaine Barrie Barrymore in the rôle of Cornelia in the play "My Dear Children." Elaine left the play and checked out of the hotel suite in St. Louis which she had occupied with her husband, John Barrymore. Barrymore wearily admitted there would be a divorce.

SERBIAN-CROAT PACT IS SIGNED; LONG FEUD ENDS

Leaders Agree to Settle Jugo-Slav Squabble.

BY ALEX SMALL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BELGRADE, Jugo-Slavia, April 27.—This Balkan capital was rejoicing tonight at the news that its biggest internal problem—the problem of the Croats—has been settled. Premier Dragisha Tsvetkovitch returned by airplane from Zagreb to Belgrade this afternoon with the text of the agreement — practically a treaty — in his pocket. A few hours before it had been signed by himself and Dr. Vladko Matchek, leader of the Croatian autonomists.

Final negotiations passed swiftly. This morning Dr. Matchek produced his own version of the settlement of the dispute between the Serbians and Croats.

Tsvetkovitch Accepts.

Except for some minor points it coincided with the offer made by the premier yesterday. Without hesitation Tsvetkovitch said he accepted it, and the two negotiators signed the document. Its provisions are substantially the same as those outlined by THE TRIBUNE correspondent yesterday.

[The terms, as outlined, provided for Croat autonomy in Slavonia, Croatia, and Dalmatia; Croatian control of a segment of the Adriatic seaboard; abandonment of the Croat claim to central Bosnia; the national constitution to remain in effect; a new national cabinet; a new electoral law; and keeping foreign policy and defense in the hands of the Belgrade government.]

With its policy of informing the public about nothing, the government refused officially to give out the news, and it was only by word of mouth that the glad tidings spread around Belgrade where they were received with noisy satisfaction. The official announcement was expected tomorrow, when the agreement will be presented as the best of all birthday presents which the government could offer to Regent Prince Paul.

Regent Must Ratify.

The regent himself and the whole cabinet must ratify the premier's signature, but it was assumed this will be a mere formality.

As a consequence of the agreement, Dr. Matchek is expected to arrive in Belgrade tomorrow. He will confer at once with prominent leaders regarding the formation of a new coalition government representing all racial groups, including Moslems.

Settlement of the Croatian problem, which has been a running sore in the side of this country ever since its formation, has strengthened the position on all sides. The Jugo-Slavs are relieved of their chief worry—that Italy or Germany or both would use the discontent of the Croats as a means of blackmailing the Belgrade government into submission.

Now the Jugo-Slavs feel confident they can confront the threats of the axis, and that they stand more than an even chance of preserving neutrality on their own terms.

DE VALERA CALLS OFF U. S. TRIP AS RESULT OF DRAFT

No Conscription for Ulster, He Warns.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 27.—Prime Minister Eamon de Valera of Ireland today canceled his proposed trip to the United States because of the British government's decision to introduce conscription.

With a party of high officials De Valera was scheduled to leave Queenstown, Ireland, for the United States on Saturday at the invitation of President Roosevelt to visit Washington, D. C., Chicago, and the world's fairs. The decision to cancel the trip was taken at a special meeting of the Irish cabinet today.

J. W. Dulanty, Irish high commissioner in London, on orders from Dublin, called on Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain this morning to protest against any attempt to force Irish nationalists in Ulster [Northern Ireland] or thousands of Irish citizens living in England to serve in the British army.

Dublin Warns London.

The fact that De Valera considers the conscription issue important enough to call off the American trip underlined the warnings from Dublin that the Irish government would take a grave view if the British attempt to call up Irish nationalists for service in the British army. De Valera holds that the nationalists in Ulster, at least, are the victims of aggression and do not desire to serve in the British army.

[Ulster, which includes six counties, is under Britain's sovereignty, but Ireland, made up of twenty-six counties of the Irish isle, is an independent republic.]

The situation was further complicated by an announcement from Belfast, capital of Ulster, that Viscount Craigavon, Ulster prime minister, has urged Prime Minister Chamberlain to apply the British conscription scheme fully to Northern Ireland.

Pledge to Fight Conscription.

The Irish Union association, Nationalist Parliamentary party, National league, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Ulster all pledged "uncompromising opposition" to conscription, and are reported to have made representations to De Valera to resist inclusion.

While the British government's view apparently is that citizenship of Ireland does not deprive any person of his status as a British subject, De Valera last November announced that no Irish citizen could acquire other nationality or be liable for military service in Britain. Since then the name of King George VI. of Britain has been dropped from passports of Irish subjects and De Valera's name substituted.

De Valera was questioned in the dail [parliament] today as to whether he was satisfied that the British government understood and would respect his statement that Ireland would remain neutral in the event of war. He replied that he was certain the British government was aware of Dublin's attitude.

"Further than that I cannot go," he said. "If the Irish attitude is not to be respected further assurances would not help."

GERMANY DRAFTS CITY GIRLS FOR WORK ON FARMS

Pay Is $11 Week; Young Women Weep.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 27.—A great number of young Germans, chiefly girls under 25 years of age, are being drafted for work regarded by Nazi authorities as of state and political importance. Under a decree issued by Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering as chief of the Nazi four-year plan for economic independence, authorities are empowered to conscript every able bodied German for work. The penalty for failure to comply with the order is six months in prison.

Many of the girls summoned to the labor exchanges protested in vain and sometimes in tears against the work allotted to them. In most cases it was agricultural work or labor in armament factories.

Paid $11 a Week.

Some of the girls held comparatively well paying jobs as stenographers or as domestic servants. They were unwilling to change these occupations for jobs as farm helpers with pay of $11 a week, not counting deductions for taxes, social insurance fees, and cost of transportation.

Since the farm jobs allotted to the girls were for the most part some distance away from their homes, transportation fares represent a considerable deduction in pay.

One girl pleaded that she was to be married in three weeks. She and the other girls, who protested against the work given them, were told by labor exchange officials that they were liable to the maximum sentence of six months in prison and confiscation of their labor book. This would make it impossible for them to accept a new job.

Pay Raises Banned.

The reich labor trustee of Brandenburg today ruled that wages of stenographers may not be increased unless they get less than $48 a month. If a stenographer takes another job her new employer is forbidden to raise her salary only after she has worked six months.

A Berlin court fined an employer $400 for increasing the pay of his staff without permission of the authorities.

GERMAN, BRITISH, FRENCH WARSHIPS MASS AT TANGIER

GIBRALTAR, April 27.—(AP)—Ships of the German, British, and French fleets in the Mediterranean arrived at Tangier, International Zone of Morocco, today. The cruiser Leipzig, heading the German fleet on its cruise in Spanish waters, arrived from Cadiz, where twelve other Nazi vessels anchored today for a visit until May 1.

Thirty minutes later the British destroyer Grafton and the French destroyers Volta, Mogador, and Forbin put in at Tangier. The German cruiser Koln visited Algeciras, arriving from the east and firing a salute as it entered the harbor. A German destroyer entered the Ceuta harbor.

The British battleships Ramilles and Gallant and the destroyer Active left Gibraltar and headed eastward.

Granddaughter of Garner Reigns as Blossom Queen

Winchester, Va., April 27.—[A. P.]—A 16 year old Texas girl reigned as Queen Shenandoah XVI. today as thousands of visitors thronged this region to attend the annual apple blossom festival. The queen, Genevieve Garner of far away Amarillo, granddaughter of Vice President Garner, was the center of attention in a round of pageantry ending with coronation ceremonies.

MISS STELLA MATHEWS.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.] — The Florence Nightingale medal, highest international nursing award, was awarded to Miss Stella Mathews, a native of Albion, Ill., by the International Red Cross committee of Geneva, Switzerland. Miss Mathews now is director of the Honolulu nursing bureau. She is now visiting friends in Milwaukee. Miss Mathews is a graduate of the Knowlton Training School for Nurses in Milwaukee. The committee said the award was made for her outstanding work with the United States army and the American Red Cross in Europe following the world war.

to worry about, criticism of the arrangements has been mounting steadily.

The chief target is Premier W. L. MacKenzie King on the ground that he has sought to rush through the business of the Canadian parliament so it may adjourn on the king's arrival and leave him free to accompany the monarch on his journey through Canada and the United States.

Hits Glorification of Official.

The Ottawa Journal declares that a royal visit "is not for the glorification of officials or political bigwigs." The Montreal Gazette observes that it would be an "outrageous proceeding" for parliament to suspend its session with a great deal of its work undone.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario said yesterday in the Ontario legislature that the governor general was the proper person to accompany King George through Canada, and that the present arrangement was "cheap publicity."

The royal itinerary through Canada has also come under fire on the ground its extensiveness makes it "not a royal tour but royal torture." The Ottawa Journal declares that it was 50 per cent too heavy and "calculated to make Canada look uncivilized and ridiculous."

Analyzing the crowded schedule for June 7, the day before the rulers enter the United States, the Journal points out that they could be required to spend nearly eleven hours visiting six cities, shaking hands with all mayors, city councilors, and the wives of these dignitaries, accepting six bouquets, and in all that time enjoying hardly a half hour for rest and less than an hour for lunch.

CHARGE U. S. JEW WITH PLOTTING TO KILL HITLER

American Officials Probe Arrest in Germany.

[Copyright: 1939: By the New York Times.]

BERLIN, April 27.—American authorities are investigating the case of Leib Schenker, an American citizen of Jewish extraction now imprisoned in Reichenberg in the Sudetenland. He is held on charges of complicity in an alleged plot to murder Reichsfuehrer Hitler.

Schenker, a Galician Jew formerly in business in Gablonz, was denounced three weeks ago by Julius Streicher's anti-Semitic publication, Der Stuermer. Schenker was arrested soon after.

Schenker, it was believed, will be brought to trial before the People's court in Berlin. The state's attorney of Reichenberg was reported to have said that the case is too grave to be tried locally.

Charges Advice from U. S.

Der Stuermer charged that Schenker declared he would receive $1,000,000 from America if what was termed the Jews' most ardent wish [Hitler's death] were fulfilled. The organ alleged he "evidently received specific instructions from the United States."

Der Stuermer further charged that Schenker made his house a rendezvous for communist agitators passing to and from Germany, and distributed bolshevist leaflets with the picture of Ernest Thaelmann [former head of the German communist party] and instructions in German and Hebrew.

Denounced to Nazi Consul.

Schenker, said Der Stuermer, was denounced to the German consul at Reichenberg prior to the German annexation of the Sudetenland.

It is reported Schenker left Gablonz last September, leaving behind him his American passport which police confiscated. Der Stuermer reproduced the passport picture with the stamp of the state department of the United States and Schenker's signature clearly visible.

ENGLAND SEEKS VOLUNTEERS FOR HOME DEFENSE

LONDON, April 27.—(AP)—The British war office today asked for volunteers from among ex-service men between 45 and 51 for the territorial army reserve to be used for home defense in case of war.

About 1,500,000 men were made available for the territorial, anti-aircraft and coastal batteries by being dropped from the reserved occupations' list—of jobs important to national welfare.

This means they are at liberty now to join the territorial field army, like the American National Guard.

INTRODUCES BILL TO PUNISH JAPAN AS AN AGGRESSOR

Pittman Tries Strategy in Fight Over Neutrality.

Japan Is Displeased

TOKIO, April 28 [Friday.]—(AP)—Official circles today declared Japan would be driven further into the German-Italian lineup if the United States congress adopted the Pittman resolution to give the President power to impose an embargo on Japan.

"Such action means a complete decision to abandon neutrality by America," an informed source said. "Unquestionably, therefore, it would serve to strengthen Japan's bonds with Germany and Italy.

"The senator must realize America will be unable to escape the consequences of this measure. Such actions always are double edged and certainly will affect hundreds of thousands of Americans whose livelihood is dependent upon silk, cotton, and other industries."

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—Senator Key Pittman [D., Nev.], chairman of the senate foreign relations committee and a spokesman for the administration on foreign affairs, today introduced a bill authorizing President Roosevelt to attempt to punish Japan as an aggressor.

Senate nationalists who oppose any scheme to take sides in a foreign war described the new Pittman proposal as highly objectionable and war provoking. They gave it no chance whatsoever to pass the senate.

What Bill Provides.

Pittman's bill would give the President discretionary power to place an embargo on exports and imports between the United States and any signatory of the nine power pact of 1922 found to have violated that treaty to the extent of "endangering the lives of our citizens or depriving them of their legal rights and privileges."

The nine power pact guaranteed the independence and territorial integrity of China and accorded equal rights and opportunities to the signatory powers in that country.

Pittman's bill specifically exempts American agricultural exports from the embargo powers proposed for the President. This exception presumably is intended to placate southern senators, who well know Japan is the largest purchaser of American cotton.

Use as Club Intended.

The bill would give the President power to impose restrictions on trade and commerce "from time to time through embargoes upon the export and import of certain commodities, articles, and materials, and by restrictions upon monetary exchange and credits specifically limited and defined in proclamations by the President."

The bill specifically authorizes the President to use such powers as a sort of club with which to crack down on Japan. It is the intent of congress, the bill asserts, that the powers would not be exercised until "after the President has made every reasonable effort to induce said state to comply with the terms of said treaty as affecting the lives of our citizens and their rights and privileges."

Regarded as Strategy.

Pittman's bill to name Japan as an aggressor was regarded as a strategical maneuver to win support for his so-called cash and carry amendment to the existing neutrality act, which is intended to make the resources of the United States available to Great Britain and France in Europe's next war.

Pittman's neutrality act amendment would permit the sale of arms, ammunition, and implements of war, as well as raw materials, on a cash and carry basis to all belligerents. It is conceded it would favor the nations controling the seas, that is, Great Britain and France, in a war between those countries and the totalitarian nations of Europe.

Some of the Roosevelt internationalists are opposed to the Pittman cash and carry scheme on the ground that it also would favor Japan, a big navy country, to the detriment of China.

Prefer Aggressor Naming.

They prefer the bill introduced by Senator Elbert D. Thomas [D., Utah] which would permit the President to name the aggressor and, with the approval of congress, to exempt the victim of aggression from the embargo provisions of the neutrality act.

Pittman hopes to appease the aggressor namers by dealing separately with Japan.

President Roosevelt has refused to proclaim the existence of state of war between Japan and China and thus automatically invoke the existing neutrality act. The pretext for ignoring the law is that war has not been declared.

The internationalists do not want the law enforced because, they argue, it would hurt China more than Japan. Neither side could get any arms, but Japan does not buy manufactured products—only raw materials. Moreover, the act forbids loans and credits to belligerents, and had it been enforced China could not have obtained her $25,000,000 war credit from the export-import bank.

TWO BOY SCOUTS SAVE CHILD WHO FELL INTO LAKE

Lee Brunner, 7 years old, 3520 Lake Shore drive, was rescued by two Boy Scouts yesterday when he fell into the lake at Waveland avenue. The rescuers are Martin Roberts and Joseph Snover, both 15 years old, of 4424 and 4422 North Racine avenue.

Brunner slipped off a rock into the water, which is about thirty feet deep there. By holding onto pilings along the shore the boys reached into the water and pulled the child out. They then took him home. Both scouts are members of Troop 902.

22 CZECHS GIVEN PAPERS GRANTING U. S. CITIZENSHIP

Twenty-two former residents of Czecho-Slovakia became citizens of the United States yesterday when they renounced allegiance to the country before Judge Michael L. Igoe in the United States District court. Since the United States has not recognized Germany's absorption of Czecho-Slovakia, the applicants for United States citizenship were not considered to be Germans.

Among the fifty-five British subjects who were naturalized in the ceremony yesterday was Miss Catherine Stack, 69 years old, who is crippled. She was wheeled into the courtroom on an ambulance cot. She lives in a nursing home at 4115 Drexel boulevard. The following other nationals were naturalized yesterday: Jugo-Slavia, seventeen; Mexico, five; France, three; Switzerland, two, and Belgium, one.

FIELD GREEN

By CALEB

FROM a member of our organization who, like hundreds of others in its many-sided and versatile personnel, is far from being limited to one carefully-kept talent, comes this lyric paragraph:

"There is more than a passing significance in the fact that green is the 'color motif' of Spring's ensemble. Carpeting lawns—tender shoots—trees in full leaf—recall the interesting fact that green is also the adopted color of our store. For many years now, the 'Field green' of our wrappings, trucks and uniforms, has come to be regarded as an identifying symbol of our service. And undoubtedly it was that keen sense of the fitness of things that explains why, many years ago, the founder of our store revealed to his friends that green was his favorite color."

Whether or no this rendering of its origin is supported by fact—the sentiment itself is not only highly appropriate, but grounded in the good graces of probability. For Marshall Field was both a lover of nature and the recipient of its most formative influences: he was reared on the clean, forthright farmlands of New England.

Instinctively, then, one credits with authenticity the above-quoted tribute to Field green as "the identifying symbol of our service"! Many a myth of nobler proportions has stood on premises of frailer justification . . . and the merit of this one (if myth it be) lies in cordial public acceptance of the color which has kept it in continuous use for so many years. Season after season finds our elevator operators graciously garbed in this "motif of Spring"—our delivery vans flashing its verdancy through city and suburbs—our messenger boys sprightly under its vivacious spell—even our wrapping papers and suit boxes more welcome to the arm, or at the opened door, because of this same agreeable "wearin' o' the green."

Perhaps it is not for nothing that we find the diamond typifying April's unstained lucidity of rain . . . but the emerald intimating May's return, and coming summer. With an imaginary wreath of Field green, therefore, as cue and accent for the day's routine, we approach a new season and a new world—very much in tune with both, and very much alive to the inspiration they impart to man's emergence from the cocoon-wrappings of winter.

PICKS BRIGADIER CHIEF OF STAFF FOR U. S. ARMY

Gen. G. C. Marshall Will Succeed Craig.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt today nominated Brig. Gen. George Catlett Marshall, 58 years old, to serve as chief of staff of the United States army for a period of four years, upon the retirement of Gen. Malin Craig next August.

In making the nomination the President passed over a long list of major generals.

Marshall is the first chief of staff since Gen. Leonard Wood in 1910-'14 who has not been a graduate of West Point Military academy.

Simultaneously with the nomination of Brigadier General Marshall who will assume the rank of full general upon taking over his new post on Sept. 1, President Roosevelt nominated Col. James Carre Magee to be surgeon general of the army with the rank of major general. He succeeds Major General Charles R. Reynolds on the latter's retirement on May 31.

Now Deputy Chief of Staff.

The new chief of staff has been serving as deputy chief of staff since last October. He will be 59 years old on Dec. 31.

General Marshall was graduated from Virginia Military institute in 1901 and enlisted in the 13th infantry. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in 1902.

Sailing for France and the world war in June, 1917, General Marshall served with the First division until July, 1918, as assistant chief of staff for operations, participating in most of the major campaigns in which the American army took part.

Served in Major Battles.

General Marshall then was transferred to the general staff at general headquarters of the American expeditionary forces and later became chief of staff of the 1st army in which capacity he participated in the final major offensives of the war.

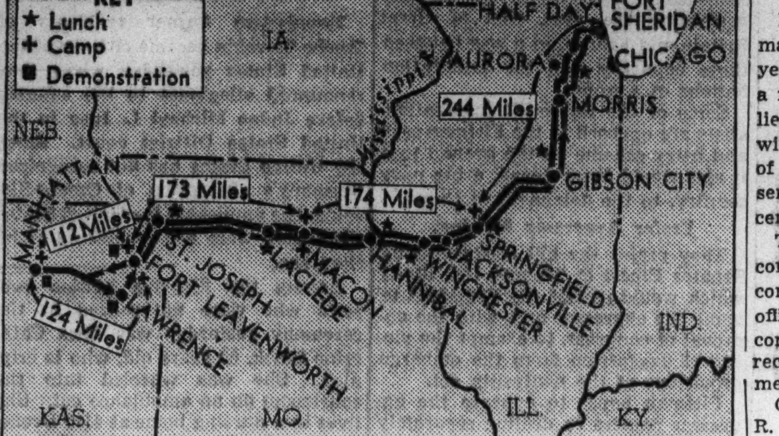
The senate approved and sent to the White House a deficiency appropriation bill for $162,319,059, including 153 million dollars for the national defense program. The major defense items in the bill were: For army ordnance and supplies, $55,366,362, plus contract authorizations of $44,000,000.

For army sea coast defenses, $5,478,287, plus contract authorizations of $1,061,000.

For construction and machinery in replacing naval vessels, $24,000,000.

For armor, armament and ammunition for the navy, $12,500,000.

Route of Coast Artillery Trip



Route of trip to be started Monday from Fort Sheridan by the 61st coast artillery. The crosses indicate the overnight camp sites. There will be a three day stay in Manhattan, Kas., and the troops will spend a total of three days at Fort Leavenworth. The 1,400 mile journey will end on May 13 with the return to Fort Sheridan. The entire 61st coast artillery, with the exception of headquarters battery, will make the trip.

Early Risers

Soldiers of the 61st Coast Artillery, who will leave on Monday for a two weeks' trip to Kansas and back, will break camp at 5 a. m. every day of the seven they are on the road. They will travel 1,400 miles—a leisurely trip for the unit, since Maj. Gen. Stanley Ford, 6th Corps Area commander, says the unit is capable of traveling much more than 200 miles a day. In Kansas the unit will give tactical displays before R. O. T. C. units.

ASKS CONGRESS TO RETIRE OLD ARMY OFFICERS

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—Secretary of War Harry Woodring today sent to congress recommendations for legislation to bring the army up to date by revising officer retirement provisions to permit the retirement of over-age officers unsuitable for field duty in time of war.

The bill proposed by Woodring would provide a fixed rate of annual attrition for promotion list officers, so as to eliminate officers who are over-age in grade and provide a uniform and regular flow of promotion. It would affect ranks from captain through brigadier general.

Woodring said that a man who enters the service as a second lieutenant at the age of 24, will, by terms of the bill, reach the grade of colonel after 28 years of commissioned service at an average of 52, with the proper years of service in each grade.

Woodring said increased costs of his plan would be negligible now and would increase gradually until it reached approximately $500,000 in 1948.

MINER KILLED BY ROCK FALL.

Taylorville, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Marceau Wattlet, 29 years old, of Stonington, was killed today when struck by a rock fall in Peabody mine No. 8 at Tovey. Wattlet was a licensed minister of the Church of God.

AUSTRALIA PLANS U. S. LEGATION.

CANBERRA, Australia, April 27.—(AP)—Premier R. G. Menzies announced today that the Australian government planned to establish legations in Washington and Tokio. He said the United States and Japan probably would open legations in Canberra.

ARMY TO PICK R.O.T.C GRADS FOR LIEUTENANCIES

Maj. Gen. Stanley H. Ford, commander of the 6th corps area, said yesterday that, if funds are provided, a number of appointments as second lieutenants of the United States army will be made during the fiscal year of 1940 from honor graduates of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training corps.

This will be done, he said, in accordance with the act approved by congress on Auril 3. A board of army officers will be appointed in each corps area to examine candidates and recommend selections for appointments.

Gen. Ford said this will permit R. O. T. C. honor graduates to obtain commissions in the regular army direct from civil life, without the usual prolonged period of preliminary study.

Judge Advocates to Hear Address on Martial Law

Lieut. Col. William M. Connor, judge advocate of the 6th Army Corps area, will address the reserve judge advcoates from the corps area at a meeting Saturday evening in the Army and Navy club, 600 South Michigan avenue.

HOLDS EUROPEAN WAR IS UNLIKELY IN NEAR FUTURE

A European war in the near future is not probable, Brig. Gen. Karl Truesdell, commandant of Fort Sheridan, said last night. He spoke before the Cook county chapter of the Reserve Officers' association at their annual meeting in the La Salle hotel.

If this country should become involved in combat, he said, the national defense forces are sufficient to meet any threat.

Gen. Truesdell said our navy is second to none and could withstand the attack of any conceivable naval combine. The Atlantic ocean, he asserted, is still "a formidable dike." And the army could put about 280,000 men in the defensive theater on mobilization day, exclusive of behind-the-lines forces.

FLORIDA CANAL BILL VOTED OUT BY COMMITTEE

Sent to Senate Without Recommendation.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—By a vote of 10 to 9, the senate commerce committee today reported without recommendation the administration measure to construct the 200 million dollar Florida ship canal.

Proponents of the measure were forced to make the concession of no recommendation in order to get the bill reported at all. A motion to report favorably would have been defeated and the bill would have been killed. Senator Claude Pepper D., Fla.] made such a motion, but before it came to a vote Senator John H. Overton [D., La.] offered a substitute motion to report the measure without recommendation.

Johnson Fails to Vote.

The Overton motion carried only because of the unexplained refusal of Senator Hiram Johnson [R., Cal.], who was attending a session of the foreign relations committee, to permit the use of his proxy. Had Johnson voted as he was expected to vote, the Overton motion would have failed in a tie and that would have been the end of the 200 million dollar Florida ship canal.

Senator Vandenberg, who has led a four year fight against the Florida canal and the equally bizarre Passamaquoddy tide harnessing scheme in Maine, was greatly disappointed by Senator Johnson's performance. Residents of the southern half of Florida vigorously oppose the sea level ship canal on the ground that salt water seepage would pollute the subterranean water supply and destroy the Florida citrus fruit industry. It was suggested ironically that the people of California probably wanted it to go through for that purpose, hence Senator Johnson's action.

Engineers Oppose Canal.

The canal, connecting the Gulf of Mexico with the Atlantic, would be 195 miles long, 33 feet deep and 400 feet wide. The board of engineers for rivers and harbors disapproved the project. Neither shippers nor carriers favor it.

2 KILLED, 1 HURT WHEN TRAIN HITS CAR IN ELMHURST

Two men were killed and a third injured yesterday when an Aurora-Elgin train struck a sedan in which they were riding at the Poplar avenue crossing in Elmhurst.

William Gerschepke, 51 years old, of Bellwood, was killed instantly. Gus Wolf, 42, of 7249 Madison street, Forest Park, died in the Elmhurst hospital two hours later. Harry Vleck, 45 years old, 45 years old, of Melrose Park, driver of the car, was taken to the Westlake hospital in Melrose Park.

Anthony Pennelle, 10 years old, 2039 Erie street, was fatally injured by the automobile of a neighbor, Sam Termini, 18, of 2037 Erie street, in an alley behind their homes. Termini told police the boy ran in front of his car.

A child of 4 was believed to be dying last night after an auto accident at Roosevelt road and California avenue in which he suffered a basal skull fracture. He is Jerry Capriola of 1303 South Lawndale avenue. He was taken to Mount Sinai hospital. There were eight other persons in the car, none of whom was seriously hurt. The car was struck as it turned left at the intersection by an auto driven by Henry Goldberg, 30 years old, 1130 South Richmond street.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 292 had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these, 227 were killed in Chicago, where 6,097 were injured in the same period.

Boy, 13, Injured in Boating Accident Awarded $2,500

A jury yesterday awarded $2,500 damages to Gordon Young, 13 years old, in his personal injury suit against Stanley Jensen, 26, of Lincolnwood. The boy charged he was injured May 30, 1937, when Jensen was thrown from his motor boat in which he was stunting. The boat crashed into a canoe in which Young and a companion were paddling. Young lives at 617 Sheridan road, Evanston. The case was heard by Judge Roman E. Posanski of Calumet City, sitting in the Circuit court.

LAUNCH LARGEST DIESEL TOWBOAT BUILT IN CHICAGO

The Patsy H., largest Diesel river tow boat built in Chicago, was launched in the Calumet river yesterday by the Calumet Shipyard and Dry Dock company. The vessel was built for the A. L. Mechling Barge Lines of Joliet, which will use it on the Illinois and Mississippi as a pusher boat for barges.

The Patsy H. was named for Patsy Henry, 15 years old, niece of A. H. Mechling, of Portsmouth, O. She attended the launching ceremony. A sister ship, the Betty M., named for Mrs. Mechling, was launched April 4.

Each boat has a beam of 20 feet and are 85 feet long and will push 6,000 tons of cargo. They are valued at $75,000 each.

Court Takes Cadet Under Supervision After Crash

George Sculley, 17 years old, 4451 Deming place, a student in the Morgan Park Military academy, was placed under supervision for one year by Judge J. M. Braude in Boys' court yesterday. Sculley pleaded guilty to reckless driving. The charge arose from an accident March 20 when a car driven by Sculley crashed into another at 4501 Belmont avenue.

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

MOTH... "a nocturnal insect resembling a butterfly."

"Resembling a bombing plane!" said Mrs. Pennyfeather, violently.

The old story! It could happen to anybody else in the world—but never to Mrs. Pennyfeather.

That's what she thought.

Yes. She did leave her fur coat in the closet last summer. And the moths did literally destroy it. And she had to buy another coat (her husband was furious). Today there's nobody on earth more interested in fur storage than Mrs. Pennyfeather.

"You send your coat right to Field's, today," she said to her daughter Julia. "I made it my business to find out all about fur storage, after that awful fuss with your father last year.

"The service at Field's is wonderful. They keep your furs right there in the store. No need to worry about moths at all, because they have a special process called GUARDITE. Your father knows about it . . . the government uses it to protect the archives.

"Then the coats are put in a vault where the temperature is freezing. They explained to me how this helps to preserve the natural oils. Logical, isn't it?

"So, you see, your coat will be safe from all the things that could hurt it. The price is the same as you'd pay for ordinary storage. No delay now . . . DO YOU WANT TO DO WHAT I DID?"

Julia's coat arrived today. Yours will be equally safe in our hands. Call State 1000, ask for Fur Storage. Or leave your order in the Fur Salon, Sixth Floor. In one of our Suburban Stores if it is more convenient.

It is impossible to give any fur coat better care than we give every fur coat.

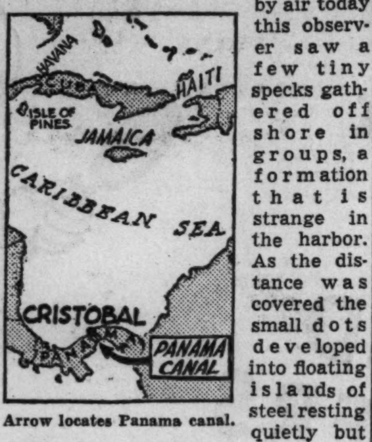
U. S. FLEET SAILS THROUGH CANAL TO PACIFIC OCEAN

Last of Ships to Complete Passage Today.

BY CAPT. M. M. CORPENING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CRISTOBAL, Canal Zone, April 27. —Approaching Balboa from the north by air today this observer saw a few tiny specks gathered off shore in groups, a formation that is strange in the harbor. As the distance was covered the small dots developed into floating islands of steel resting quietly but ominously at anchor.



Arrow locates Panama canal.

They were the mighty dreadnaughts of the fleet of the United States. Steam was up and smoke was coming from the stacks.

The first of the fleet has completed the slow passage through the Panama canal from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The main body arrived at Limon bay at noon yesterday, and the first ship started through the locks at 4:30 o'clock this morning. Transit has continued steadily since, the vessels clearing through Gatun or the big east locks at intervals of fifteen to thirty minutes. Much secrecy was maintained with regard tc the ship movements, and no information was given out by the navy personnel or port officials.

Gates to Locks Closed.

Gates leading to all the locks and other avenues of approach were closed. Much effort apparently was expended in regulating the speed of the ships so as to take no chance in getting the fleet bottled up.

The parade of ships through the narrow waterway was led by the heavier dreadnaughts, including one airplane carrier and two flagships, the Pennsylvania and the Colorado. During the afternoon the lighter cruisers began passing through the canal and speed seemed to be gained as the movement progressed.

Limon bay was packed last night with 105 vessels composing the group making the trip, but this afternoon there were signs of a rapid thinning out. It was reported that the last ship will go through sometime tomorrow morning.

Among the ships on the Atlantic side is the airplane carrier Lexington. About 1,000 men, or 15 per cent of the personnel, were given shore leave on the Cristobal side today.

Ships Wait at Anchor.

Approximately forty ships on the west and twenty on the east are waiting at anchor. The steamship Santa Lucia, headed for South American ports, will be the first one through from the Atlantic side after the navy clears. Twenty-four hour service will be maintained until the congestion is over.

Admiral Claude C. Block, commander in chief of the fleet, aboard the flagship Pennsylvania, was running the show.

Vice Admiral Ernest J. King, commanding officer of the aircraft battle force, called on Gov. Inocencio Galindo of Colon. He presented Admiral Bloch's respects. Admiral Bloch was unable to call in person because of the fleet's passage through the canal. The call was promptly returned.

Plan a Party

Marjorie Silverstein and George Butzen make plans for skit to be presented at birthday party Saturday for Maurice L. Rothschild.

A 200 pound, gray haired Shirley Temple, skipping across the stage at the Standard club in a short bloomer dress, will be one of the stars Saturday night at a birthday party for Maurice L. Rothschild, founder of the State street store by that name. Mr. Rothschild, who long ago declared his greatest asset in business had been the good will of his employés, will be entertained by his 700 clerks, sales people, and store executives for two hours in celebration of his 75th birthday. The walls of the ballroom, where the party will be held, will be decorated with murals painted by display artists of the store, depicting milestones in Mr. Rothschild's career as a merchant.

FIND DENTIST, 70, SHOT TO DEATH; WED RECENTLY

Dr. Hugo Franz, a veteran dentist who married his secretary two weeks ago, was found shot to death last night in his sixteenth floor offices in the Marshall Field annex, 25 East Washington street. He was 70 years old.

Police found a revolver on the floor. They also discovered a letter, representing a contract between himself and a north side undertaker to be carried out on his death. The contract was made out last June. These indicated suicide, police said.

Dr. Franz's body was discovered by Carl Van Riezen, night building superintendent, after he became suspicious because the dentist had not checked out of the building. Dr. Franz lived at the Knickerbocker hotel with his bride, the former Miss Elsa Dorre. She told police she had been his secretary for sixteen years. He seemed cheerful when she last saw him, she said. Dr. Franz was educated in Berlin and was said to have done dental work for many prominent Chicagoans.

Forest Preserve Concession Contract Goes for $20,450

The forest preserve board yesterday awarded William H. Waldron, 1623 Belmont avenue, the privilege of operating general concession stands this year in the preserves. He bid $20,450. Henry J. Dreholb, 5257 Galitz avenue, Niles Center, with a bid of $1,000 got the contract for operating golf instruction and accessory stands and lost ball concessions at the preserve's five golf courses.

DIES OF HEART ATTACK.

William Denning, 40 years old, died in his home at 4404 South California avenue last night of a heart attack.

CHICAGO STARTS DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ON SUNDAY

Clocks to Be Set Ahead an Hour at 2 A. M.

Remember that aggressive and unpopular infant whose name was Daylight Saving Time? He is an infant no longer. When Chicagoland sets its clocks ahead an hour at 2 a. m. Sunday, Daylight Saving Time will have grown up. He will be 21 years old.

With few exceptions all Chicago's suburbs and the surrounding country towns will follow the example of the city. Suburban transit services also will conform. Daylight time ends the last Sunday in September.

North Shore to Follow Suit.

Waukegan and all the communities of Lake county and the north shore will set their clocks ahead. So will all towns in the Fox river valley, with the exception of Marengo, in McHenry county. Du Page county, which includes Wheaton, Elmhurst, and Naperville, will adopt daylight saving time.

In Will county the principal towns, including Joliet and Lockport, will follow suit. Those remaining on standard time are Wilmington, Manhattan, Braidwood, and Peotone. The Calumet industrial area in Indiana also will follow Chicago's time.

Several railroads have changed the schedules of their better known trains to conform both to central daylight time here and eastern daylight time in New York and New England. The 20th Century Limited of the New York Central Lines will continue to leave Chicago at its regular time of 4 p. m.

Vanderbilt Cuts Its Time.

The Commodore Vanderbilt of the same road will leave at 3:05 p. m. [C. D. T.], cutting the running time to New York ten minutes. The Lake Shore Limited's time will be shortened fifty-five minutes, the train leaving at 6:30 p. m. [C. D. T.]. The Fifth Avenue Special will make its run ten minutes faster, leaving at noon [C. D. T.].

The Milwaukee road's morning Hiawatha to the Twin Cities will go at 10:30 a. m. [C. D. T.]. Several other changes—not based upon the time—will go into effect Sunday.

The Pennsylvania road's Broadway Limited will continue to leave at its regular time of 4 p. m. The General will go at 4:30 also, which will be fifteen minutes later than its old departure hour under standard time.

A ten minute change will be made in the leaving time of the B. & O. Capitol Limited, which now is 3:30 p. m. [C. S. T.]. Under daylight time it will go at 4:40 p. m.

The Green Diamond of the Illinois Central system will arrive from St. Louis at 8 a. m. [C. D. T.] instead of 7:30 [C. S. T.].

[Details of air line schedule changes will be found on page 35 in the business section.]

I'll tell you what Edna told me about 'ONE COAT MAGIC'

"Betty," she said, "even if you've never painted before, you can do a swell job with this enamel.

"It's called DUCO. And honestly, Betty, it's the easiest-to-use enamel you can buy.

"Look at my kitchen now!" (I was there at the time.) "I did all this myself."

It did look swell, too—table, chairs, cabinets and shelves looked like new in a lovely green and ivory.

"And see how smooth it is," she pointed out. "No brush marks anywhere."

"Best of all, Betty," Edna said, "one coat of DUCO was enough. Do you wonder that I call it 'One Coat Magic'?"

Try DUCO yourself! See what fun it is to brighten up old, shabby furniture and woodwork with this easiest-to-use enamel!

Do These Common Troubles Worry You?

Try getting Extra Vitamins this MORE EFFECTIVE WAY

"BUT," you say, "I am getting a good supply of vitamins in my daily diet."

Actually, studies indicate, the vitamins everyday meals supply are often not enough for really buoyant health.

That's why so many now take care to get extra vitamin help every day.

Be sure to eat these extra vitamins you may need in a way that can offer fuller benefits—in Fleischmann's new High-Vitamin Yeast.

Vitamins and More—This improved yeast is now richer in 4 essential vitamins—"Resistance" Vitamin A, "Nerve" Vitamin B_1, "Bone" Vitamin D and "Vitality" Vitamin G. It is the only fresh food that gives you all 4 of these vitamins in such rich amounts.

"Booster Action"—And with these 4 vitamins you may get the remarkable "booster action" of the fresh yeast itself.

Slow digestion may be robbing you—like so many others—of making full use of the vitamins you eat. By helping to quicken and stimulate this slow digestion, the yeast can help you assimilate the vitamins you eat more fully.

In this way it helps "boost" their effectiveness—offers more complete results than just vitamins alone.

Start now to eat these extra vitamins this effective way. Eat 2 cakes of Fleischmann's High-Vitamin Yeast every day. Notice what a difference this eating vitamins-in-fresh-yeast can make.

2 cakes of Fleischmann's High-Vitamin Yeast supply

VITAMIN A—6200 UNITS (Int.)
VITAMIN B_1— 300 UNITS (Int.)
VITAMIN D— 800 UNITS (Int.)
VITAMIN G—100-120 UNITS (Sh. Bour.)

All the average person needs (plus meals) of Vitamins A, B_1, D—and a rich supply of Vitality Vitamin G.

Eat one cake ½ hour before breakfast or lunch, one ½ hour before supper. Or, if you prefer, eat the 2 cakes at one time. Simply eat it plain, or in a little water or milk.

PRESIDENT ASKS A RELIEF BUDGET OF 1,762 MILLION

Defends WPA Under Fire of Criticism.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt asked congress today to appropriate 1 billion 762 million dollars for unemployment relief during the twelve months beginning next July 1. Of this $1,477,000,000 is for the Works Progress administration.

James F. Byrnes.

Although the President demanded action on his request as soon as possible congressional leaders showed no desire for haste in providing the huge new fund.

Proposals are pending in both senate and house for drastic changes in the spending of relief money. In addition, a house committee is investigating charges of extravagance and inefficiency in the WPA.

After this inquiry is completed and congress has considered improvements in the present relief set-up, the question of the amount to be spent during the next fiscal year can be determined, the leaders agreed.

Criticized Other Bills.

Mr. Roosevelt defended the WPA in his message and criticized the bills, sponsored by Senator James F. Byrnes [D., S. C.] and Representative Clifton A. Woodrum [D., Va.], which would have unemployment relief handled through a system of grants of federal funds to states.

"I believe that such a system has as many disadvantages as there are local political units in the nation," the President stated. He admitted that the present system was not perfect, but lamented a "tendency to enlarge upon criticism of a few isolated projects to an extent which obscures the real character and value of the program as a whole."

The President also expressed his approval of the theater, arts, dancing, and writing projects which have occasioned widespread criticism in congress.

Lauds Nonconstruction Work.

"I wish to state with emphasis, since the opposite view is frequently expressed," he declared, "that the program of the WPA should as at present include some projects of the nonconstruction type to meet the needs of those unemployed workers whose training is such that they are not adapted to employment on construction projects."

Optimism concerning the economic situation was stated by Mr. Roosevelt in the message. He referred to the Roosevelt recession as a temporary setback and asserted that the lost ground was being regained.

"There is every reason to believe that average employment during 1939 will be well in excess of that for 1938," he said.

Blames Increase in Supply.

In spite of the spread of private employment, the volume of unemployment continues at high levels, he admitted. The reason for this, he declared, was the net increase in the labor supply, due to the growth of the working population of 500,000 workers annually. Another factor was the increasing output of the individual worker, he asserted.

The problem of unemployment relief therefore, he said, will extend over a considerable period of time.

"Until our economic machinery can be realigned to meet present day conditions the problem of unemployment will persist," he stated, "and the measures adopted to deal with it must therefore be carefully thought out and their operation planned to extend well into the future."

Breakdown of Recommendations.

The President's work-relief recommendations for the fiscal year 1940 were as follows:

Agency—	Amount.
Works Progress administration	$1,477,000,000
National Youth administration	123,000,000
Farm Security administration	123,000,000
Indian service	1,350,000
Administrative expenses, treasury, etc.	25,650,000
National Emergency council	1,500,000
National Resources committee	990,000
Porto Rico Reconstruction administration	10,000,000
Total	$1,762,490,000

The WPA appropriation, Mr. Roosevelt said, will permit the employment of slightly more than an average of 2,000,000 persons during the next fiscal year. As he has invariably done in other work-relief messages, he left the way open for requests for more money.

Always Asks for More.

"Barring unforeseen and unpredictable developments, we are justified," he stated, "in expecting an upward trend in the volume of employment between now and June 30, 1940, and the sum named represents my judgment as to the amount that should be provided on the basis of that expectation.

In previous years, it was pointed out by several congressmen, the "unforeseen and unpredictable developments" have always occurred, resulting in demands for additional appropriations.

The President declared that the appropriation of 123 millior for the NYA was essential as was the granting of a similar sum to the Farm Security administration which aids low income farm families.

The message ended with a reference to statements sent to the state department commenting upon the scarcity of unemployment in the totalitarian states. Unemployment is small in those countries, the President said, because a large portion of the population is employed by the government in the manufacture of munitions. That system costs far more than our system, he remarked.

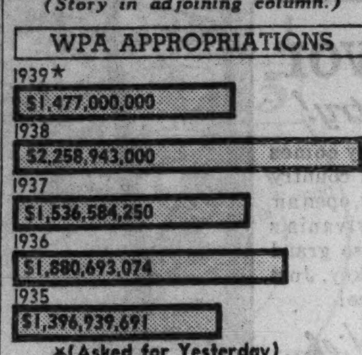
Sees Chance for Improvement.

"I trust that the people will not be deceived by the terminology and will not assume that the totalitarian methods of government are far more effective than our own," he said.

"The system which we have favored in the United States during the last six years is by no means perfect. It can be improved, but not at the expense of substituting the dole for work relief nor by turning the management of works projects back to the sole care of the many thousands of local governments. It will be said by history, after much political smoke has cleared away, that the federal government's handling of work relief has been one of our most efficient administrative accomplishments."

First Request

(Story in adjoining column.)



WPA appropriations for the years since 1935 compared with President Roosevelt's request of yesterday for next year. The figures for previous years do not necessarily conform to the original request, since the WPA budget for the current year, for example, is made up of several separate appropriations.

BACKS WALGREEN FOR REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE POST

A recommendation is expected to be made by the Illinois state Republican committee in Springfield tomorrow for a successor to the late George F. Harding as Republican national committeeman for Illinois.

One of the leading candidates was said to be Charles R. Walgreen, owner of the Walgreen drug store system. His name was proposed yesterday by A. K. Stiles of Sycamore, state chairman. Mr. Stiles expressed the opinion that Mr. Walgreen's selection would make for party harmony.

Several other men are in the running for the Harding post, among them Dwight H. Green, recent mayoralty nominee; Thomas J. Houston, Hill Blackett, and Philip Collins.

LINDBERGHS MAY REMAIN IN U. S., FRIEND REVEALS

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his family may decide to remain in the United States on a protracted stay, or even permanently, a friend close to the Morrow family at Englewood, N. J., said today. Mrs. Lindbergh and her two young sons, Jon and Land, will arrive here tomorrow aboard the liner Champlain.

INTEREST ON U. S. DEBT GOES OVER BILLION A YEAR

Takes Fifth of Dollar the Taxpayer Yields.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—The attention of the house was called today to the item of 1 billion and 50 million dollars which the government must pay for interest on the national debt during the next fiscal year.

The item is contained in the treasury-postoffice appropriation bill, a conference report on which was approved by the house and sent back to the senate for an agreement on minor particulars.

Representative Everett M. Dirksen [R., Illinois], told members that the billion dollar item was glossed over by the President and receives little attention in congress.

Tremendous Gain Traced.

"It is a colossal amount and it is so important that it bears dramatization and emphasis," he declared.

"At the close of the civil war, the national debt was but 2 2-3 billions and the annual interest charge slightly over 34½ millions," Dirksen said. "In 1914, the interest outlay on what we owed was about 23 millions. Twenty-five years later, in 1939, it had climbed to the astronomical sum of one billion and for 1940 it will be $1,050,000,000 or more.

"Going back to 1914, the entire cost of government was less than the amount of the annual interest on our national debt in 1939 and 1940. In that year, total cost of government was but $1,019,000,000.

Houses for Millions.

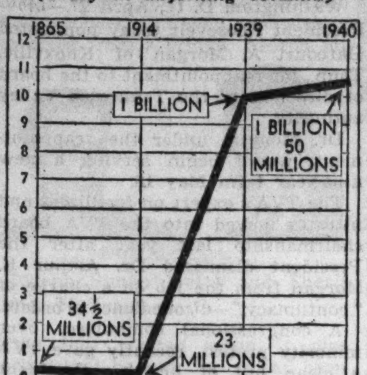
"Think of what could be done with the billion which we must now pay each year for the use of the money which Uncle Sam has borrowed. It would build 350,000 cozy cottages costing $3,000 each and go far toward the solution of the unsolved housing problem. For the fiscal years from 1933 to 1940, inclusive, we will have paid more than $7,000,000,000 in interest on borrowed money, and with that sum we could build 2,350,000 comfortable homes.

"In a quarter of a century population has increased 37 per cent and the interest on the debt has increased by 4,400 per cent. The figures indicate an unhealthy relationship.

"About 20 cents out of every dollar that Uncle Sam collects from the taxpayers in 1940 must go for interest on borrowed money. No private business could carry that load and long endure."

Rising Interest

(Story in adjoining column.)



The rise in the amount of money needed to pay interest on the federal public debt since the close of the civil war. Congressman Dirksen of Illinois told the house yesterday that the amount needed for interest payments next year would have paid the entire cost of the national government in 1914 or would build 350,000 cozy cottages costing $,3000 each.

WATCHMAN KILLS ROBBER CLIMBING IN PLANT WINDOW

A colored burglar was shot and killed by a young watchman last night as he climbed in a window of the Jones Metabolism Equipment company at 315 South Honore street. The slain man was identified as Willie Reeves, 21 years old, 3424 Giles avenue, who had been employed by the Jones firm for two years as a janitor.

Dr. Horry M. Jones, proprietor of the firm, which manufactures supplies for physicians, hired the watchman after four burglaries occurred in one month. The watchman is Charles Rocanelli, 19, of 1939 Van Buren street. Armed with a shotgun and a pistol, he took up his duties early in the evening. When Reeves crawled in Rocanelli fired with the shotgun and the burglar was killed instantly.

Police said they believed Reeves committed other burglaries. He was wearing gloves, apparently to prevent finger print identification.

COUSIN CLAIMS $10,000 LEFT BY SEAMSTRESS

Ten thousand dollars in securities and cash left by Miss Elizabeth McDonough, Evanston seamstress, was claimed yesterday by her cousin, Mrs. Ruth McGuire, 318 Liberty street, Waukegan. Miss McDonough, who was 75 years old, was found dead of heart disease in her room at 1420 Chicago avenue, Evanston, on Tuesday. She had been employed by Evanston families for many years, but none suspected she had any financial means outside her earnings. Police found $5,000 securities and a bank book showing $5,000 deposits in her room.

ALDERMEN READY TO SCAN TRANSIT ORDINANCE OFFER

Prepare as Negotiating Group Is Chosen.

The city council's local transportation committee will be ready to resume work next week on a traction settlement ordinance in coöperation with a negotiating committee representing the transit lines, Ald. James R. Quinn [50th] said yesterday. Quinn is chairman of the council committee.

The way for resumption of the work was cleared yesterday with the tentative selection of a three man negotiating committee at a federal court hearing before Judge James H. Wilkerson. The elevated and surface lines interests are now in accord on a merger deal as the first step in the settlement program.

Ready for Proposals.

"The transportation committee will be on call on twenty-four hours' notice," said Quinn. "As soon as company representatives are ready to bring in a proposal we will be ready to receive it and resume work on a franchise ordinance."

Considerable work was done last year on the new ordinance in meetings between aldermen and company representatives. But the major controversial issues are still to be settled. These include valuation of the new unified company and the amount and nature of compensation to be paid to the city.

The new committee will consist of a representative for each of the two systems and a third member to be selected by the court. The companies recommended the appointment of Guy A. Richardson, president of the Surface Lines, and Col. A. A. Sprague, trustee for the elevated lines. Judge Wilkerson said he would ask Walter A. Shaw, his traction adviser, to act as the third member. Shaw is the author of the latest plan for merging and modernizing the systems.

Formal Order Monday.

A formal order naming the committee is to be presented to the court Monday. Judge Wilkerson said he would insist on another order, which would delegate powers of bondholders' committees to the court, so that the ordinance agreed to by the negotiators would be binding. If it becomes necessary to submit the final proposition to the bondholders for their approval, this must be done before the franchise is submitted to a referendum, he added.

Judge Wilkerson said the reorganization plan as it now stands leaves several questions to the determination of the reorganization committee and that power to decide them must be delegated to the court.

"The plan should be amended," he said, "so there is no room to question the ordinance when it is passed by the people. That should be the last step. The execution of the plan should be for the court and not at the whim of any bondholders committee."

NAB DYNAMITE BANDIT AS BOMB FAILS HIM IN BIRMINGHAM BANK

Birmingham, Ala., April 27.—[Special.]—The lives of dozens of customers and employés of the Birmingham Trust and Savings bank were threatened today by a lone bandit's attempt to hold up the bank with a crude bomb that contained ten sticks of dynamite.

The bandit walked into the office of John S. Coleman, president of the bank, showed him the bomb and demanded $250,000. He carried a bag in which were the ten sticks of dynamite, a dry cell battery, wires, and a percussion cap.

Coleman edged out of his office on the pretext of complying with the demand. Instead, he sounded an alarm. Police sped to the bank and seized the man.

As police closed in on him, the bandit jerked a lever on his apparatus three times in an effort to cause an explosion before his capture, but it failed to explode.

The would-be robber first identified himself as R. A. Gentry of Pittsburgh, Pa., but later told officers he was Albert Durrett of Nashville, Tenn.

JAILED AS TIPSY DRIVER.

Bloomington, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Walter Rainey, 29 years old, today started serving a 10 day sentence in the county jail here after pleading guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated. Judge Homer Hall also imposed a $300 fine and deprived Rainey of his driving privileges for one year.

SUPERHIGHWAYS FOR CITY AREAS URGED IN REPORT

National Network of Free Roads Proposed.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.] — President Roosevelt today sent to congress a comprehensive report on a national highway system, which urged the construction of express highways in metropolitan areas.

The special report, prepared by the bureau of public roads at the request of congress, failed to recommend the construction of six superhighways, spanning the nation east to west and north to south, concerning which congress had requested the study.

The program for highway development, drafted by the bureau in consultation with the war department, tentatively suggested a national network of free highways, comprising five east to west and seven north to south trunk lines, in opposition to the transcontinental highways for which tolls would be charged to users.

Interregional Highways.

In a message accompanying the report Mr. Roosevelt pointed out that the report emphasizes the need of a special system of direct interregional highways, with all necessary connections through and around cities, designed to meet the requirements of the national defense and the needs of a growing peacetime trafic of longer range.

"It shows that there is need for superhighways," said the President, "but makes it clear that this need exists only where there is congestion on the existing roads and mainly in metropolitan areas."

He directed particular attention to the method of "excess" condemnation of land for highways whereby, he said, costs of constructing the system could be greatly reduced.

By "excess" condemnation, the President explained, is meant taking a strip on each side of the highway wide enough to be leased to concessionaires.

Comments on Report.

"The report, prepared at the request of the congress, is the first complete assembly of data on the use being made of our national highway networks," he said. "It points definitely to the corrective measures of greatest urgency and shows that existing improvements may be fully utilized in meeting ultimate highway needs."

The highway report said that a system of transcontinental superhighways cannot be supported by tolls and will not solve any considerable part of the problem of providing adequate highway facilities. The report added that the building of such a system of six superhighways is entirely feasible from a physical standpoint, but the system would not come within 50 per cent of being self-supporting if operated as a toll facility.

The bureau estimated that the cost of the projected six superhighways, totaling 14,336 miles, would be $2,899,800,000, or an average cost of $202,270 a mile. It said that this system would not meet the most urgent highway needs and suggested the master highway plan as an alternative.

Five Classes Listed.

The bureau listed these five classes of improvements:

1. Construct express highways through cities to remove congestion and delays in main arteries.
2. Belt line distribution routes around cities.
3. By-passes around small towns.
4. Modernize and improve existing routes of travel.
5. Build new roads where necessary to provide more direct travel.

The latter two steps would form a national system of interregional highways 27,000 miles in length.

There is great need, the report indicated, for express highways cut directly into and through the center of the big cities. These are needed not only for service of the through trafic delivered by the main rural highways but also for the daily in and out movement of local trafic.

The bureau said that such express highways should be either elevated or depressed, so as to remove them from the level of other trafic.

The report urged the removal of hazards at railroad grade crossings and suggested the creation of a federal agency with power to acquire rights of way for highway and street improvements.

The bureau also reported today that from 1934 to 1939 the state of Illinois had been allotted $73,444,318 in federal funds for highway construction. The bureau also said that federal funds for the following purposes were available on March 31 for programmed projects:

Federal aid highways, $4,698,237; secondary roads, $970,920, and grade crossing eliminations, $2,729,861.

Mrs. Lindfors was given custody of a daughter, Dorothy, 11 years old.

ROOSEVELT ASKS NATION TO PLACE MEN 40 ON JOBS

Hyde Park, N. Y., April 27.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt was at his boyhood home tonight preparing for a week-end visit by Danish and Norwegian royalty.

Awaiting his guests, the President issued a proclamation declaring the week beginning April 30 as Unemployment week and called upon the nation to give jobs to men 40 years of age or older. He asked employers to reëxamine their policies to determine whether applicants who are over 40 are being given opportunity to qualify for jobs.

The President spent the day in comparative quiet awaiting the arrival of Crown Prince Olav and Crown Princess Martha of Norway aboard the presidential yacht Potomac tomorrow afternoon.

The royal couple will remain until Sunday morning.

On Sunday night Crown Prince Frederik and Crown Princess Ingrid of Denmark will be guests at the summer White House.

ROYAL COUPLE FROM NORWAY ARRIVES IN U. S.

Liner Delayed by Crash with Pilot Boat.

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Crown Prince Olav and Crown Princess Martha of Norway arrived in New York today for a tour of the United States. The crown prince explained that their visit had no political significance and was only "a handshake from the Norwegian democracy to the American nation."

Technically, of course, Norway is a constitutional monarchy, but in actuality it is as much a democracy as the United States, and the crown prince emphasized the fact.

The crown prince and crown princess were scheduled to arrive early this morning. They were delayed by fog and a collision of their steamship, the Oslofjord, with the pilot boat Sandy Hook, so reached the Battery three hours late. They were transferred at quarantine to the mayor's boat, the Riverside, and came up the bay amid a flotilla of welcoming craft. From one of these, the excursion steamer Belle Island, came Norwegian anthems.

Given 21 Gun Salute.

At Governor's Island they received a twenty-one gun salute and then passed the fireboat Firefighter, which was sending up vast plumes of water as a welcoming gesture.

While on the Riverside the visitors gave a brief interview.

The prince told of plans to make a tour covering most of the country, mentioning Detroit, Chicago, North Dakota, San Francisco, and Hollywood particularly.

The princess wore a gray ensemble, a heavy crêpe dress, kid slippers, a Gainsborough hat with an ostrich plume, and a coat of ermine dyed black. Her flowers were orchids and her jewelry three strands of matched pearls and earrings of turquoise surrounded by diamonds, She carried a bunch of red roses given to her by the reception committee.

Pilot Boat Sinks.

Twenty-six men escaped without injury in the collision of the royal party's liner and the pilot boat. The pilot boat sank in about an hour, after a vain effort had been made to beach her on the Jersey coast.

The men were taken aboard the Oslofjord and transferred to the pilot boat New York, which arrived at the scene a few minutes after the crash, in response to a radio call from the Sandy Hook. The Oslofjord, only slightly scratched, proceeded to quarantine.

ROBBED OF $420 IN JEWELRY.

Two men robbed Samuel Mann, 4313 West 16th street, of $9 and jewelry valued at $420 early yesterday as he was returning to his home from a lodge meeting.

MORGAN NAMED FOR 2D TERM ON BOARD OF TVA

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Harcourt A. Morgan of Knoxville, Tenn., for reappointment to the board of directors of the Tennessee Valley authority.

Dr. Morgan, under the reappointment, would begin serving a new nine-year term May 18.

The TVA's expert on fertilizers and nitrates moved into the TVA board chairmanship last year after the President dismissed Dr. Arthur E. Morgan from the job on a charge of "contumacy"—disobedience to orders.

A congressional committee, over minority protest, recently gave TVA a clean bill of health. President Roosevelt filled the vacancy created by the removal of Arthur E. Morgan by the appointment of former Senator Pope [D., Idaho].

DEMOCRATS PUT JOHN F. HAAS ON JUDICIAL SLATE

Takes Place First Given to Julius Miner.

John F. Haas, former Municipal court judge and a Republican, was placed on the Democratic judicial ticket yesterday to replace Julius H. Miner. Miner, father of the annual celebrations of Constitution day in Chicago, is also a Republican. He withdrew from the Democratic nomination when the Republican party presented its own ticket.

John F. Haas.

The Democratic judicial convention picked Miner for the Superior court vacancy caused by the death of Harry B. Miller, a Republican. Haas was chosen by the executive committee of the Democratic county committee, which sent his certificate of nomination to the secretary of state in Springfield.

High Man in Bar Polls.

Haas, who served three terms on the municipal bench, got the highest vote for Municipal court candidates in the Chicago Bar association primaries in 1934, 1936, and 1938. In the elections those three years the Democratic tickets won.

Four Republican bench nominees attacked the Democratic ticket last night, arguing that coalition disfranchised the voters. They spoke at 727 North avenue in the 43d ward. James B. Waller, Republican committeeman, presided. The candidates who spoke were Benjamin F. Morrison, Charles C. Kirk, William D. Saltiel, and Harry C. Moran.

Way to Defeat Bosses.

"The intention of the constitution and the law," said Morrison, "is that judges shall be elected by the people and not by overlords. The only way to defeat the intentions of the bosses is to elect the Republican ticket."

"The courts," said Saltiel, "are safest for the people when the people select the judges. This is a fight for principle. It is our task to assure restoration of the courts to the people on June 5."

SUSPECT JAILED IN GOLF COURSE MYSTERY DEATH

Charged with Slaying of Drinking Partner.

Joseph Simko, wanted for questioning in connection with a suspected murder, was returned to Wheaton from Atlantic, Ia., yesterday and locked up in the Du Page county jail. He was held without bail on a charge of murder.

The death for which he was seized was that of his friend, George J. Corliss, 34 years old, a Maywood insurance man. Corliss was found drowned last May 15 in Salt creek, on the Woodridge golf course, near Lisle.

Although no marks of violence were found on Corliss' body, his money and jewelry were gone. Police theorized he was robbed and then pushed into the creek from a bridge. Search for

Simko was started when it was learned that he and Corliss had been on a drinking spree for several days, and that they were together the last time Corliss was seen alive by other friends.

Inquiry brought out that Corliss had been carrying between $200 and $300, and that he had been paying the liquor bills for himself and Simko.

Simko went to Los Angeles, Cal., got into a minor scrape, and was sentenced to jail. When he was released last August Chief Investigator Allan A. Myers of the Du Page county state's attorney's office took him into custody at the jail gates. They started the return to Wheaton on a streamliner. Somewhere between Omaha, Neb., and Boone, Ia., Simko escaped from the speeding train.

Last Tuesday Simko was arrested in Atlantic on a charge of petty larceny. Officials there found he was wanted in Wheaton. Russell W. Keeney, Du Page county state's attorney, was notified, and Myers, Sherif Elmer Hoffman, and a deputy went after the prisoner.

Simko was questioned briefly last night, but denied knowledge of Corliss' death. He asserted that his escape from Myers last August was accidental. He became train sick, he said, and when the train stopped at Omaha a porter suggested he alight. He did so, he said, strolled a few feet, and fainted. When he regained his senses the train was gone, he said.

Simko, who is 34, is to be arraigned next Thursday before Justice of the Peace W. H. Johnson in Wheaton.

VOTE TO INDICT ROBBER, 14, WHO SNEERS AT JAILS

The grand jury was reported yesterday to have voted a true bill charging larceny against Timothy Driscoll, 14 years old, 2416 66th street. When Driscoll was arraigned before Judge Frank Bicek in the Juvenile court on April 21 he boasted that no jail could hold him. Driscoll was arrested April 5 on a charge of robbing a filling station at 67th street and Western avenue of $15. Despite his youth, Judge Bicek held him to the grand jury because of his long record and his hardened attitude.

Patrolman Kills Daughter, Wife, and Himself in Home

Worcester, Mass., April 27.—(AP)—The bodies of Patrolman Titus Boothroyd, 42 years old; his wife, 38, and his daughter, Shirley, 10, were found in their home early today, and Dr. John C. Ward, medical examiner, said he believed Boothroyd shot the woman and the girl and then took his own life about twelve hours later.

JUDGES ACQUIT OHIOAN HELD FOR MURDER BY AUTO

Norwalk, O., April 27.—[Special.]—A court of three judges today exonerated Harold Hastings of the automobile murder of Carl Schlett, whose wife and Hastings had carried on an illicit love affair for eighteen months.

Hastings, 33 years old, had waived a jury trial. The judges reported there was reasonable doubt as to his guilt. The state had sought to convict him of first degree murder.

The attractive widow, Mrs. Coletta Schlett, 28, indicted with Hastings, remained in jail tonight, but her release is expected.

Schlett was killed by an auto on a rural road in a blizzard. The state tried to prove Hastings killed him that he might marry Mrs. Schlett.

BANDIT PAYS RETURN VISIT.

Three weeks ago a well dressed bandit obtained $71 in a holdup of the Southmoor hotel, 6646 Stony Island avenue. Allen McDonald, night clerk, recognized the bandit when he entered the hotel lobby early yesterday. This time the gunman took $74.

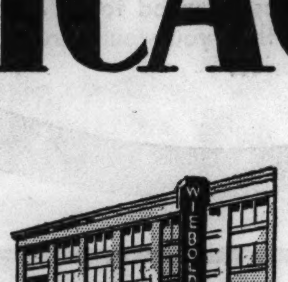
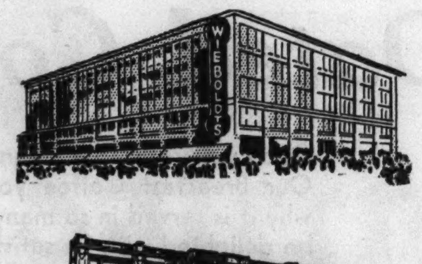
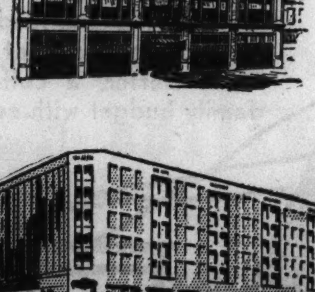
CHICAGO PAYS TRIBUTE TO WIEBOLDT'S



On Milwaukee Ave., near Ashland

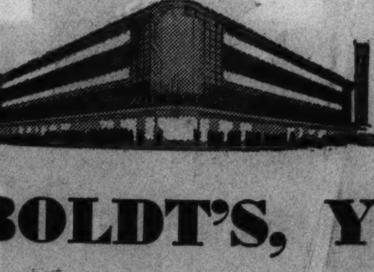


On Ashland Blvd., near Madison

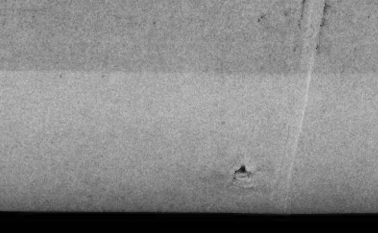


In Evanston on Davis St.

On 63rd St., near Halsted



On Lincoln Ave., near Belmont



In Oak Park Lake St. at Harlem Ave.

Yesterday, literally thousands of people mobbed our stores! Jammed our aisles! Surged around our counters! Hundreds had been waiting for the doors to first open. All were clamoring for the outstanding bargains—the honest values—that Wieboldt's has unfailingly worked to bring each neighborhood community.

This tremendous response to our great Super Sale was Chicago's tribute to our 55 long years of friendly cooperation and service. But it was even more than a tribute. These thousands of loyal customers were proof! Proof of the sincere friendliness between the Wieboldt Stores and the neighborhoods they serve! Proof that the principles of service, fairness and friendliness upon which the first Wieboldt store was founded, are principles strong enough to continue thru 55 years to come! Proof that the Wieboldt Stores are an integral part of the community life!

We anticipate this same response and eager patronage not only during the remainder of our great Super Sale in the Milwaukee Avenue and Ashland Boulevard stores, but in our other four stores as well. And we are immensely proud of the loyalty Chicago has shown. In fact, so happy are we that our friends remain friends and our customers remain customers that we want to tell all Chicagoland how proud we are and how grateful we are for your tribute!

BILL TAKES TAX AFFAIRS OUT OF JARECKI'S COURT

Senate Puts Change in Prejudging Measure.

Litigation over tax rates of the major governments in Cook county would be transferred from the County court to the Circuit court under a bill passed by the Illinois senate and now pending before the house, it was disclosed yesterday.

The change is contained in an amendment to a measure providing for court action on tax levies before the bills are sent out. It is known as the preadjudication bill. The amended bill was passed by the senate last Tuesday.

Courtney Office Left Out.

The amended bill not only deprives County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki and future county judges of jurisdiction in tax rate matters, but also eliminates the state's attorney's office from participating in the cases on behalf of the municipalities. The amendment was introduced by Senator Harold G. Ward, Chicago Democrat.

The original bill was introduced last January by Richard J. Daley, Chicago Democrat. It provides that the major governments in Chicago—city, school board, park district, sanitary district, county, and forest preserve district—shall ask the court to approve their levies before the tax bills are prepared.

Such an act has been advocated for many years for the benefit of small taxpayers who now must pay illegal taxes because they cannot afford to fight them. Under the present system rate objections are heard after the tax bills are due.

Previous Act Invalidated.

A preadjudication act was passed two years ago, but it was held invalid by the Illinois Supreme court because it did not provide for adequate notice to taxpayers that the local governments were asking confirmation of their levies. The new measure seeks to correct this fault.

As originally introduced, Daley's bill kept jurisdiction over tax rate matters in the county court where it has been for more than 20 years. It also provided that attorneys for the local governments should act in the rate cases with the advice and assistance of the state's attorney.

FRED A. REAVILL, ILLINOIS HOUSE MEMBER, IS DEAD

Flat Rock, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Fred A. Reavill, state representative of the 48th district, died today in a sanitarium at Robinson, Ill. Death was attributed to complications resulting from pneumonia and heart strain, which had caused his absence from the assembly since Jan. 26. He was 51 years old.

Reavill, a Republican, had been a legislator since 1934 and was starting his third term. Prior to his election to the house chamber he was prominent in Crawford county affairs. He served nine years on the board of supervisors and two terms as a member of the board of review of that county.

The representative's body will be brought to his home here for funeral services, to be held Saturday afternoon. A committee of eleven house members was appointed to attend the funeral.

L. M. VILES, 56, MAKER OF RAIL SUPPLIES, DIES

Lawrence M. Viles, chairman of the Buda company, Harvey, manufacturers of railway supplies and marine engines, died yesterday in St. Luke's hospital. He was 56 years old and lived at 1120 Lake Shore drive.

Mr. Viles was born in Chicago and educated at Cornell university. He succeeded his father, James Viles, as president of the Buda company in 1918. He became chairman two years ago.

He was a member of the Saddle and Cycle, Casino, and Tavern clubs. Surviving are two sons, James Viles II. and Lawrence Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. R. Stephen Wright of Pasadena, Cal., and a sister, Mrs. Stewart Hathaway.

Dvorak Resigns His Post as Head of Fox River Grove

Rudolph W. Dvorak yesterday resigned as village president of Fox River Grove. Two of his three candidates for village trusteeships were defeated in the village election last week. He had promised voters that if his candidates were beaten he would consider it a vote of lack of confidence in himself. Dvorak is assistant director of the Chicago crime commission.

Hero of Morro Castle Ship Disaster Is Dead

Passaic, N. J., April 27.—[Special.]—Clarence Hackney, 42 years old, second officer aboard the Morro Castle when it burned off the Jersey coast on Sept. 8, 1934, died this morning in Park East hospital, New York City. Hackney was one of the heroes of the disaster, which took a toll of 200 lives. After the disaster he left the sea.

J. A. ROESCH JR., 57, STEEL SALES EXECUTIVE, DIES

J. Albert Roesch Jr., president of the Steel Sales corporation, 129 South Jefferson street, was found dead yesterday in his room at the Duquesne club in Pittsburgh, Pa. His death apparently was caused by a heart attack. Mr. Roesch, who was 57 years old, was in Pittsburgh on a business trip.

Mr. Roesch came to Chicago from New York City in 1893 and attended grammar and high schools here. He organized the Steel Sales corporation in 1915. He was a director of the Mercantile Trust and Savings bank and of the Copperweld Steel company in Pittsburgh. He was a past president of the Illinois Athletic club and a member of several social and civic clubs.

His widow, Elsie, three sons, and a daughter survive. The Roesch home is at 1105 Park avenue, River Forest. Services will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 5501 North Ashland avenue.

PAULINE HEWITT ESTATE VALUE IS PUT AT $2,900,000

Mrs. Pauline C. Hewitt, widow of Charles M. Hewitt, railway supply manufacturer, left an estate estimated at $2,900,000. This was disclosed yesterday when her will was admitted to probate by Judge John F. O'Connell. The estate, consisting mainly of personal property, is left to relatives. Executors of the estate are Frederick I. Tourtelot, Walter G. Smith and the First National bank of Chicago. Mrs. Hewitt died Feb. 13 at the age of 78. She lived at 1411 North State parkway.

MISS TALLEY'S DAUGHTER'S EYE DEFECT IS TOLD

New York, April 27.—(AP)—An eye specialist testified today in Marion Talley's suit for custody of her daughter that the 4 year old child's vision of the left eye is extremely defective and subnormal.

"It seems probable," said Dr. Charles A. Perera, who examined the bespectacled child April 20 at the request of the former Kansas City opera soprano, "that surgery may have to be performed to straighten the eye."

Miss Talley says an immediate operation is necessary and that her estranged husband and former singing coach and pianist, Adolph Eckstrom, is without funds to provide proper care for the girl.

FOURTH WIFE SUES POTTER D'O. PALMER AND HIS PARENTS

Sarasota, Fla., April 27.—(AP)—Potter D'Orsay Palmer's fourth wife, a former waitress, today sued him for separate maintenance and his wealthy parents for $300,000. She charges they alienated his affections.

Less than five months ago, Palmer, just divorced from the socially prominent Polly Warren, married Pluma Louise Lowery Abatiello, 23, pretty brunette employed at a roadside eating house. He gave his age as 34. He said then that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Honore Palmer of Chicago, did not approve of the match.

Mrs. Palmer's attorney said Palmer had repeatedly told his wife he would not live with her any longer.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Alice Doubleday.

Mrs. Alice Jones Doubleday, one of America's best known woman merchandisers, died late yesterday after an illness of six weeks. JUVENILE COURT JUDGE A FRIEND OF OFFENDERS

Bicek Remains Unruffled in Flood of Duties.

[This is the fourth of a series of stories on the workings of the Juvenile court.]

BY GEORGE WRIGHT.

The Juvenile court is a bee hive of activity. Judge Frank Bicek, who presides in the court, as a rule works from early morning to late in the evening trying to keep up with the many duties required of him.

Judge Bicek starts his day with a session in chambers interviewing social workers, probation officers and friends of those called into court for various reasons. If he find a few extra minutes he takes up administrative matters with his many department heads.

When Judge Bicek finally takes the bench he finds himself confronted with a conglomeration of cases ranging from dependency and truancy to delinquency charges. The latter may include anything from petty thievery to rape, robbery, burglary or assault to murder.

Friend of Every Defendant.

Judge Bicek is an even tempered man. He tries to live up to the assertions of probation officers, who are paid by the county to work in the court, and social workers, who are either volunteers in the field of child work or employed by outside agencies, that he is the friend of every defendant no matter what the offense against society.

"The judge would not want us to frighten any of the children," said a probation officer. "He does not want them to fear him. He wants them to think he is their friend trying to help them. He does not want to be a bogey man to those brought before him."

Workers in the court declare that no matter what a boy or girl does, he or she should first be showered with kindness and advice rather than punished. Some of the older workers say privately now and then that a good old fashioned wood shed treatment might do some good, but they express their ideas in whispers. Judge Victor Arnold some years ago openly advocated such treatment and in fact supervised parental correction, much to the horror of the social workers.

Johnny Comes Up 3d Time.

Twelve year old Johnny [the court does not make public the names of its defendants] came before the judge because his foster parents admitted failure in trying to correct him. He was a bright looking youngster. He showed no fear of the judge, who greeted him with a kindly but despairing note in his voice. Johnny was making his third appearance before the judge.

The boy had been taken from his own parents and placed in a foster home in an effort to stop his stealing. But Johnny kept on stealing regardless of his new environment. He was stealing from neighborhood merchants, his foster mother said.

The judge sent Johnny to the Chicago Parental school, 3600 Foster avenue. This is a school maintained under the direction of the board of education and is intended for truant and incorrigible school youngsters. However, the judge made it clear to the boy that this was not necessarily a punishment by announcing simply that William J. Page, the superintendent, was going to provide a good home for Johnny.

Purse Snatchers Sent Away.

Two 15 year old colored boys then came before the judge. They had been snatching purses on the west side. They had been through the court several times and also in the parental school. They were sent to the St. Charles School for Boys after a brief hearing.

Frank, a colored boy of 16, was the next defendant. He had been sent to the parental school six times and still did not reform. He, too, was a purse snatcher. The judge was given a report from the juvenile research institute showing Frank's mental age to be 8 years and 3 months. The boy's own explanation was: "I just get in trouble." He was sent to the state home for the feeble minded at Dixon.

Pigeon Thieves on Trial.

Five boys next shuffled before the judge. They were charged with stealing pigeons. One of them admitted he attempted to shoot the owner of the pigeon coop when he surprised the boys and caught one of them. The shot went through the man's clothing.

Charles, 16 years old, was obviously the leader and the toughest of the group. He hung his head sullenly. He admitted ownership of a black mask and also confessed firing the small caliber rifle at his pursuer. The other boys all told their stories, blaming the episode on Charles.

"It is all lies," spoke up Charles. "It makes me the goat, so what?"

The judge held Charles to the grand jury, a procedure which seldom occurs in the court. The cases of the others were continued until June for mental examinations.

Maj. Harry Hill, now head probation officer of the Juvenile court, who has had experience for years in the field of young delinquents, says the boys are much tougher and commit more serious offenses than they did years ago. He spent many years at St. Charles as an official when escapes and scandals were few and far between.

"This is a fast moving world," said Maj. Hill. "Boys seem to mature more quickly and those in smaller communities are more precocious than before."

Maj. Hill said an intermediate walled institution of a nature between the St. Charles school and Pontiac penitentiary is an urgent need. He declared the average man because of sentimentalism, although he may not admit it, has an aversion to sending a youth to a penal institution because the youth in looks at least is the same as his own son or younger brother. St. Charles, Maj. Hill said, is not the place for many of the incorrigible youths of today. They must be guarded behind a wall to keep them safe.

YOUNGER OFFICERS.

Secretary of War Woodring has recommended a program for rejuvenating the army by hastening the retirement of elderly officers and of officers no longer physically fit to lead their men in battle.

It can safely be predicted that the adoption of this program will greatly strengthen the national defenses. Hundreds of millions of dollars are being spent for new and improved equipment, but the money will yield a relatively small return in security unless the minds of the men who direct the use of the new tools of war are adaptable. Officers whose age leads them to resent the new weapons and distrust them are not likely to get the most out of them through exploring their potentialities.

Our army in past wars has suffered from the fact that it was commanded by elderly men when hostilities began. THE TRIBUNE has frequently commented on this fact and it is gratifying to find that the secretary of war is now preparing to follow our oft repeated suggestion. It is to be hoped that congress will adopt Mr. Woodring's program promptly.

The Union army in the civil war made slow work of it until the elderly generals had been replaced in positions of command by much younger men. Grant was in his forties and his principal lieutenants were, for the most part, even younger when they achieved the victory.

This was no accident. Needless to say, the younger men were no more patriotic or devoted than were their predecessors in command. The difference was in mental alertness and adaptability and in the ability to withstand mental and physical strain. Campaign and battle are a cruel test of body and mind—a test which relatively few men beyond early middle life can meet successfully. There are exceptions, of course, but no one who knows anything about physiology and psychology can question the generality.

Perhaps the greatest weakness of the elderly officer is his relatively slow rate of recuperation. He may be able to rise to one or two crises but not to a rapid succession of them, such as is to be expected in war. The elderly line officer has increasing difficulty in keeping up with his men. The elderly staff officer also must husband his strength and accordingly finds himself physically unable to maintain direct—personal—contact with the front. He has to take his information at second hand or third hand and his decisions and orders inevitably suffer from this form of absenteeism. The price exacted is a high one. Thousands of lives may be sacrificed for little or no advantage.

The experience of the civil war was repeated in the last war. Much time was wasted before the younger men were placed in positions of responsibility. The effectiveness of the American effort suffered accordingly.

War is a young man's business. This fact is recognized universally so far as it concerns the rank and file but has not yet been accepted in its application to command, in spite of all our experience. Mr. Woodring's determination to bring about a lowering of the average age of officers in our army is a welcome indication that he has read the military history of our country and has learned one of its principal lessons.

STEEL INDUSTRY CONTRASTS.

First quarter earnings reports of the steel companies emphasize the point which we have been making for several years in these columns. In the latest accounting period the United States Steel corporation, with assets of 1⅓ billion dollars, earned a profit of $660,000. In the same interval the Inland Steel company with assets of 150 million dollars made a profit exceeding $2,000,000. With a business one-tenth the size of U. S. Steel, Inland made three times as much money.

The fact is that big steel has not been able to keep up with the pace of the rest of the industry in sales as well as profits. Throughout the first quarter the operating rate of U. S. Steel plants was below that of the independents.

That size is no guarantee of success is not a peculiarity of the steel business. In a wide range of enterprise small corporations have distinguished themselves during the depression by making better records than large competitors. And of 106 corporations which ranked at the top in 1930 fourteen had by 1934 either gone into bankruptcy or been reorganized to avoid that step. There are advantages in large scale production which can be dissipated by the wrong kind of large scale management.

It has taken periods of hard times for this to be understood at all and it is still not generally appreciated. So long as there was an active demand for all the steel that could be produced the United States Steel corporation, with its vast plants and integrated production, had it on the rest of the industry. It was a manufacturing advantage. The direction of the business of the corporation could be in New York, Los Angeles, London, or Paris and the company would have continued to be the industry's biggest money maker. But when steel demand fell off to the point where business had to be fought for the smaller companies had the management set-up which enabled them to play rings around the big fellow. The closer the top control is brought to the business of producing and distributing the more likely is the enterprise to be successful. The fact that Inland has an excellent management and that it operates from a Chicago office no doubt had a lot to do with making possible the excellent report just made.

Coincident with the release of its first quarterly report, the U. S. Steel corporation announced that it was opening in Chicago an executive office of the top management corporation. This may mean little or much. If there is to be real control by the competent men in the new Chicago office, the results will show it. But if it is a change in name only more mediocre reports may be expected from our "greatest industrial corporation."

SILVER AND MR. ECCLES.

A prominent New Dealer made news last week when he came out into the open against the government's present silver buying schemes. Others in the administration have denounced the silver business off the record, and have encouraged opposition to it, but none has been willing to be quoted. Marriner Eccles, chairman of the federal reserve board, was the news maker. The occasion was a hearing of the senate subcommittee which has been considering Senator Townsend's bill to end all purchases of silver by the government.

He declared that there is "absolutely no justification for continued silver buying from either a monetary or credit standpoint." Economists, bankers, and unbiased monetary experts in congress have been saying that for years. But this was the head of the reserve board, commonly referred to as the monetary authority, speaking. The situation has not recently changed, and so what the government's principal monetary expert has admitted is not only that there is but that there was no justification for the silver policy of the government. In pursuit of that policy, now admittedly unjustified, the government has purchased 2 billion ounces of silver at prices far above the market.

The world has been drained of its available silver as a result of bidding for the metal by a government which had no use for it. Countries which use silver for money were led to ship their coins to the United States and take gold in exchange. Wherever possible in the arts, anywhere about the world, other metal was substituted for silver so that as much as possible of it could be sold to the United States treasury. Mining operations from which silver is derived were stepped up. Uncle Sam wanted silver and wanted it bad.

The government official whose duties enable him to appraise the effects of monetary policies now says that there was no sound basis for all the silver buying. The government has no use for the metal. All that was done with it was to throw it into a hole, where it is likely to remain for years to come.

Being a politician from a silver producing state, Mr. Eccles wants the government to contine to buy home mined silver, although he is willing to have the price come down a little. He made no bones about the fact that whatever the government paid for silver above the market was a subsidy, no different from the benefit payments to the growers of cotton, wheat, or hogs, except that silver is chiefly produced by large corporations and farmers are, for the most part, little fellows.

Mr. Eccles' statement was a frank confession that the sale of billions of ounces of silver to the government had nothing but politics behind it. Now that Mr. Eccles has silver off his conscience he may be willing to tell the public the truth about the other elements of the Roosevelt monetary policies.

MR. BYRD ON DEFICITS.

Senator Byrd's address before the Illinois Manufacturers' Costs association contributed much to an understanding of why this country remains in depression.

Mr. Byrd has made a distinguished record in congress by keeping his eye on the ball. He has observed that the one policy from which this administration has never deviated after a brief flurry of economy is the policy of spending beyond income. Mr. Roosevelt regards a deficit not as a misfortune, but as a goal to be attained. The pump-priming theory has been applied now for nine years without producing the predicted benefits. By this time, it would seem, reasonable men must question the merits of a policy which has proved so consistently damaging and so persistently futile. The New Dealers have not been shaken. Mr. Roosevelt has fought every effort to effect economies. Mr. Eccles continues to preach the glorious prosperity awaiting those who go broke. This year's deficit is the biggest of all. Experience may be a great teacher, but the New Dealers go to a different school.

Instead of producing an irresistible tide of recovery, the New Deal's spending has achieved an economy characterized by fits and starts. Business improves for a few months, but the improvements have no cumulative force. The sharp rise is followed by an equally sharp collapse. Unemployment persists. The more the government spends, the less confidence the people of the country have in the future and the less they spend for long-term improvements.

Mr. Byrd was one of the first in Washington to realize the folly of spending in excess of income. He has never let the matter drop, and for that his countrymen should be grateful. They should be grateful, also, for the constructive program the senator has worked out. He seeks "the gradual restoration of the country to financial sanity" by simplification of the government organization, accompanied by retrenchment; cancellation of the 7 billion dollar borrowing power possessed by some thirty governmental agencies such as the TVA and HOLC, elimination of superfluous relief agencies and reduction of relief costs generally to a minimum; an honest purge of the relief rolls to eliminate the undeserving, and, above all, reduction in government spending to accord with the ability of the people to support it.

This is a program which will be opposed by cranks because it has worked well in the past and by revolutionaries because it doesn't promote a violent overturn of our institutions, but rather invites their survival. No wonder the New Dealers regard Senator Byrd as public enemy No. 1.

THIRD TIME DOWN.

Uncle—Well, Tommy, I hear you are learning to swim.

Tommy—Yes, so are you, ain't you, uncle?

Uncle—No, my boy. Why ask?

Tommy—O, I heard father say the other day that you had a hard job to keep your head above water!—Omaha Bee.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. Reg. U.S. Pat. Office

CHICAGO'S LARGEST DESERT.

Out on the south side, where Aldine square used to be, there is a vast empty tract that looks like a devastated area after Armageddon. Death Valley Scotty himself would be afraid to cross it on foot. We gazed over the desert and said, misquoting a Roman historian:

"They made a wilderness and called it a housing project."

The De Saible model tenements will stand here, if the grandiose scheme is ever completed. They will provide Utopian housing for 800 families, but the region seems almost large enough for the entire population of the state of Georgia.

That name, De Saible, by the way, appears to be in need of correction, although it has the approval of the map making authorities. The histories that we have read call the first settler at the mouth of the Chicago river, who was a Negro trapper and woodsman, Baptiste Point du Sable. He had a cabin on a sand spit.

The French voyageurs gave him this name, no doubt, because of his place of habitation. "Sable" means "sand." Maybe his first name was Bob, and they turned that into Baptiste of the Sand Spit. The tradition, based on his French name, that he came from Haiti or San Domingo is too far fetched for credence. He was more likely a fugitive from slavery in Virginia or Kentucky, living a lone, free life in the wilderness, and he must have been quite a fellow to manage it.

Anyway, his name was Du Sable, not De Saible. If any old documents use the current Chicago spelling, they're wrong.

A LADY OUT OF LUCK.

All I am ever introduced to of late are ancient and slightly Rabelaisan-flavored old codgers,
Or youths that I always feel inclined to ask if they'd like to be taken to see Buck Rogers,
And occasionally some one calls me up and says they have a date for me and are coming to take me out
And when they arrive, he is Peter Pan in a stylish stout,
Or one really young and subject to trouble in his respiratory region.
Alas, these two types are nothing short of legion,
And what I wistfully wonder and ask myself now and then
Is what ever became of all the nice, thin in-between men?

Strange Creatures of the Loop.

Consider the group of beggars and queer ones who daily parade the loop, and who have been around for years. For instance, the elderly gent with stiff collar and felt hat, who marches along, Bible held high overhead and who in a powerhouse voice shouts for sinners to repent. Or the colored fellow without hands, who slouches along the loop, shoulders rounded and head buried in his breast; he never seems to be going anywhere but he's always in a hurry. Or the giant Negro on Van Buren street, minus both legs, who squats by his candy tray and with a perpetual smile nods and waves to passersby.

These, among many others, have paraded the loop for more than a decade.

Along the Boul Mich, it's different; territories are more or less restricted and the type is more sophisticated. One of the beggars who patroled both the east and west side from the Stevens to the Art institute recently gave a son-in-law, as a wedding gift, the privilege of working exclusively the east side of the boul. Landfield the Junior.

"Sieg Heil!" Meaning "Victory!"

My squib [4-18-'39] about the lisping sign painter was the cause of the Chicago park district putting up nice new signs. This also proves something.

AT THE ROADSIDE.

The moon is caught on a steeple,
the oak has snagged three stars, and though I know not for certain bright Jupiter from Mars
yet I prefer gazing skyward to watching the passing cars.

While traffic streaks by us, whining, impatient, arrogant, strong,
defiling the summer evening as it screams and whirls along
I watch the stars wheel over and listen to their song.

Meditation Over Soap Bubbles.

They float gayly through the air, these little shining worlds. They gleam with an ethereal charm, touched with blended pinks and blues and yellows. As they slip merrily away one catches a glimpse of a small reflected tree or steeple, curved to fit the perfect sphere—then they are gone, some blithely riding the breezes for a moment, others dying almost before they are born. They are a faint breath of beauty, granted only a fragment of time before they pass into oblivion—yet in that second between birth and death they create an iridescent memory that is deathless.

BE DISCREET AROUND OLD SOL.

THE power of the sun governs the universe and all that is contained therein. Extinguish this source of light and heat for thirty days and the world's population would begin to drop rapidly. As stores of greenstuffs became exhausted chemists and engineers would work frantically to produce new supplies, only to find that but a fraction of mankind's needs would be forthcoming; this despite all the deposits of oil and coal and our water power developments. Without the sun—existence—as we know it—could not be carried on.

But as a moderate proportion can be of great value to health so an overdose may be injurious. Every writer on the tropics has described the "death rays"—the pitiless capacity of this ball of flame to kill. Many an overly ambitious explorer has sacrificed his life because he would not heed the warning of his native guides.

Even as youngsters we learned the difference between the chemical and heat rays of the spectrum [the rainbow]. Those which come from the violet and the invisible range beyond burn the skin; those in the reds or below heat the body. Thus the tanning radiations are called "ultraviolet"—beyond the violet. When we expose any portion of the cuticle to their influence—not through a filter such as windowpane—we are dealing with a strong medicine. Pulmonary tuberculosis, for example, which has quieted down and has become what is termed a "closed case," may be incited to renewed activity by such a procedure. Every autumn after the bathing season physicians encounter a large number of cases of this malady in those who have inadvertently stirred up the infection in this manner.

Then, too, there is an erroneous idea that parboiling is a cure-all. On the contrary, it may sap one's strength and drain reserve. A tan, however, gradually acquired, will permit more sunlight, the pigment serving as a filter and preventing severe congestion of internal organs. Every year there are many instances of extreme burns with damage to kidneys, permanent skin defects, disfigurements, etc.

But we can use Old Sol with caution and get the most out of him. The majority of us in the north temperate zone will do well to acquire a modest browning during the coming months. Ten seconds may be an adequate initial dose. If redness persists for more than four hours, too much has been taken.

Covering the epidermis with a light layer of lanolin or olive oil before exposure may be helpful. If there is no deleterious reaction, 10 to 15 seconds may be taken the ensuing day. If care is exercised the total may be increased approximately ten seconds per day until 1½ to 2 minutes can be withstood without the slightest scorching. By this time there should be substantial evidence of pigment deposit, and as soon as a medium tone has been obtained the outdoor period may be lengthened more rapidly, the coppery hue protecting the structures within from undue stimulation.

In sunbathing we have an important remedy against chronic arthritis due to its stimulating influence upon the circulation. The entire body—not the affected joints alone—should be bared and many a sufferer, scarcely able to bend an elbow or a knee, will be gratified within a few weeks at the improvement. There seems to follow also a whetting of the appetite. Whether this is due to the manufacture of larger quantities of vitamin D in the skin remains to be proved. At any rate, many an arthritic who has made a real business out of the process has assisted recovery appreciably.

We are all familiar with the remarkable work of Rollier in the treatment of bone tuberculosis. But this is different from the pulmonary form, which attacks the lungs. In Rollier's clinic the patients are subjected to direct rays all the year round and this factor—with good food and Alpine air—has brought healing to thousands.

During the coming weeks Helios is moving northward and its effects are daily growing more potent. They will reach their maximum late in June. It behooves each of us not only to take sunlight into the digestive tract via green vegetables, but to soak up proper amounts through the skin covering. It is a resistance builder of no mean significance.

MONEY TINKERING.

Beloit, Wis., April 19.—In pointing to possible constructive legislation under the New Deal its friends never fail to point with pride to the banking legislation which followed the repudiation of government securities payable in gold and substituting paper currency, which at best is just a promise to pay. Departing from the gold standard did stop bank runs and encouraged the economic planners to tinker with money rates.

The real test of banking from 1913-'33 compared to the new system will come when the commercial demand for money again appears in competition with government borrowing, if ever, and how the New Dealers handle the billions of government bonds they have practically forced the banks to buy to earn a living. By artificial methods the rate for long term government financing has been reduced to the absurd rate of less than 2½ per cent. Suppose commercial paper should again command 4 per cent. If you should put the United States treasury 2⅞ per cent bonds, maturing in 1960 and selling today at better than 107, on a 4 per cent basis, which is not high, the price would be about 85. Who is going to "take the rap," the treasury or the banks?

I think we shall have to wait until the New Deal type of banking is fully tested in more normal conditions before we throw bouquets at those who planned it that way. A. W. DAZEY.

FOR THE OPTOMETRISTS.

Chicago, April 24.—F. Juchoff's epistle on "Doctor" deserves a few comments. His opinion that there is a lack of educational and professional standards in Illinois, because optometrists and chiropodists only study four years, and that they therefore are not entitled to be called "Doctor" because they are not M. D.'s is naïve, to say the least. Many of our finest physicians in practice today have not had four years' medical training. State laws prescribe these standards for all professions including the M. D.'s.

The title "Doctor" means a "learned man" in whatever subject indicated by the letters "M. D.", "O. D.", "D. D. S.", etc. So we see that the M. D. is only a learned man in medical science, the optometrist in optometric science, etc. Where an optometrist uses the title "Dr." he also uses the word "Optometrist." That is the law.

O. R. ENGELMANN, O. D.,
Chairman, Dept. of Public Information, Illinois State Society of Optometrists.

USE TRIBUNE MAPS IN SCHOOL.

Chicago, April 19.—I would like to express my sincere and keen appreciation for the maps that appear frequently in your paper. They are of much interest and aid in understanding the European situation and are used by the Miller children in their study of history in the Francis W. Parker school.

BLANCHE G. MILLER.

THE DICTATORS' ECONOMICS.

Chicago, April 24.—In reply to the letter of John Terra headed "Mussolini and Suez" in today's TRIBUNE, it would appear that the more Mussolini and Hitler steal of other people's property the more this policy of downright dishonesty seems to affect certain elements in both Italy and Germany.

The French and British built the Suez canal and it is their property, and it is, perhaps, a good thing for humanity's sake that they are in control of it. This control has never been abused, and the ships of all nations have been accorded equal treatment at all times just as we ourselves have allowed the shipping of all nations equal treatment in the Panama canal, which is our property. Mussolini has no more right to a share in the profits of the Suez canal than he has to the same right in connection with the Panama canal, and it would certainly be dangerous for the rest of the world to allow either Hitler or Mussolini to have any share in the control of either of these two most important waterways.

Does Mr. Terra realize what Hitler's and Mussolini's control means? It simply means that both Italy and Germany have been boxed up in two separate units and are being kept entirely apart from the rest of the human race, and this type of control, which means that both of these peoples can no longer buy or sell or even move around the country without the consent of the dictators, gets worse instead of better.

A lot of our would-be Nazis and Fascists should try to purchase a money order in Rome or Berlin, payable in New York for American goods, and then try to do the same thing in London and Paris, and what a difference they will find! JOHN M. THOMSON.

HANDICAPPED WORKERS.

Chicago, April 19.—The current "Be Kind to Animals Week" has given me the inspiration for this letter.

There should be a week dedicated to the people no one wants. By that I mean handicapped persons like myself with too little education.

I'm 32 years old and lame, due to infantile paralysis. I am able to get around easily, but who will give a fellow like me a job? Nobody!

None of the large firms hire a handicapped person because of their insurance. It's the same on all civil service positions.

We are turned away in preference to able bodied persons and it's difficult enough for them to find work, so where do others like myself fit? We just don't fit, that's all.

If this letter reaches print a lot of employers will say "Tsk! Tsk! Too bad!" and then turn down the next handicapped person who seeks work of them. But I do hope they won't forget to be kind to the poor little animals.

MISFIT.

PART DRIVEL, ANYWAY.

Chicago, April 25.—THE TRIBUNE attacks our social agencies, yet it has put forth no program of its own to remedy conditions. Not one constructive item has been offered to help solve the problem of the delinquent child or youth. There has been no recognition shown of those social factors which contribute to the making of criminals: The abject poverty, the broken homes, and the immoral conditions under which many children are raised in Chicago, and, importantly, the very structure of the city itself, with its disregard of human personality, its cold, hard boiled, and mechanistic way of living, and the pressure of attitudes of persons and groups, such as THE TRIBUNE people, and many more like them. All of these forces and counterforces [there are many more] must be taken into account before we can even begin to study a problem like crime.

We wonder how THE TRIBUNE would evaluate the work done at Hull house, the Chicago commons, and what is its attitude toward the philosophy of Father Flanagan of Boys Town: "There is no such thing as a bad boy." Is it all sentimental drivel or is it sound?

HERBERT G. KELLY.

STREET BALL GAMES.

Chicago, April 17.—I have seen a group of high school boys smash a ball almost the full length of the block with cannon like speed, endangering small children playing on the sidewalk and others on bicycles. This is in a neighborhood where there is a large, well equipped park and WPA cleared lots within two blocks.

Two pedestrians were struck by balls batted in a street game last season and died of the effects.

The section of the city ordinance which forbids the playing of ball in the streets will not be enforced until some grief crazed mother driven beyond reason by the injury, or worse, to a little one takes law in her own hands.

MOTHER OF FOUR.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

The volume of Legal Friend mail necessitates printed statements on common questions. No copies or records of the letters or answers are kept. Hence follow-up letters should be complete in themselves. If questions are based on some previously printed problem a clipping of the article should accompany. Most of the replies are mailed. Letters bearing no name and address are disregarded. A self-addressed envelope will expedite handling.

OVERDUE NOTE.

Chicago, April 21.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I am the payee holder of an overdue judgment note, duly executed and presented to me by the maker. The maker is an employé of our local municipal government and therefore his salary is not subject to garnishment. The only property owned by him is an automobile which he has mortgaged to the sellers, as he did not pay them the full purchase price.

1. If I should succeed in getting a judgment against the maker, do I have any rights against his salary?

2. Can I get a lien against his car?

3. What is the proper course of action for me to take in securing the judgment? A. J.

1. No, in the sense that salaries of municipal employés are not subject to garnishment.

2. You could levy an execution on his interest in the car subject to the mortgage. He has an exemption of $400 worth if he is head of a family.

3. Ordinarily the proper course would be to employ an attorney and leave the court procedure to him.

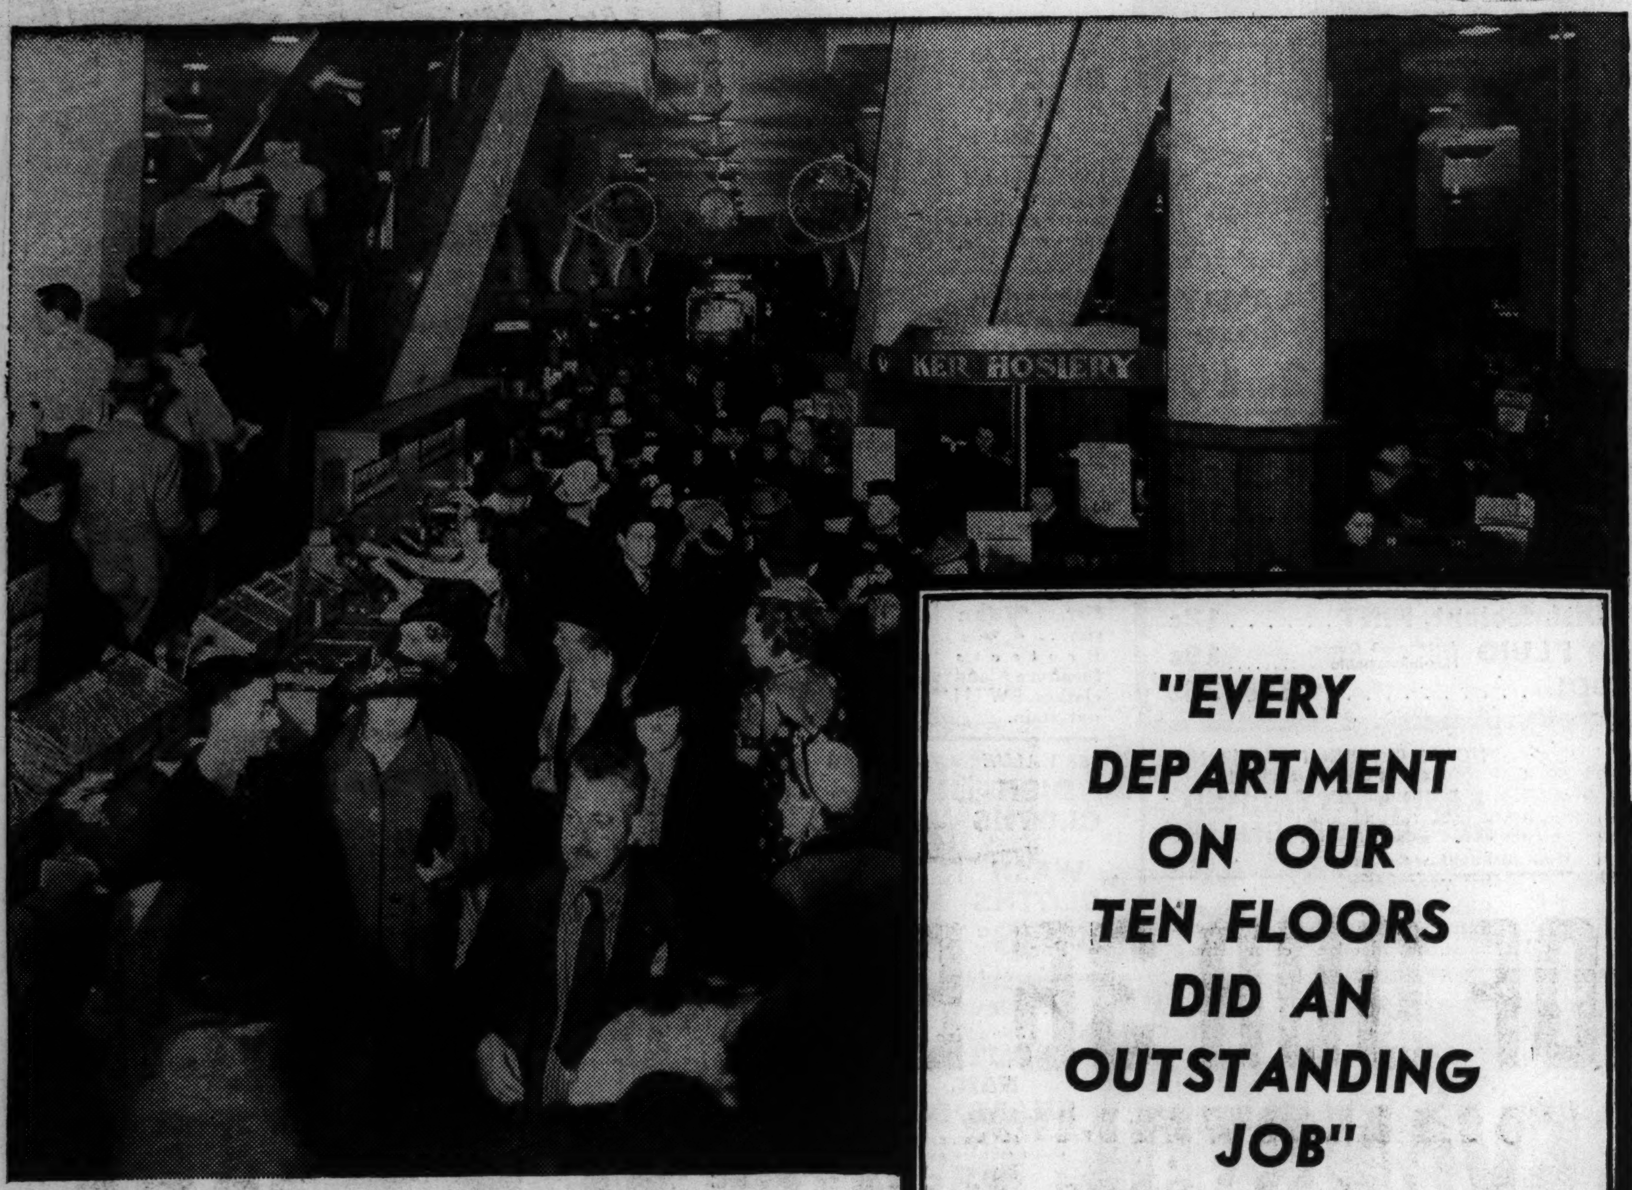
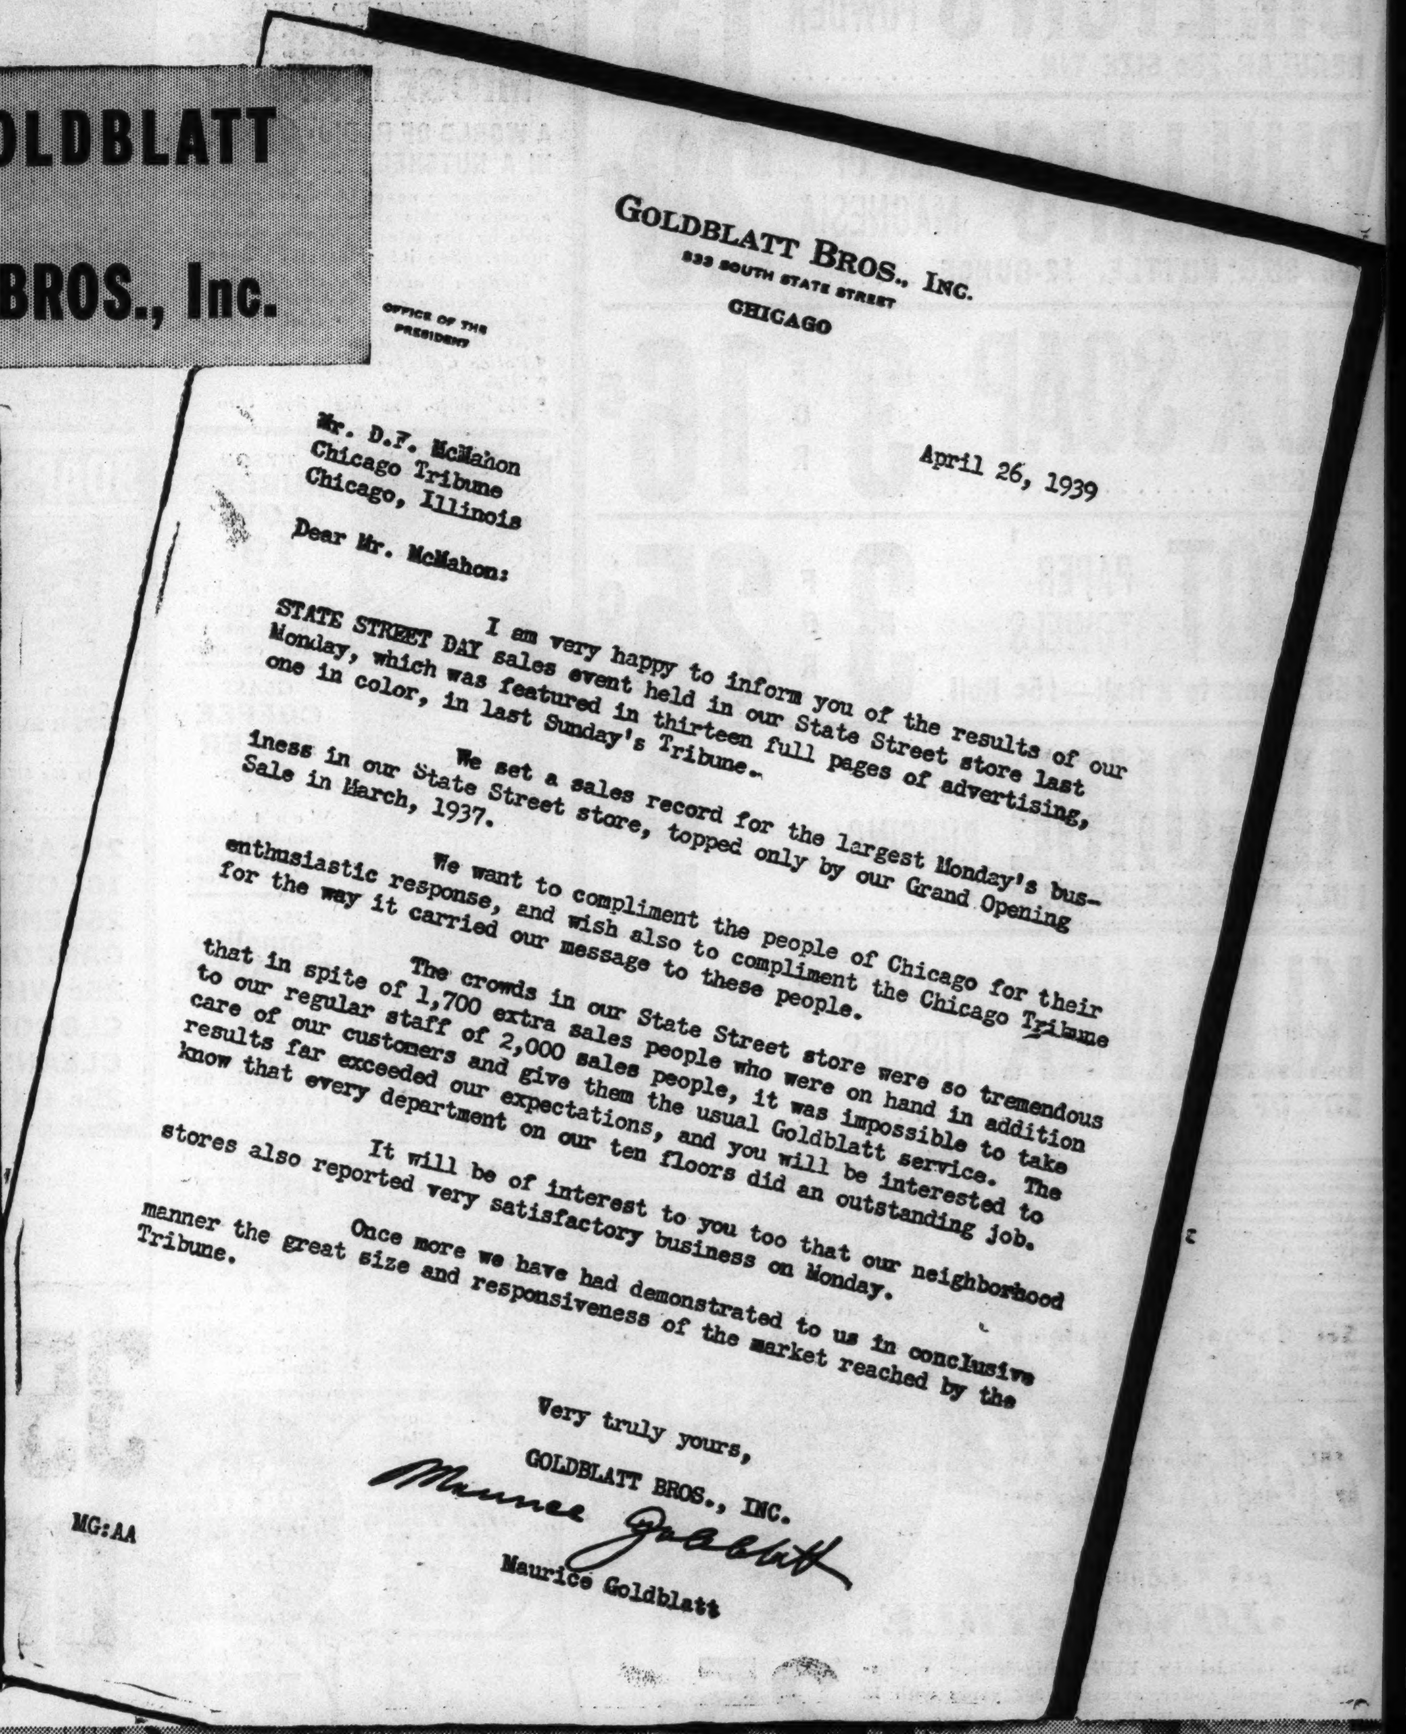
13 PAGES IN TRIBUNE PRODUCE "LARGEST MONDAY'S BUSINESS IN OUR STATE STREET STORE"

—MAURICE GOLDBLATT
President
GOLDBLATT BROS., Inc.



ACTION ON THE MAIN FLOOR! Taken before noon on Monday, April 24, this main floor picture gives an idea of the steady streams of buyers responsible for "the largest Monday's business in our State Street Store."

"EVERY DEPARTMENT ON OUR TEN FLOORS DID AN OUTSTANDING JOB"



GOLDBLATT BROS., INC.
333 SOUTH STATE STREET
CHICAGO

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Mr. D.F. McMahon
Chicago Tribune
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Mr. McMahon:

I am very happy to inform you of the results of our STATE STREET DAY sales event held in our State Street store last Monday, which was featured in thirteen full pages of advertising, one in color, in last Sunday's Tribune.

We set a sales record for the largest Monday's business in our State Street store, topped only by our Grand Opening Sale in March, 1937.

We want to compliment the people of Chicago for their enthusiastic response, and wish also to compliment the Chicago Tribune for the way it carried our message to these people.

The crowds in our State Street store were so tremendous that in spite of 1,700 extra sales people who were on hand in addition to our regular staff of 2,000 sales people, it was impossible to take care of our customers and give them the usual Goldblatt service. The results far exceeded our expectations, and you will be interested to know that every department on our ten floors did an outstanding job.

It will be of interest to you too that our neighborhood stores also reported very satisfactory business on Monday.

Once more we have had demonstrated to us in conclusive manner the great size and responsiveness of the market reached by the Tribune.

Very truly yours,

GOLDBLATT BROS., INC.

Maurice Goldblatt

MG:AA

LAST Monday all ten floors of Goldblatt's State Street Store offered a spectacular demonstration of the responsiveness of Chicago's largest constant audience.

To launch its State Street Day event, Goldblatt Bros., Inc., last Sunday used thirteen full pages of advertising, one in color, to picture and describe hundreds of timely values to Tribune readers.

On Monday, 1,700 extra sales people, in addition to the regular staff of 2,000, were on duty ready for the crowds.

But, writes Maurice Goldblatt, president, "The results far exceeded our expectations. . . . It was impossible to take care of our customers and give them the usual Goldblatt service.

"Every department on our ten floors did an outstanding job," he continues. "We set a sales record for the largest Monday's business in our State Street store, topped only by our Grand Opening Sale in March, 1937."

Here is fresh evidence that you can get more business right now if you go after it through the medium to which Chicago is accustomed to respond.

Every day of the week, more than 725,000 families living right in Chicago and suburbs look to the Tribune for news, entertainment and—buying ideas. Total average net paid circulation is now in excess of 1,100,000 on Sunday and over 900,000 on week days.

Because its editorial qualities appeal to people in all walks of life, the Tribune reaches a majority of all the families in metropolitan Chicago—practically as many as are reached by any two other Chicago newspapers combined.

Regardless of the kind of product or merchandise you sell . . . or to whom you sell . . . you can sell more right now by placing more advertising in the Tribune, the accepted buying guide of families in every income group.

"EVERY DEPARTMENT on our ten floors did an outstanding job," said Maurice Goldblatt, president. Here are typical upstairs crowds. Upper picture shows the third floor infants' wear department which was packed all day long with buyers responding to an entire page of values offered in the Sunday Tribune. Lower picture shows a typical scene in the curtains and draperies department on the fifth floor which likewise enjoyed heavy patronage.

Vaughan's FAMOUS RAINBOW GARDEN OF Gladioli

50 BULBS $1

Five flowering-size bulbs separately bagged and labeled, of each of these 10 varieties. Prepaid 300 miles.

Picardy, champion giant pink.
W. H. Phipps, finest true pink.
Cadillac, rich golden giant.
Dr. Bennett, finest of scarlets.
Marmora, largest of the smokies.
Minuet, giant orchid.
Kalamazoo, large violet-purple.
Mrs. F. L. Karcher, vivid scarlet.
Yellow Mixture, fine named varieties.
Seafoam, lovely white.

Rarely are flowers of the highest merit the most easily grown. But such is the case with these gladioli. Every bulb comes with a flower in it, which with simplest culture will grow for you.

Each variety on this list is a champion. If you have known only ordinary glads, the size and beauty of these varieties will amaze you. Four feet tall, some of them, with 6-inch florets! With these in your garden you can win the plaudits of your neighbors and ribbons at the flower show.

Climbing Roses, 40c. Two year No. 1 plants (75c value) of Roserie, frilled flowers of deep glowing pink borne in profusion; Marie Gouchault, French variety, clear light red passing to brilliant salmon pink; flowers in clusters.

Privet Hedging, 10 for $1. Hardy Amoor river privet plants, 18-24 inches. The hardiest hedge for Chicago winters.

Chinese Elm, 6-8 ft., $1. Chinese elms grow as rapidly as poplars but are far better subjects for parkways and home grounds. 8x10 ft., $1.25.

Flowering Shrubs, 3 of a Kind, $1. Golden Bell, 4-5 ft.; Bridal Wreath, 4-5 ft.; Persian Lilacs, 3-4 ft.; Snowberry, 3-4 ft.; Coralberry, 3-4 ft.

Evergreens, $1. White Spruce, Norway Spruce, Mugho Pines, American Arborvitae, all fine for Chicago conditions, each $1 and up.

ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE

U. OF I. SLAYING CASE WILL GO TO JURY TODAY

Resort Proprietress Tells Her Story of Shooting.

Urbana, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—The murder case against Mrs. Margaret Strothers, colored proprietress of a Champaign resort, is expected to be given to the jury at noon tomorrow.

She faces electrocution, life imprisonment, or a prison term of not less than 14 years if she is convicted on a charge of murder for the fatal shooting of William Spurrier, University of Illinois sophomore.

Testimony in the case was completed this afternoon after Mrs. Strothers had told her story of the shooting. The defense, which had begun its case only this morning, rested at 2:35 p. m. After brief rebuttal testimony court was adjourned until tomorrow, when final arguments will be made.

Tells of Being Awakened.

Mrs. Strothers gave her age as 36 years, although police records list her as 52. She testified that the Pullman hotel, which authorities have termed a house of vice, had been her home for 13 years.

On the night of Feb. 15, when Spurrier and five freshmen at the university paid their ill fated visit to her resort, Mrs. Strothers said she was awakened at 12:30, after she had retired. She said the youths rang the bell and knocked on the door.

After asking whether they could come in and being told they could not, they cursed her and one of them threw a bottle through a window, the woman related. She said the glass cut her face.

Denies Taking Aim.

"I had taken a pistol to the window because there had been so much noise," she testified. "When I was cut with the glass, I raised the gun and fired. I didn't aim at any one. I just fired to frighten them away. I don't know how many shots I fired."

On cross-examination, Assistant State's Attorney C. H. Swick dwelt for some time on the nature of the establishment run by Mrs. Strothers. She said there had been no regular roomers in the hotel for five or six years.

In response to Swick's questions, she admitted she didn't want any customers for her rooms that night, but said any one could get a room at a reasonable hour. She said she did not go to the door when the youths rang the bell "for reasons of my own—because I wasn't dressed and because I didn't think it was necessary."

SEIZE MISSING WITNESS.

A long sought witness, whose testimony is expected to be important in the prosecution of an alleged vice ring in Champaign, was found in Chicago yesterday and questioned by Walker Butler, special assistant attorney general who obtained indictments against the leaders of the ring.

The witness is Janet Logan, alias Niel, 20 years old. She was arrested recently as an inmate of a disorderly house on Halsted street. Only yesterday she disclosed she formerly lived in a resort conducted in Champaign by William Humbracht. Humbracht committed suicide April 11. He was one of those indicted and also was charged by the government with white slave activities.

Another of the Logan girl's employers was Rose Gaspar, also a Champaign resort keeper. Miss Logan said that one of the places was patronized almost exclusively by University of Illinois students. Prosecutor Butler said she would be kept in custody at the detective bureau until it is decided whether to return her to Champaign or turn her over to the government as a witness in the white slave case.

FINED FOR INDECENT CONDUCT.

Kenneth Buker, 32 years old, was fined $200 and costs by Judge Lambert K. Hayes yesterday on a charge of indecent conduct.

FEDERAL POLICE MERGER HALTED BY MORGENTHAU

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—Fears of development of an American secret police organization, such as the notorious GPU of soviet Russia and GSP in Nazi Germany, have caused the administration to abandon plans to consolidate the treasury's five investigating agencies.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr., who conceived the plan, announced its abandonment. He had planned to weld the secret service, internal revenue, narcotics, alcohol, and customs investigators into a single law enforcement agency. This would have involved approximately 3,000 persons.

Mr. Morgenthau had been stirred by recent disclosures of operations of the Soviet OGPU as revealed in a series of magazine articles by a former general in the Red army. He visualized the day when such a centralized police force might develop in the United States.

E. J. FLEMING SUED BY WIFE FOR SUPPORT

Edward J. Fleming, president of the Fleming Coal company and federal receiver for the Congress hotel, was sued for separate maintenance in Superior court yesterday by Mrs. Edith M. Fleming of the Shoreland hotel. They were married Nov. 5, 1914, and separated last Dec. 15, according to the bill. In 1921 Mrs. Fleming filed a suit for divorce but the suit was dropped later after a reconciliation. Fleming was secretary to Maclay Hoyne during Hoyne's term as state's attorney.

Train Hits Truck; Driver, Engineer, and Fireman Die

Bucoda, Wash., April 27.—(AP)—A Union Pacific operated passenger train plowed into a logging truck at a crossing here tonight, killing the engineer, fireman, and the truck driver. The express car nosed over an embankment, the baggage car overturned, and several coaches came to rest at a 45 degree angle. Seven other cars remained on the track.

St. Charles Parolee Wins Continuance in Ax Attack

Hearing on a charge of assault with attempt to commit murder which was filed against Vivian Denton, 17 years old, a parolee from St. Charles School for Boys, was continued yesterday in Kane county court until May 2. He was charged with attacking Mrs. Chrir Christiansen, 77, the wife of his parole sponsor, with a hatchet.

DINGMAN TELLS JURY HE DIDN'T SLAY HIS WIFE

Death Cause Is Mystery, He Testifies.

BY SEYMOUR KORMAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Morrison, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Dr. Lyle Dingman, testifying in his own behalf at his trial for the murder of his wife Laura, 28 years old, today denied any part in her death or knowledge of how it occurred.

Dr. Dingman, 32 years old, a veterinary of Prophetstown, took the stand before a jury and Judge Francis J. Coyle. The largest crowd of the trial filled the circular courtroom and overflowed to the corridors.

Dr. Dingman, a tall well built man, spoke in a husky voice in response to questions by his attorney, Jacob Cantlin. The first he knew of his wife's death, he said, was when he found her body in the yard of their Prophetstown home on the morning of March 19, he testified.

Wife Vanishes in Night.

On the evening before they made a tour of taverns. After their return home he fell asleep and was awakened shortly by what he thought was her voice calling to him from outside. He went out and looked for her, but couldn't find her, he said. He assumed she had gone to a neighbor's home, which would not have been unusual, according to his story. He then went back to bed.

The state rested its case earlier in the afternoon and Dr. Dingman took the stand after the court overruled a defense motion for a directed verdict of acquittal.

State Wins Point.

The prosecution won a victory today when Judge Coyle admitted in evidence a statement by Dingman tending to incriminate him in his wfe's death. The defense had fought to exclude it.

Dingman first told authorities he knew nothing of how his wife met death.

His second version, given two days later, was told in the presence of the jury today by Charles Westendorf, deputy sherif.

Westendorf said that Dr. Dingman declared there was a scuffle when he tried to prevent his wife from answering a knock at a door; that she fell backward over a stool and out of the window fourteen feet to the ground.

The state contends Dingman shoved his wife from the window or caused her to fall in backing away from him.

FORMER LEGISLATOR DENIES BRIBE OFFER TO PARKER WITNESS

Charles McGavin, a former congressman from the 8th Illinois district, and Arnold Becker, a missing witness in the Frank Parker counterfeiting trial, pleaded not guilty to bribery charges yesterday before United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker. McGavin is accused of conspiring to offer a bribe to Becker to keep away from the Parker trial. Becker is charged with accepting it.

Becker was arrested by federal agents in Denver April 15, the day after the trial ended. The government intended him to be its chief witness against Parker and August Englehardt. When Becker disappeared the government was forced to drop four counts of the indictment against Parker, known as the airplane bootlegger in prohibition days. Convictions were obtained, however, without Becker's testimony.

Federal agents arrested McGavin, who was in congress from 1905 to 1909, in his room at 635 North Clark street ten days ago. Commissioner Walker ordered both men held for a hearing on May 11.

In Criminal court yesterday the state closed its case against Parker, George [Bugs] Moran, and three others, charged with conspiracy to counterfeit American Express company checks.

MURPHY BALKING AT ANNENBERG TAX COMPROMISE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—While Moses L. Annenberg, millionaire publisher, has offered to settle any income tax deficiency, Attorney General Frank Murphy said today, it is unlikely the department of justice will find a basis on which to compromise.

Proceedings to obtain an indictment against Annenberg on charges of income tax evasion, said to cover the largest amount ever involved in a personal income tax case, are expected soon at Chicago.

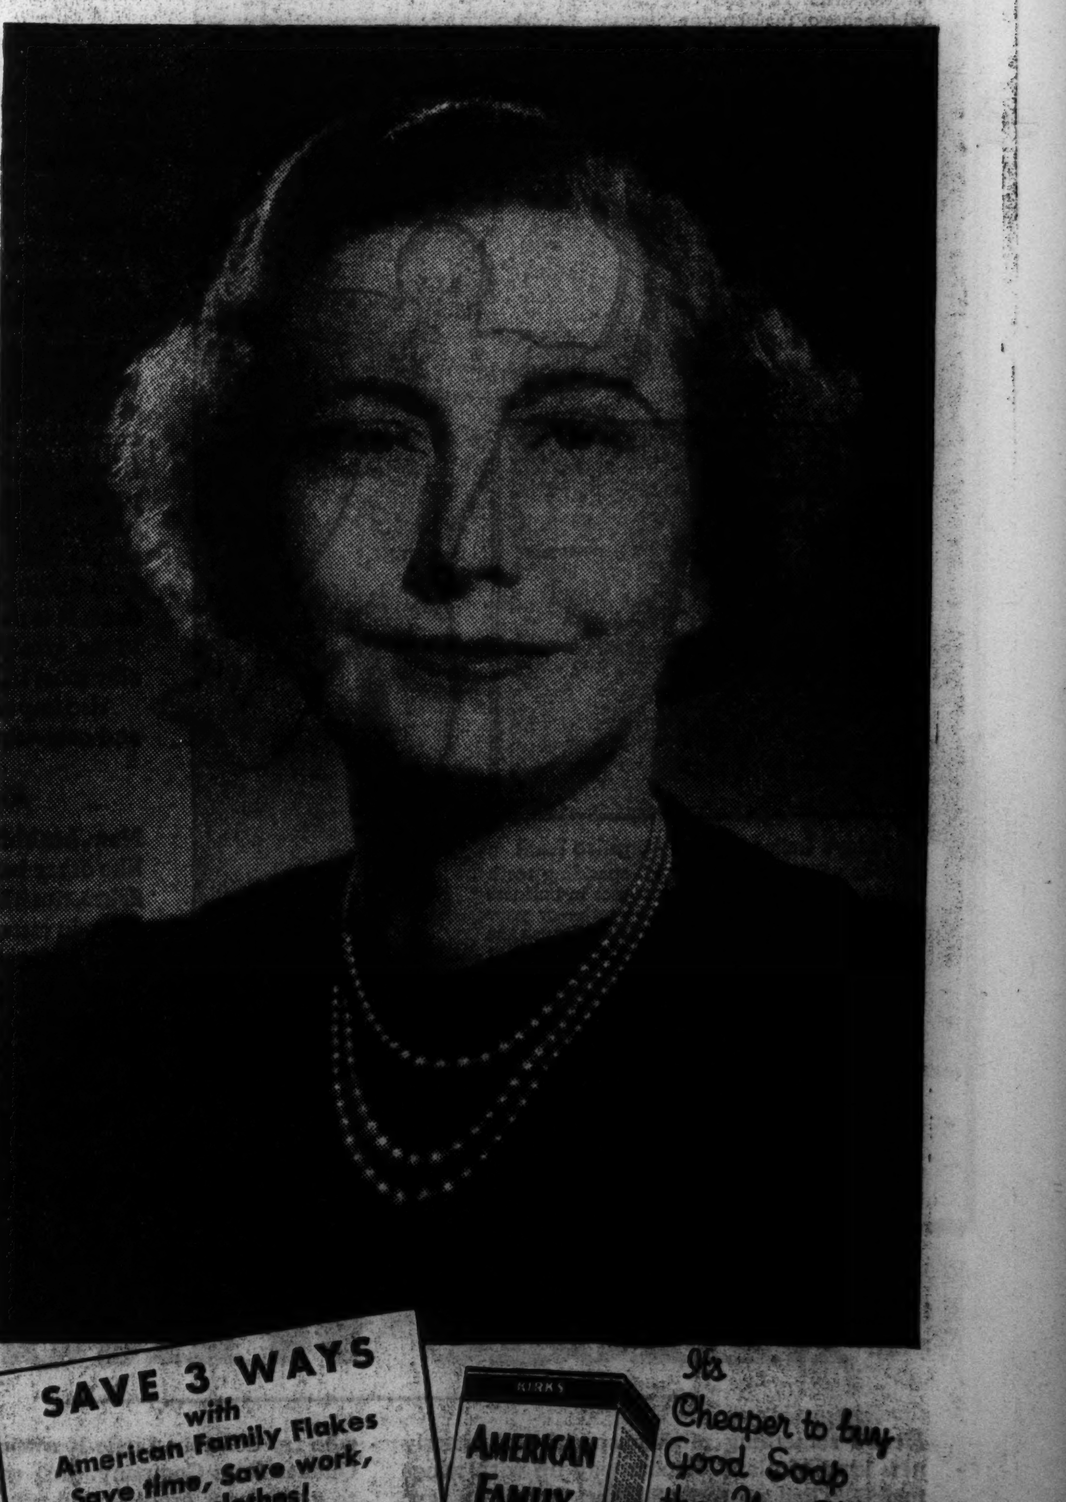
35 OF OUR 36 BOARD MEMBERS OF EVANSTON'S INFANT WELFARE

Insist on American Family Flakes for the easy way it gets clothes so dazzling white!



Mrs. John Marcy Scott

PRESIDENT OF EVANSTON'S INFANT WELFARE, AN ORGANIZATION WHICH AIDS EXPECTANT MOTHERS AND IMPROVES THE WELFARE OF BABIES AND CHILDREN.

"At a recent board meeting the problem of washing babies' clothes came up and we had quite a discussion on good laundry soaps. We were surprised to discover that 35 out of our 36 Board Members insist on American Family Flakes in their own homes. We all agreed that clothes washed with American Family come out clean and sparkling white without hard rubbing. And, of course, that's very important to a mother caring for a young baby."

Why You Can't Afford To Buy Cheap Chips

DON'T wait for bitter experience to show you that the real cost of soap is not the price on the package, but its effect on your clothes! Thousands of women have switched to American Family Flakes for the thrillingly easy way it gets clothes dazzling white! . . . With much greater safety than is possible with many harsh granulated soaps or with inferior cheap chips that require ruinous rubbing!

American Family Flakes are not loaded with harmful chemicals or harsh alkalis, that fade colors, weaken fabrics long before their time. Instead their thrilling washing results are solely due to:

1. Thicker, Richer Suds . . . Rigid tests in our laboratories prove that American Family Flakes contain more suds-making material than the next 3 leading package soaps sold in Chicago—including granulated soaps.

2. Speedy Suds . . . Paper-thin, these flakes dissolve amazingly fast in water. Build up quickly into tubfuls of thick, billowing suds.

3. Active, Long-Lasting Suds . . . Especially made for Chicago's hard water, American Family Flakes make creamy, active suds that really stand up! Not the thin, lazy suds that many cheap chips make.

Say good-bye to back-breaking ruinous rubbing, boiling and bleaching. Even grimiest spots disappear without hard rubbing—and the rest of the dirt seems to soak loose almost like magic!

Try these flakes. See if you aren't amazed at how quickly you get your wash out on the line! How your white clothes come out dazzling white! And see colors retain their gay brilliance, wash after wash! Really safe for even the finest washables! Also unexcelled for dishwashing. And so safe for hands!

Get a package of American Family Flakes today . . . And in the long run, see for yourself—it's cheaper to buy good soap than new clothes. A Procter & Gamble product.

SAVE 3 WAYS with American Family Flakes Save time, Save work, save clothes!

New Food for Breakfast

GIVES YOU THE IMPORTANT MINERAL THAT Works with Sunshine

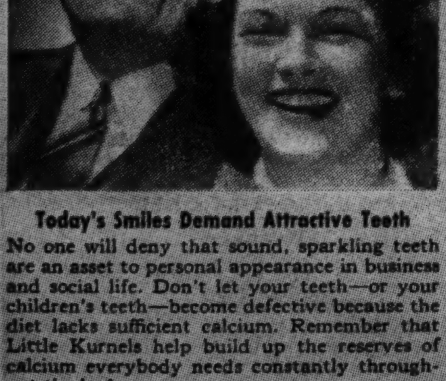
Get Greater Benefits from Sunshine

Calcium is a "builder-upper" mineral that works with sunshine. And this important mineral is probably the one most likely to be deficient in modern diets. In order to get the full benefits of the sunshine vitamin (Vitamin D) we must have ample calcium in our diets. Every man, woman and child needs calcium. Your family can't afford to risk poor teeth, weak bone structure, faulty muscular development. Now this new modern-day cereal, Little Kurnels, affords such a pleasant natural way to provide additional calcium in the diet for everyone in the family.

Today's Children Want Tall, Athletic Bodies

Tall, straight bones and healthy, quick-acting muscles win the admiration of girls and boys alike. Calcium is an essential for today's athletic bodies. Daily breakfasts of Little Kurnels give an extra supply of this vital, natural food substance so important for your growing children.



Today's Smiles Demand Attractive Teeth

No one will deny that sound, sparkling teeth are an asset to personal appearance in business and social life. Don't let your teeth—or your children's teeth—become defective because the diet lacks sufficient calcium. Remember that Little Kurnels help build up the reserves of calcium everybody needs constantly throughout the body.

New...Delicious...Made of Wheat and Oats
LITTLE KURNELS Give You a Great "Healthful Extra"

Now comes a real triumph in cereal making, absolutely unlike all others. It has a tempting taste that is new and modern. And it is a breakfast definitely made to fit in with the modern viewpoint that foods should contribute to health.

Little Kurnels have been enriched with the mineral probably most often deficient in modern diets. This precious mineral is calcium—needed by both grown-ups and children every day.

Calcium is called the "builder-upper" mineral because it contributes so vitally to bodily health—to sound teeth, strong bones and proper muscular activity. And calcium works directly with the vitamin which comes to us with sunshine Vitamin D. (Read important panel at left.) Now is the time of year to start getting the benefits of sunshine. Be sure your diet is rich in calcium. Little Kurnels are such a delightful way to add calcium to your diet. This builder-upper mineral is so important to children. It is the mineral both children and adults need in the greatest amounts. And it is the mineral probably most likely to be deficient in present-day diets.

Also important—Little Kurnels are made of wheat and oats—the two grains you value highest.

Really Different From Others

New, healthful Little Kurnels neither look nor taste like other breakfast foods. They are not shreds, not flakes, not biscuits. They are new in shape, in appearance, in taste. You feast your eyes on dainty, golden brown nuggets of deliciousness that invite eating. And from the first delicious spoonful to the last you enjoy a new kind of crispness, too—a real crispness that just doesn't "wilt" in milk or cream. Coaxing children to eat is so needless now. Everyone agrees that this zestful, modern-day cereal deserves "breakfast encores," day after day.

Ask for Little Kurnels Today

Find out right away how this new food for breakfast can bring new taste pleasure, new health advantages, to your family. Begin giving everyone the benefits of calcium, the "health extra" in Little Kurnels. You surely want to try this real new idea in cereals. Remember to ask for a package at your grocer's today. THE QUAKER OATS COMPANY, Chicago, Ill.

BOYS! GIRLS! GET THE AMAZING "LITTLE KURNELS"

"MAGIC WING" PLANE

Here's something mighty special—an utterly new kind of plane. Shoots way up with wings folded. Then at top of flight "magic wings" spread out. That's why plane sails higher—stays up longer—soars above trees and houses. Fun and thrills for everybody!

This unusual offer is made to boys and girls who try delicious Little Kurnels, made by The Quaker Oats Company. Just ask your mother to go to your grocer's and get Little Kurnels. Then send in the coupon, together with the blue guarantee seal cut from the Little Kurnels package, and 10c in coin. Don't lose out on this unusual offer. Act today. Mail coupon now.

TRUSTEES TRIM U. OF I. BUDGET $705,000 MORE

Fail by $100,000 to Meet Stelle's Instructions.

Urbana, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Trustees of the University of Illinois tonight reduced by $705,000 the $18,201,536 budget for the coming biennium. The total, however, remains $2,047,104 in excess of the appropriation for the current biennium.

After an all-day session, the trustees reluctantly agreed to cut their request, but they failed, by $100,000, to meet the instructions issued to them last week by Lieut. Gov. John Stelle, who has been holding economy conferences with department heads in behalf of Gov. Henry Horner.

Recall Previous Savings.

Stelle told Oscar G. Mayer, president of the trustees, last Thursday that the university should reduce its request by $805,000.

The trustees took the position today that, since they had made two reductions before the governor started his economy program, they already had taken significant steps in the direction of savings.

"This reduction," said Mayer, "means that all requests for construction have been eliminated, other than for the emergency items — the new power plant and funds for fireproofing the old chemistry building.

Men's Dormitory Deferred.

"It means postponement again of the men's dormitory and other badly needed buildings. This reduction of $2,500,000 [from the original budget] seriously hampers the educational program of the university for the coming biennium."

Mayer's statement was made as a group of legislators — both senators and representatives — arrived in Urbana for their biennial visit to the university. They were guests of the faculty and trustees at a dinner tonight. Tomorrow they will make a tour of the buildings and in the afternoon attend the Illinois-Ohio State baseball game.

APPROVE FACULTY CHANGES

Urbana, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Trustees of the University of Illinois today approved the appointment of new heads for two departments, the addition of two persons to the teaching staff, and the resignation of two others.

Prof. James G. Van Derpool of the department of architecture was named to head the art department in the college of fine and applied arts. Prof. Arthur E. Murphy of Brown university will be professor and head of the department of philosophy.

Russell Neal Sullivan of the University of Louisville was placed on the law faculty to fill the vacancy created by the resignation, announced today, of Prof. A. J. Casner, who is going to Harvard university. Dr. Henning Larsen of the University of Iowa was appointed professor of English.

In addition to the resignation of Prof. Casner, the board accepted the resignation of Prof. A. C. Callen as head of the department of mining and metallurgical engineering. He has accepted a position at Lehigh university.

Head of La Salle Schools Resigns After 39 Years

Accuses Husband

Mrs. Catherine Perkins in court yesterday.

Mrs. Catherine Perkins, 23 years old, a personal shopper for a loop department store, yesterday asked Judge Rudolph Desort to set aside a divorce obtained April 19 by her husband, Fred. She accused him of obtaining the divorce by fraud and perjury. Mrs. Perkins said her husband testified they separated Nov. 10, 1937, whereas, she charged, they actually were living together. She said her husband failed to abide by an agreement to pay a dental bill of $175 for replacing three teeth he knocked out during a quarrel. Mrs. Perkins lives at 4338 Drexel boulevard. Judge Desort set Tuesday for a hearing on her petition.

MAYOR'S ADVICE ASKED IN DISPUTE OF STORES, UNIONS

Ald. William A. Rowan, chairman of the city council committee on labor and industrial relations, yesterday conferred with Mayor Kelly about the next steps to be taken toward a settlement of the dispute between the trucking unions and the Wieboldt department stores. Afterward the alderman said he planned to call representatives of both sides together today for a renewal of discussions that have extended over three weeks.

Spokesmen for the unions and for the stores yesterday said that no independent negotiations have been undertaken. Both groups said they were waiting for the council committee to act.

Police were continuing their search for a union business agent tentatively identified as one of four terrorists who shot and killed James Lawrence, Wieboldt truck helper, last April 12. Police details have been watching the fugitive's home and his haunts in Chicago.

Call Witness to Inquiry on U. S. Housing Project

Frank J. Leonard, doorkeeper of the Illinois house of representatives, arrived in Chicago yesterday to serve subpenas on witnesses summoned by the committee investigating the delay in building the South Side Gardens, a federal housing project. The committee is to resume hearings Monday in the city council chambers. Representative Charles J. Jenkins [R., Chicago] heads the committe.

SUES FOR $12,500; GETS $650.

Dixon, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—A verdict awarding Fred P. Brown $650 in a $12,500 auto accident damage suit against Joy W. Sandrock was read today in Circuit court by Judge Albert H. Manus.

STATE OFFICIALS AGREE TO SLASH BUDGET $336,180

Additional Reductions to Be Considered Soon.

BY PERCY WOOD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 27.—[Special.]—Lieut. Gov. Stelle's second economy conference with Democratic department heads today brought another voluntary cut in appropriations, this time one of $336,180. This effort further to shave the 456 million dollar budget will continue next week—probably on Tuesday.

A week ago, Stelle, at Gov. Horner's request, obtained reduction pledges from officers totaling more than $2,100,000, but the house refused to concur on $1,000,000 of the contemplated slash. This sum will remain in the budget to pay inheritance tax refunds. So the net result of last Thursday's meeting was $1,100,000.

Today Stelle obtained the following reduction pledges: From John H. Lloyd, director of agriculture, $141,680; Martin J. Durkin, director of labor, $56,300; Adj. Gen. Carlos E. Black, $100,000; W. Emory Lancaster, chairman of the civil service commission, $30,000, and Arthur S. Smith, chairman of the liquor control commission, $8,200.

Stelle's conferences have no connection with the demands of Republicans on the joint economy committee that the budget be trimmed by more than $7,500,000, a proposal made yesterday.

CHARGES ATTACK BY UNION TERROR GANG IN AURORA

Warants for the arrest of two union leaders on charges of assault and larceny were issued in Aurora last night as the result of an attack on Harry Stoner, president of the Stoner Manufacturing company, and Dan Gauvy, an employé.

The warants named Howard Metzger, business agent for the chauffeurs' union, and Ralph Wagner, a business agent for the painters' union. Stoner told police the two union leaders and several other men followed him yesterday as he drove with Gauvy in a company truck to a freight depot. There he and Gauvy were assaulted and a movie camera taken from them, he said.

Members of the machinists', the chauffeurs' and teamsters', and the electricians' unions staged a walkout at the Stoner plant on April 12. Last Saturday the company sued the three unions for $130,000 strike damages. The plant was reopened Monday.

A Cry, a Cop, a Chase—and Two Robbers Are Captured

Two boys snatched the purse of Mrs. Esther Linick, 3737 Pine Grove avenue, in Grace street near Sheridan road last night. Mrs. Linick's cries attracted Park Policeman John Kelly, who pursued and captured the robbers. They are Hal Gibbons, 15, of 846 Montrose avenue, and Bert Reinhardt, 1344 Argyle street. Each admitted that he had previously been under supervision of juvenile authorities. The purse was recovered.

DEPUTIES DIG AND FIND EVIDENCE OF WEIRD SLAYING

Evidence supporting part of a weird tale of murder, told by an inmate of the Elgin State Hospital for the Insane, was found yesterday by DuPage county deputy sherifs digging in the garden of a Downers Grove home.

The home is that of Erhad Neumayer, 45 years old, the informant. It stands at Oakwood and Ogden avenues. Neumayer was arrested there fourteen months ago when he began going about nude and was sent to the hospital. In December he summoned Sherif Elmer Hoffman and told him the story.

"Two years ago," he said, "I was living with a woman. I got mad at her and shot her to death. Then I cut up the body and burned it in my furnace. Later I buried parts of the body and the gun I used to kill her beside by garage."

The sherif communicated with the relatives of the girl and learned she had been missing for two years. Although skeptical of the story, they started the digging on Monday. Yesterday the deputies discovered the shotgun, but no traces of the body. The excavating will continue today.

The River Bend Feud

By William MacLeod Raine

(Copyright: 1939: By William MacLeod Raine.)

SYNOPSIS.

Jeff Hunter, an American mining engineer, awaits execution in a Mexican jail by order of Pancho Banderas, rebel leader. A peon friend helps him escape to Texas. Jeff stops at a cabin where Joan Raleigh, lost in the vastness of her feudal ranch, has taken refuge. She treats him haughtily but offers him food. Jeff tells her of his escape from Mexico. He helps her find her way home. Joan's brother, Phil, suspects Jeff of being a spy for the ranch's enemies. When they learn Jeff went to college with their Cousin Raeburn, however, they invite him to be their guest. Word comes that Banderas is in hiding after being routed from Mexico. Jeff goes with Joan and her brother Bill to Trail End.

INSTALMENT XI.

AN ENCOUNTER WITH THE BANDIT.

Coming from the untempered sunlight outside, Jeff found the pool room dark until his eyes were accustomed to the change. Men were drinking at a bar, contrary to the law of the state. There were four of them, three Mexicans and Mallow. The real estate dealer was talking to a giant of a man, an arm flung across the huge thick shoulders of his acquaintance.

The tobacco showcase was at the right hand end of the bar. Jeff stepped forward. Back of the bar was a tilted looking glass. The huge Mexican shifted his position so that Hunter caught sight of his face.

Abruptly Jeff pulled up. How was it possible he had not recognized immediately the thick barrel body and the short bowed legs of Pancho Banderas?

Jeff thought in quick flashes. When Pancho looked up—and the American knew that in a moment he would do so—he would see his enemy standing behind him. It was too late to turn and leave the room without attracting the attention of the insurgent leader, who would at once pour lead into him. He could not stay where he was. There was nothing left for him but to advance.

His life hung on a thread. He dared not hurry, lest Pancho glance into the mirror to see who it was. Yet he had to be ready for the offensive before the big man lifted his gaze. So swiftly had he decided that, there had hardly been a break in his step. Lightfooted, he moved toward Banderas, his eyes fastened to the revolver in the holster at the right side of the man.

Mallow shifted his position, an arm resting on the polished top of the bar. Casually his glance picked up Hunter and came to startled attention.

"Just one mistake and I'll kill you. That goes for all of you."

He opened his mouth to speak, but developments came so fast he had not time to say a word.

Jeff had reached Pancho. Into the small of his back he jammed the knuckle of his closed left fist. At the same time the right hand was swiftly withdrawing the revolver from its open holster.

"Take it easy, all of you," he said quietly in Spanish. "Don't make a move. I have you covered."

Banderas had been lifting a glass of whisky to his lips. He held it poised and looked around over his shoulder. It took a moment for furious rage to drive the amazement from his heavy face.

"Just one mistake and I'll kill you," Hunter said, his voice crisp and hard. "That goes for all of you."

The insurgent general let out a roar of anger. He broke into wild curses. "Shoot down the Yankee cabron, Juan—Rodriguez," he ordered, and swung round to face the cold hard eyes of his foe.

"Too bad for you if they try—and for them," Jeff warned, not for an instant releasing the little red orbs of the bad man. "One touch of my finger, and a bullet rips through you."

Rodriguez said suavely, in his own language: "Come, let us talk this over comfortably, señor. We shall drink to kinder feelings since the war is over for all of us."

Hunter knew both the officers who had crossed the line with the fugitive insurgent leader. No doubt they had sat on the court martial which had condemned Antonio Alvarez to death and would cheerfully have taken part in one to sentence the American if Banderas had asked it of them.

"You will do your drinking later, and not with me," Jeff said. "And for Pancho's sake, since I find my finger itching, get your hands up quick." With sharp finality, he snapped: "All of you. Muy pronto."

The hands of Mallow went up as if they had been released from a spring. Those of the two officers followed. If red eyes had been deadly weapons Jeff would have been destroyed. Pancho glowered at him, hatred blazing in his look. Slowly, reluctantly, the great hairy hands lifted.

To the barkeeper Hunter gave a sharp command. "Reach over and get their guns. Toss them through that window."

Back of the bar, to one side, was a door with a key in the lock. Evidently it led into a back room where supplies were kept. Through the doorway Hunter herded the five men. He could see there was no back door and no window. The room was scarcely more than a large closet.

Jeff turned the key and tossed it through the broken window. He walked out of the pool room, gathered the weapons lying at one side of the building, and moved up the street toward the courthouse. The noise of the imprisoned men banging on the door followed him.

At the car he stopped and lit a cigaret. Several loafers on the courthouse steps eyed him curiously. They did not understand what this stranger was doing carrying four revolvers. Two men ran into the pool room. There might be developments soon, Jeff thought. All of the weapons but one he tossed into the back seat of the car.

Joan and her brother came out of the courthouse. They found their guest standing beside the car smoking a cigaret. The butt of a .38 army revolver stuck out from his waistband.

Bill's glance fell on the arms on the back seat. "Hello!" he said, surprised. "You making a collection of guns? Where did you get them?"

"From Pancho Banderas and some of his friends." Jeff took a last pull at his cigaret and tossed it away. "I think we'd better be getting out of town if you have finished your business. I locked them up in a storeroom, but some one seems to be breaking the door."

The Raleighs stared at him. Joan was the first to speak. "Is this supposed to be a joke?" she said.

"No joke. In about a minute Pancho and two of his officers will come roaring out of that pool room. I suggest a strategic retreat." The mining engineer's smile was casual.

"You took these guns from Pancho and his crowd?" Bill asked.

"Yes. I stepped up behind them, slid Pancho's gun from the holster, and got the drop on them. A lucky break."

At this moment a jet of men burst from the pool room. Pancho was in the lead. Catching sight of Hunter, he started toward him.

Bill reached for one of the guns and said in a low peremptory drawl, "Beat it, sis."

Joan walked up the steps of the courthouse and waited at the door. She watched Banderas approaching at a shambling run. The other two Mexicans and several townsmen followed not so fast.

"Looking for us, Pancho," Bill drawled.

The insurgent chief poured out a stream of maledictions. Mixed with them were violent threats. He would break every bone in Hunter's body. He would shoot him as full of holes as a sieve.

"Better have him stood up in front of a wall before a firing line, general," young Raleigh suggested. "By the way, where is your army?"

Banderas turned the flow of invectives on Bill, but he was stopped from action by the guns of two resolute men turned on him.

"Don't start in making mistakes on this side of the river, Pancho," warned Bill. "Maybe you were someone over in Mexico before the government ran you out of the country, but here you're just a dirty bum no more important than any other wolf in the brush."

Rodriguez said, in his own language: "We're not looking for trouble, but Mr. Hunter took our weapons without provocation. I think he should return them."

"Up to him," Bill said. "He peeled them off you, not I."

"I'll send your revolver back from the ranch, and I'll send your friend his," Jeff promised. "Think I'll keep Pancho's for a souvenir."

"If you have no more business we'll say adios," Bill told them.

BOOKLET OFFERS RECIPES FOR JAM AND JELLY TIME

It's time to begin thinking about jam and jelly making. Strawberries will soon be at their cheapest. Rhubarb is of excellent quality and reasonable.

It takes a good recipe to make a good preserve, so while you are counting your jars, glasses, and other equipment, examine your recipe file. There are nine recipes using strawberries and six recipes using rhubarb in Mary Meade's jam and jelly booklet.

The booklet, "Mary Meade's Best Jams and Jellies," contains ninety-nine recipes for jams, jellies, marmalades, and conserves, some with and some without added pectin. It tells you just how to get a good product and why other methods fail. The booklet is 20 cents at the Tribune public service offices, 1 South Dearborn street, and in the Tribune Tower lobby; or write to Mary Meade, enclosing 23 cents in stamps and the booklet will be mailed promptly.

For directions for canning spring fruits and vegetables, see Mary Meade's "Homemaker's Guide to Canning." The price is 5 cents; 7 cents by mail.

Blue Island High School to Hold Saturday Classes

Blue Island High school pupils will attend Saturday classes from now until school closes. Supt. H. L. Richards said the extra day will be utilized to permit the school term to end June 23 instead of July 1. The school reopened this week after being closed for six weeks.

TRY LESS TENDER MEAT CUTS FOR VARIETY IN MENU

When you're looking for variety in meats, look to the less tender cuts. There are more of them, and there are endless variations in their preparations. When you can't think of anything else to do with a beef neck, shank, or chuck, you can always have it ground to make into meat balls or a superb meat loaf.

BEEF AND CHILI LOAF.

2 pounds ground beef neck, shank, or chuck
2 slices crumbled bread
½ cup chili sauce
2 eggs, slightly beaten
Salt and pepper
3 slices bacon

Add bread, chili sauce, and eggs to ground beef. Season with salt and pepper and pack into a loaf pan. Top with raw bacon slices and bake in a moderate [350 degrees] oven until done, about 1½ hours.

Short ribs of beef are especially good when baked with rice and tomatoes in a casserole.

CASSEROLE OF BEEF SHORT RIBS.

3 pounds short ribs
6 small onions, chopped
1 carrot
3 tablespoons fat
½ cup rice
2 cups canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon sugar
Salt and pepper

Brown beef in melted fat, add onion and cook until lightly browned. Mix remaining ingredients and pour over meat. Cover and cook in a slow [300 degrees] oven for 2 to 3 hours, or until tender. Add water from time to time, if necessary.

BARGAINS TEMPT HOUSEWIVES TO USE VEGETABLES

Timely Recipes Offered for Week-End.

BY MARY MEADE.

Grocers' shelves must be fairly sagging under the weight of all the bargains they have to offer to Chicagoland's homemakers this week-end. Both staples and fresh produce are being featured.

There are vegetable bargains galore; the difficulty will be making up your mind which to pick. If you can't find your choice on the fresh vegetable rack, you're pretty sure to find it among the canned goods.

Asparagus to Be Featured.

Almost every store will feature asparagus, some of which is now coming from southern Illinois. For the most part, best quality asparagus will run about the same price as last week. You will find reduced prices on asparagus of somewhat poorer, although still acceptable, quality.

As of last week, peas and artichokes continue to be outstanding buys. Both are about as low as they ever have been on the Chicago market; both are of fine quality.

New cabbage, new onions, both yellow and white, new and old potatoes, lettuce, radishes, green peppers, tomatoes, pineapple, and rhubarb are all cheaper this week than last.

At Reasonable Prices

Good quality Louisiana strawberries, apples, kohlrabi, turnips, spinach, apples, cantaloupe, oranges, and grapefruit continue to be reasonably priced for this season. You will find at least one or two of these on sale at most stores.

With all these available, a crisp springtime salad bowl of mixed vegetables is certainly in order. Here is a suggestion for ingredients: Escarole, lettuce, avocodo slices, quartered tomato and a few stalks of green onions as an edible garnish and flavor accent for each serving.

Attention should be called to those tender young turnips. It would be a smart trick to cook the tops for Saturday's dinner, saving the white roots for later use.

TURNIP GREENS.

Wash greens in several waters. Cook in a small amount of water until tender. Keep kettle covered to prevent loss of vitamin C. Drain, season with salt and pepper, and serve with crisp chopped bacon and bacon drippings mixed with a small amount of lemon juice. The greens may be steamed if you prefer.

A good rich sauce, with just a suspicion of tartness, brings out the best in asparagus. Breton sauce is just that sort. It's of the Hollandaise family and has a special affinity for asparagus.

BRETON SAUCE.

2 egg yolks
¾ cup sour cream
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar or lemon juice
½ tablespoon minced parsley
¼ teaspoon paprika
¾ teaspoon salt

Combine egg yolks and sour cream in double boiler, beat well. Add vinegar or lemon juice. Cook, stirring until sauce begins to thicken. Remove from heat and add remaining ingredients. Serve immediately on cooked asparagus.

Canned Goods Handy.

When your budget can stand it, it's always wise to take advantage of canned goods sales and stock up pantry shelves. Even when fresh vegetables and fruits are in season, canned goods are a great convenience. Put canned vegetables in cheese cups for an unexpected company luncheon or supper. Almost any vegetable can be used. Fresh cooked sliced carrots, peas, silvered beans, or corn may be substituted for canned vegetables. Ripe olives aid to the dish immensely.

CHEESE CUPS WITH VEGETABLES.
[Serves 6.]

1 cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup grated American cheese
⅓ cup shortening
3 tablespoons cold water
1 No. 2 can vegetables, or
2½ cups fresh vegetables, cooked
2 tablespoons butter
¼ cup chopped ripe olives
Salt and pepper

Sift flour and salt together. Cut in grated cheese and shortening. Add cold water, stirring only long enough to hold mixture together. Cool to thickness of pastry. Cut in squares large enough to line muffin tins with corners extending over the edge. Bake in a hot [425 degrees] oven until browned, about 15 minutes. Heat vegetables, drain, and add butter, olives, and seasonings to taste. Serve in hot cheese cups.

Ham is cheaper than it was at Easter time. A whole ham or a thick slice is a good choice this week-end. Have you tried baking it in molasses?

BAKED SLICED HAM.

Soak a 2½ pound slice of ham in ¾ cup molasses for about 15 minutes. Place in baking dish and bake in a moderate oven [350 degrees] until tender, about 45 minutes. Baste occasionally with molasses mixed with an equal amount of water. Baked oranges, stuffed with fresh fruit and topped with coconut make a pretty garnish for the baked ham slice.

BAKED STUFFED ORANGES.

Wash medium sized oranges and parboil until skins are soft and bitterness is gone. Cut a slice from blossom end of each orange and scoop out most of the pulp. Stuff oranges with orange pulp mixed with pieces of canned pineapple and dates. Place oranges in casserole in which equal parts of molasses and water have been placed to depth of ½ an inch. Baste oranges frequently with water and molasses mixture during baking. Use moderate [350 degrees] oven, placing in oven about half an hour before ham is done. Just before removing from oven, sprinkle tops with shredded coconut. Arrange hot oranges around ham on platter.

Ham Baked in Molasses

Baked stuffed oranges make an attractive garnish for a thick slice of ham baked in molasses. Both oranges and ham are among week-end bargains.

FUDGE CREAMIES IF LEFT TO COOL BEFORE BEATING

Fudge always should be cooled before it is beaten if the candy is to be creamy and soft grained. Tests with a batch of sugar sirup show that beating the sirup hot produces large crystals, beating it when about half cooled produces somewhat finer but still rather coarse crystals, and beating it when almost completely cool gives a fine, even grain. The time of beating varies with the recipe, but coarse crystals may result if beating is not continued to the stage of a sudden softening, followed by stiffening. At this point the candy is ready to turn into the pan.

A CURRY RECIPE THAT CURRIES FAVOR EASILY

Curry powder is a blend of spices, usually including turmeric, pepper, coriander seed, ginger, and other ingredients. It's used for fish dishes, soups, and stews, as a rule, and is becoming more popular in this country than ever before. India is the native home of curried dishes.

Curried rice is familiar to most of us, but here's a new version—curried rice and kidney bean ring with cheese sauce. It's attractive to look upon and very good to eat.

CURRIED RICE AND KIDNEY BEAN RING.
[Serves 8.]

1 cup rice
¼ cup minced onion
2 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons curry powder
1 No. 2 can red kidney beans

Wash rice thoroughly and cook until tender in salted water. [Use one and one-half tablespoons salt to two quarts water.] Drain and rinse in hot water. Drain. Cook onion slowly in butter, about five minutes. Add curry powder, drained beans, and rice. Cook until hot. Press firmly into greased ring mold or individual molds to shape. Turn out again while hot. Serve with cheese sauce.

CHEESE SAUCE: Melt one-half pound American cheese in one cup irradiated evaporated milk over hot water.

DATE-NUT LOAF IS A CAKE THAT'S NOT "TOO DRY"

Date-nut loaf is a tortelike cake, moist enough to overcome objections of any who complain that cake is "too dry" to be served alone as dessert. Try this with whipped cream.

DATE NUT LOAF
[Eight inch pan]

1 cup hot water
1 cup chopped dates
1 egg, slightly beaten
1¼ cups sifted flour
1¼ cups brown sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon cocoa
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon cloves
1 cup chopped nuts

Pour hot water over dates. Drain off water into mixing bowl. Beat egg and water together for two minutes. Sift in dry ingredients and beat three minutes longer. Fold in dates and nuts. Pour into greased pan and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes.

THESE 4 RECIPES FOR SHORTCAKES ARE THE BERRIES

Variety Depends on Dough Used.

Some like it hot, some like it cold, but everybody likes it—it being shortcake, with plenty of big red strawberries.

There's not much dispute about the berry part of this dessert—as long as there are plenty of them swimming in plenty of their own juice. To make sure of the juiciness, the berries must be partially crushed or cut in halves, sprinkled with enough sugar to please your own sweet tooth, and then allowed to stand at room temperature for about two hours to draw out the juices.

Variety Depends on Dough.

The shortcake itself is another matter. Even when you stick to biscuit dough—which is the only real shortcake—there are almost as many varieties as there are cooks to make them. Variety depends on the richness and sweetness of the dough, the use of a hot or a cold biscuit, and even the method of baking. Here are four types from which you may choose:

RICH DROP SHORTCAKE.

2 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup sugar
½ cup heavy cream
¼ cup water
½ cup shortening

Sift flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar together. Blend cream and water. Cut shortening into dry ingredients. Stir in liquid quickly. Drop in flat circles on ungreased cookie sheet about two inches apart. Bake in a hot [450 degrees] oven for fifteen minutes. Split and serve while still warm with sweetened strawberries. This dessert may be served cold, if necessary.

BUTTERMILK SHORTCAKE.

2½ cups flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
5 tablespoons butter
1 cup buttermilk

Sift dry ingredients and rub in shortening. Add buttermilk, stirring only enough to mix. Pat or roll to one-half inch thickness and cut with biscuit cutter. Spread with melted butter and place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in a hot [425 degrees] oven for fifteen minutes. Serve while still hot with sweetened strawberries. This dough may be baked in two sheets, to be put together with berries, layer cake fashion.

WAFFLED SHORTCAKE.

2 cups flour
¾ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
⅓ cup shortening
¾ cup milk

Sift flour, salt, and baking powder together. Cut in shortening. Add milk to make a soft dough, stirring just enough to hold ingredients together. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently for half a minute. Roll out to one-half inch thickness. Cut with biscuit cutter. Place five or six in hot waffle iron and bake until well browned, about three and one-half minutes. Serve hot with sweetened fruit between the waffles.

EGG DROP SHORTCAKE.

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
3 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
1 egg, well beaten
½ cup milk

Sift dry ingredients together and cut in shortening. Blend well beaten egg and milk and add to flour mixture, stirring carefully until all flour is dampened. Stir vigorously until mixture forms soft dough that clings to sides of bowl. Drop onto ungreased baking sheet and bake in a hot [425 degrees] oven until done, about fifteen minutes. Split and serve hot or cold with sweetened berries.

EGGS IN CUSTARD CUPS! IT'S A NEW SPANISH CUSTOM

Eggs at lunch are usually just a bit different from eggs at breakfast. Generally they are dressed up a bit with other ingredients, while breakfast eggs are just eggs, baked, soft cooked, poached, or fried. Spanish style eggs baked in custard cups are a delicious and attractive luncheon dish. Serve them in the cups, just as they come from the oven.

BAKED EGGS, SPANISH STYLE.
[Serves Six.]

¼ cup butter
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons minced green pepper
Salt, pepper
6 eggs
6 teaspoons cream or tomato juice
¼ cup fine bread crumbs
½ cup grated cheese

Cook onion and green pepper for 3 minutes in butter. Salt and pepper very lightly. Put mixture into six custard cups, letting the butter coat the sides of each. Break an egg into each. Put a teaspoon of tomato juice or cream on top of each egg, and sprinkle with mixed crumbs and cheese. Bake in a slow oven, 300 degrees until eggs are set but not hard.

CANNED MEATS GAIN FAVOR FOR HURRY UP MEALS

They're Handy to Have on Pantry Shelves.

Canned meats and meat food products tucked away on the supply shelf are ready to fill in at any critical time and save a meal from skimpiness or utter lack of distinction.

Canned meats have been much improved of late. Reputable brands of canned meat and meat products are carefully prepared from good cuts of beef, veal, pork, or lamb, and nothing could be more safe, pure, or wholesome for the table.

Plenty to Choose From.

There is a long list of canned meats and meat products available. You won't find a complete assortment in many stores, but you'll find some of them everywhere.

Corned beef, corned beef hash, dried beef, roast beef, beef steak, beef stew, beef ravioli, beef loaf, and hamburger steak are a good beginning for beef products.

Canned ham, pork loin, pigs' feet, sausage [patties and links], spiced ham, and deviled ham are some of the pork products. Veal loaf is probably the best and most popular of canned veal products.

Try These Specialties.

Specialties include big and little frankfurters, beef, and lamb tongues, some of them pickled; spaghettis with meat, chili con carne combinations, chop sueys, stews, goulashes, gravies, broths, scrapple, liver cheese, Vienna sausage, tamales and a wide assortment of meat spreads.

FRESH PINEAPPLE EASY TO FIX AND A TREAT TO EAT

Cover with Sugar Sirup and Away It Goes.

Fresh pineapple really isn't hard to prepare if you go about it in the right way. Of course, the peeling is tough and there are many little "eyes" to be dug out, as well as a core to be cut. But a sharp knife and good technique are all that's necessary.

First, cut the pineapple into thick or thin slices, as you prefer, crosswise of the fruit. Then peel each slice, and with the tip of the paring knife, cut out the eyes. Then cut the slices in halves, cut out the core portion, and slice or shred the pineapple into a bowl. Instead of sugaring it in the usual manner, pour a hot sirup over it. The sugar sirup penetrates the fruit better than sugar alone, and brings out the delicious freshness of flavor.

To make a sugar sirup for a medium sized pineapple, boil 1 cup of sugar and ½ cup water for five minutes. Chill the sirupy pineapple until time to serve it as dessert.

Maybe you'll want to make pineapple preserves out of your fresh pineapple. If so, prepare the fruit in the way described, omitting the sirup. Measure the shredded pineapple and put it in a kettle with three-fourths as much sugar. For example, if you have four cups of shredded pineapple, packed well into the cup, you'll need three cups of sugar.

Let the fruit and sugar stand until a sirup forms. Heat to boiling and cook as rapidly as possible without scorching until the pineapple is clear. Transfer to clean, hot jars and seal at once.

Church Selects Two Bishops to Assist Reunion

Kansas City, Mo., April 27.—(AP)—The Methodist Protestant church tonight elected two bishops, its first since 1828.

The two are Dr. James H. Straughn, Baltimore, Md., president of the church's general conference, and Dr. John Calvin Broomfield, Fairmount, W. Va.

The action removed one of the wedges that has kept the Methodists of the United States divided into three churches for the major portion of a century.

Voting for the two bishops were the 100 Methodist Protestant delegates to the uniting conference which already is started on its work of establishing one United Methodist church.

The new bishops will hold that rank in the new church, along with forty-one from the Methodist Episcopal church and nineteen from the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

After the current conference completes its work new bishops will be selected as needed by the joint group rather than as representatives of the present divisions. Those selected now and those already serving, however, will retain their Episcopal positions.

In 1821 a group of laymen began an active movement for more lay representation in church government. Unsuccessful, they withdrew in 1828 to form the Associated Methodist churches, which two years later took the Methodist Protestant name.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Kansas City, Mo., April 27.—[Special.]—The Rev. Dr. T. Otto Nall of Cincinnati, O., was elected editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, official Methodist weekly, Chicago, by the uniting conference.

Bank Visit.

Orson Welles, Broadway's bearded young genius, accompanied by his guardian, Dr. Maurice Bernstein, was sitting in the First National bank the other day talking with two bankers when the telephone rang. It was a Hollywood call for Welles, transferred from Dr. Bernstein's apartment to the bank.

"Well, $250,000 is a lot of money, but I can't consider it," the bankers heard Welles tell Hollywood. "No, there's no use your flying here. I'm definitly not interested in the movies."

Welles hung up and turned to plead for an advance of $10,000 on the patrimony he inherits next year when he is 25.

Autograph.

Thornton Wilder recently sent a Chicago friend (Mrs. Byron S. Harvey) an autographed copy of his play, Merchant of Yonkers. The autograph brought to mind an incident that occurred when Mr. Wilder was teaching a class at the University of Chicago three years ago, as related by Mrs. Charles P. Hanley. The class was studying Dante's Inferno. At the end of the course many of the students bought Mr. Wilder's books and brought them to class to be autographed. A school teacher who saw the crowd about his desk had no book of Wilder's, but she put a copy of Dante's Inferno in front of him and asked him to autograph it.

Mr. Wilder looked at the book, then at her.

"Suppose I just put my initials down here in one corner," he said. "You see, I really had so little to do with the writing of this."

Singer of Folk Songs Charms Her Audience

BY EDWARD BARRY.

The winds of a wider world than any of us is likely to see blew through Thorne hall last night when Engel Lund, who calls herself a singer of folk songs, but who is really a great deal more than that, offered a program whose items were drawn from the music of Germany, France, Bohemia, Scotland, England, Denmark, Sweden, and Iceland.

Not, mind you, from the music of the educated classes or the trained composers of these countries, but from the music which has come to be identified with the work and the laughter and the grief of the people themselves. Miss Lund's extraordinary power over her audience was the result not only of her simple and fervent singing, but of her gift for evoking the mood of a song in advance.

For when she pauses before each piece and tells her hearers something of its meaning and something of the local or national customs which give it point, she is already deep in the mood of the song. Her inflections, voice colorings—even her choice of words—begin the work of communication before Accompanist Ferdinand Rauter strikes the first chord of the introduction.

The recital was sponsored by the university college of Northwestern university and was open to the public without charge.

Josef Cristea, tenor, and Lorraine Mareen, soprano, offered a joint recital in Kimball hall last night. The former added several Rumanian songs to the standard items of his repertoire. The latter sang Mozart, Schubert, and a miscellany of other things.

Mr. Cristea has an attractively textured voice which is capable of a fine ringing fortissimo without loss of quality. Miss Mareen's most persuasive gift is a delicate, earth-free pianissimo whose quality she can keep through mezzo-piano, at least.

Frock Has Smart Coat Lines

WOMEN'S FROCK.

Coat lines are especially successful in dresses for the mature figure, since they minimize overweight to such an extent that it is virtually unnoticeable. We have what we think is an extra smart version of this design. Sketched are two ways you can style this pattern.

At the left, a frock with simple collar, tucked shoulders, plain puffed sleeves, and moderately flared skirt that has two patch pockets. Novelty buttons are used down the front. Prints and plain shades make up equally well. This tailored version makes up as beautifully in cottons as it does in silks.

At the right, a dressier version with plain V neckline, flowing sleeves, and shirred shoulders. Printed silks with dark backgrounds are especially good selections for this design.

Style No. 2666 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, and 50 inches bust measurement.

Clotilde patterns are 10 cents each. Address orders to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central Station, NEW YORK CITY, inclosing 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired, and write your name and address plainly.

Benefit Dance

Spencer Tracys Dogged by Mobs as British Forget Their Calmness

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 27.—[Special.]—The staid British, who are fearful that Americans will show too much enthusiasm when the King and Queen of Great Britain visit the United States, today showed how they receive those they admire.

But it wasn't a scene of calm dignity. On the contrary, it was a day of mob scenes. In the center were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Tracy. The film actor and his wife had hoped for peace after their experience of yesterday when they were chased by a mob of 1,000 girls and women after arriving on the boat train. In that demonstration, Arturo Toscanini, the conductor, was bowled over and trampled.

Experiences today started before breakfast. Shocking the sedate Claridge hotel's staf, the Tracys appeared before 6 o'clock and started on a walk through nearly deserted streets. A crowd of autograph hunters materialized and rushed them. The Tracys fled.

The flight was repeated not long afterward, when the Tracys were recognized, as Mrs. Tracy started to take movies of the changing of the guard at Buckingham palace. With a charging mob at their heels, they managed to jump into a passing taxi.

So boisterously had they been handled by the crowds, that they found it necessary to go shopping to replenish their wardrobes.

Finds Grimaces Most Annoying of Mannerisms

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

That ancient saying, "Every one is queer but me and thee, and even thee is a little queer," is worth resurrecting as a sermon on mannerisms that offend. The other person's are so much more apparent than our own. They irritate us and annoy, while we may be performing our own pointless grimace, gesture, contortion, peculiarity in blissful ignorance of how our own audience suffers in consequence.

Maybe a brief review of things that annoy, things that detract from a lady's charm, is worth presenting here:

Making faces is probably the most universal fault. We all seem to have a pet grimace that does neither us nor our audience any good.

Maybe we smirk in our attempt to appear cheerful.

Maybe we develop the dead-pan expression just to prove we're not light sisters.

Maybe we wear the sour-puss expression because we've gone sour.

Maybe we go grim on our audience with clenched jaw and firm set lips.

Maybe we bite away nervously on our lips.

Some one calls those foreheads that register certain of our grimaces—washboard foreheads—due to frowning, scowling habits we might have eradicated in their infancy.

Some have exclamation points between the eyebrows due to some other favorite form of distortion.

Some, we regret to have to add, have gum-chewing grimaces. No one can chew gum attractively, which is the reason it should be a behind-boudoir-door activity.

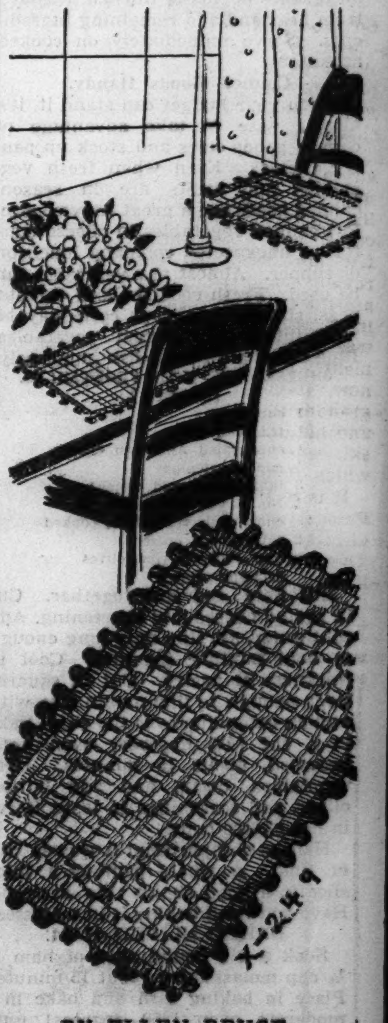
You're not an eyelash flutterer? We thought her kind went out generations ago, but we met up with one recently who flutters like a schoolgirl, though the mother of one.

Hand flutters are with us every minute along with bead fumblers, and bracelet twisters, coiffure patters, finger entwiners, and eye-rubbers. We must check on each and every one of these maneuvers so they don't get the upper hand.

You're familiar with what's been called the great American gesture—the girdle hitch. The skirt hitch, too. This year may be added the unlovely gesture of fumbling around for slipping shoulder straps.

You can go on filling out the list by yourself by recalling mannerisms of others that annoy you—checking on self, at once, of course, to see if you may not be doing the identical same thing.

Crocheted Place Mats Ideal with Gay Pottery Ware



BY ELLEN BRUCE.

Colorful crocheted place mats may be used effectively with the gay pottery ware so popular at the moment. A combination of double and treble crochet creates the central portion of the doily, and the edge is finished with three bright shades of the Spanish, Mexican, or what-you-will variety of colors.

For the instructions for crocheting the mesh doily with a tricolor border, No. X-249, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Chicagoans to Take Part in New York Fair

BY JUDITH CASS.

MRS. PAUL STEINBRECHER, a commissioner from Illinois to the New York fair, has left to be on hand for the opening ceremonies on Sunday. As the only woman commissioner she will be a sort of hostess in the Illinois building in the Court of States while she is in New York. And a more capable, charming and handsome representative of the women of this state couldn't have been found, I think. Mrs. Lydia Thomas Raley, who was hostess at the Illinois host house at our Century of Progress, is to be the resident hostess at the Illinois building.

Probably every one of the 100 women on the Illinois advisory committee on women's participation in the New York fair will visit the exposition grounds at Flushing, L. I., some time during the summer. A number of them will be there on Illinois day, Aug. 26. The chairman of the Illinois committee, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, will be there fairly soon, for she is landing in New York the second week in May from Germany. Her family and friends are hoping that Miss Janet Fairbank will accompany her mother home, but their last letters brought word that "Janet Jr." was undecided about whether to leave Munich. She has been studying voice there and her mother joined her last month.

Chicagoans to Attend Garden Club Luncheon.

Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy and Mrs. William N. Pelouze will be two of Chicago's amateur gardeners who will go to New York for a luncheon the associate members of the Garden Club of America will give on May 10 at "Gardens on Parade," the horticultural exhibition at the fair. Mrs. Cudahy is second vice president of the club and Mrs. Pelouze is a director. Mrs. John W. Gary, Mrs. Walter S. Brewster and Mrs. Howard C. Phillips are associate members, too, but they do not expect to go to New York for the luncheon.

"Gardens on Parade" is fifty gardens, each one a distinct entity yet blending into a panorama of harmony. There will be different blooms all during the summer. In May a rock garden will be one of the main attractions, a garden that won the first prize at the International Flower show in 1939. "Gardens on Parade" is situated in the foreign government zone of the fair.

Members of the Chicago Rugby club are leaving tonight for New York to play the New York Rugby club tomorrow at Randall's Island stadium, near the fair grounds. The club's trip to Bermuda has been postponed until next spring, but it has an engagement to play the Winnipeg team in Winnipeg on May 27 when King George and Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain will be there.

Potockis to Spend 3 Months in Poland.

Three months in Poland is the interesting summer holiday in store for Count and Countess Anthony Potocki. While the former Gloria Griffith has been to Poland before, it will be the first trip the Potockis have taken there together.

The holiday will be different from any most Chicagoans could enjoy, for none but a native Pole with the family connections of a Potocki would receive such a welcome. Among the few outsiders who are entertained royally whenever they are in Poland are the Charles S. Deweys, who lived in Warsaw for several years while he was financial adviser to the government. The Deweys are in Warsaw now, staying with Count Potocki's grandmother, Princess Lubomirska, and his uncle, Count Meurice Zamoyski, who owns the Blue palace, in which Count Potocki was reared.

It is to the Blue palace that Count Potocki will take his American wife directly after they arrive in Poland. They are sailing June 20 in the Polish ship Batory.

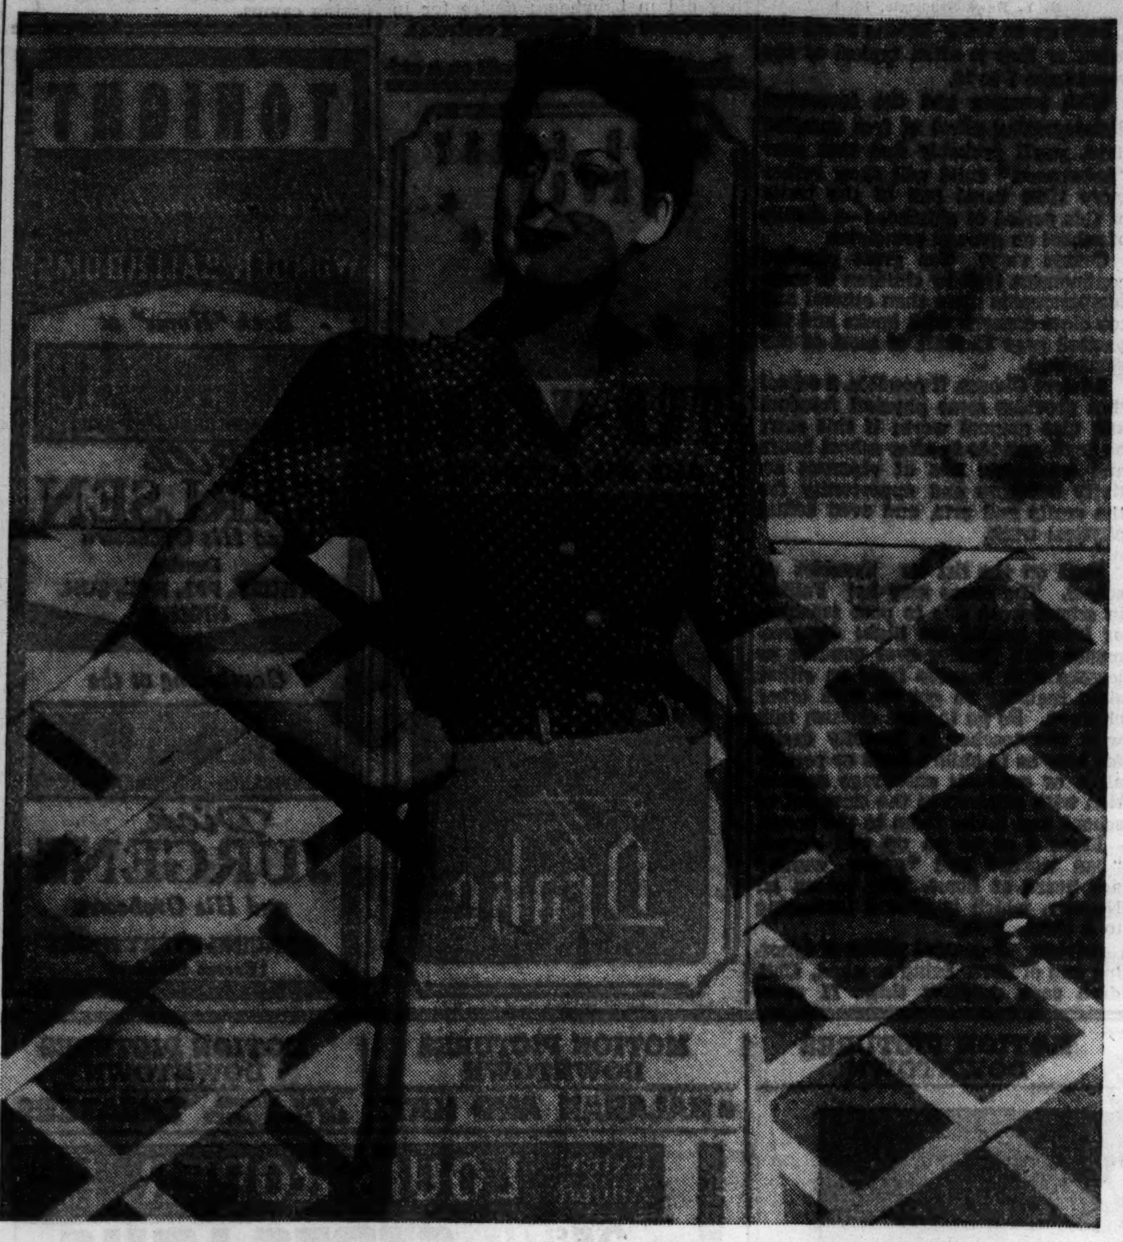
Silks with White Dots Welcome



Cool white dotted silk in either red, copper brown or deep blue, provides top contrast for the flared skirt made of natural linen colored material. A side pocket is patched on; a belt of the dotted silk slides through loops at the waistline and small white pearl buttons decorate the shirt top.

Smart Outfits in White Pique Attract Buyers

BY RHEA SEEGER.

White piqué in the old-fashioned narrow wale or the effective modern stuff with a waffle weave makes white costumes or accessories with a definite flair for summer swank. All kinds of boleros are ready; brief little smoothies cut with the snap of a masculine mess jacket. They are worn with dull crêpes in dark or strong colors as well as sheers in organdy or other cottons.

You may like the sharply nipped in at the waistline gay '90s jackets. They have perky flared peplum, leg o' mutton long sleeves and long slenderizing revers. There are both single and two button closings. These are the white hopes for the more elegant afternoon ensembles of faille, bengaline, or moire.

Snowy white piqué fashions one of the most exciting dinner and dance dresses of the season . . . a honey, with a nautical flavor because of the glittering brass sailor suit buttons. The skirt is cut in a dashing circular swirl with front hip pockets. These pockets have shaped flaps that are buttoned down flat with the gold buttons. The mess jacket has long fitted sleeves. Epaulets of piqué are buttoned down.

White piqué hats are legion, but the most unusual models vanish almost while you look. Dache has one made in a skull cap model with two huge Easter lilies on the center of the top.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

We have just received and experimented with a perfectly lovely makeup for the achievement of a fresh spring face. It's all built around a heart warming pink, the pink of bonbons and pretty babies' bonnets and that not too pale variety of pink carnation.

The rouge is a delicate shade, a bit lighter than the rosy pink of the lipstick. Combine the two with powder of a clear vibrant shade and eye shadow of a tender blue-green, and you have a makeup that's gloriously young and appealing and fresh as flowers.

The lipstick is particularly lovely. Not only in this new color, but in texture. We've used it in all seasons in many different shades, and it will always be one of our very special pets. It's so creamy it simply slides on, but it isn't so creamy that it slides right off again or gets all feathered at the edges. It stays put, and the color is as true after a couple of hours as it was two minutes after you put it on. In the pink shade it isn't too brilliant; it has a delicate, soft quality that is characterful, but not harsh.

The rouge is even creamier than the lipstick, which is just as it should be. It's easy to apply and holds its color just as truly as the lip rouge does.

The blue-green eye shadow is as soft in texture as it is in shade, and as flattering to the blue-eyed as it is to those with brown sparklers.

Show Splendid French Interiors by Walter Gay

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

A charming exhibition of interiors in oil and water color by Walter Gay has opened at the Quest galleries, 810 North Michigan avenue, to continue to May 12.

Walter Gay [his death a year or so ago was a great loss to non-modern painting] has a world-wide reputation for the beauty and intrinsic quality of his pictures. He lived abroad for many years and painted many gorgeous rooms in various French châteaus.

One has only to walk casually through the present exhibit to grasp at once the reason for his success. These paintings are delightful things, warm, dignified, perfect in detail and fascinating in their reach.

Gay did not confine himself to one type of room. He painted morning-rooms, drawing-rooms, intriguing corners, dining-rooms, stairs of attractive lines and views from French windows opening onto courts or sunny streets. Each of his pictures is a gem; some are of more sparkling quality than others because of their subject, but each is persuasive, subtle, delicate, and sensitive.

"Golden Pheasants," "The Writing Desk," "The Screen," "The Boudoir: Château du Breau," "Interior at Mignaville," "The Blue Room," "The Commode," "Yellow Curtains: Château du Breau"—one can go through the entire list of pictures and fail to find one that could happily be left out. This is that perfect type of exhibition where each painting makes one eager to see another.

There is a charming exhibit of work by Signe Palmblad at the Sheridan theater. Mrs. Palmblad, one of the foremost Swedish-American painters in Chicago, is well known for her Swedish peasant paintings and her landscapes. Mrs. Palmblad insists upon our knowing that she is so many years old. We feel she is so many years young. Her work is amusing and fresh; one finds many pleasant canvases on the walls.

At the Paul Theobald galleries, 104 South Michigan avenue, is an exhibit of abstractions by the group of Art institute students who work under Willard Smythe. These young people have a long way to go before they catch up with the imaginative fantasies of Survage, Picasso and the group of original abstractionists upon whose familiar designs they are patterning their efforts.

Looking at Hollywood by Ed Sullivan

Preview in Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., April 27.—In Hollywood, or in Beverly Hills, or in Westwood "Union Pacific" would have been just another preview, but here in this prosperous Nebraska city it is an event of high magic.

Magical enough to increase the city's ordinary population of 225,000; magical enough to gown the girls in the gingham and crinoline their grandmothers wore; magical enough to grow beards and sideburns on the faces of the men; magical enough to create a spirit of gayety and friendliness that has transformed a great city into a carnival town. Yet in Hollywood this would have been only another preview.

You don't realize what the movies mean to the people of the country until you see some such amazing demonstration as this.

There are upwards of 200,000 visitors who have thronged here from an area of 300 miles. . . . There are parades, block dances, and whoop-de-do. . . . The taxicab driver who drove me to the Western Union had sideburns eight inches long. . . . The doorman who took my bag at the Fontenelle hotel was dressed in Indian buckskin; the clerk who proffered the register wore a frock coat, a wing collar, and an ascot tie. The bell boys and the elevator operators were dressed in the uniforms of Union soldiers.

The lobby was crowded with bearded men and sun bonneted girls and women. . . . Yet in Hollywood this would have been just another preview and we would have complained at the necessity of going all the way down to the Los Angeles Paramount to see it.

It requires something like this to make people take themselves less seriously, and perhaps it serves as an exhaust valve for the tension of the days in which we life. . . . This is less a movie preview than a laboratory experiment in behaviorism and it is marvelous in its results.

Just now I saw a trafic cop at one of the main intersections gravely salute two elderly ladies, in crinoline and sunbonnets and parasols, who drove past his beat in a horse-drawn open carriage. One of the elderly ladies, under the cover of her parasol, winked brazenly at John Law, and be it stated for the records that John Law winked back at the white-haired old lady.

Next week that same trafic cop will angrily tell the chauffeur of those two old ladies to pull over to the curb and yelp: "Where d'yuh think you're going—to a fire?", but today, under the spell of nostalgia, the trafic cop's heart is full of nobility.

Swastikas give you a momentary start in this carnival setting, until you realize that the swastikas are old Indian signs, belong on the tents set up in courthouse square, and have no relation to today.

It seems obvious to this reporter that Hollywood should stage as many of these previews as possible in as many cities of the country, because this is a fine thing for pictures and it is an electric shock to the selected areas.

When close to a quarter of a million people invade Omaha for a picture preview, the demonstration is significant. . . . Not only is the immediate reaction to pictures excellent but the long-range effects are loaded with possibilities, all good. . . . Theater managers here tell me that this single stunt will do more for the exhibitors of this area than anything else could have done.

Perhaps the contrast between Omaha's enthusiasm and Hollywood's professionally blasé attitude is more pointed, because just a few hours ago I covered the "Juarez" preview at Warner's Beverly theater. Despite the stimuli of searchlights and red carpets and limousines and dinner jackets and evening dresses, the Beverly Hills preview was as stiff and wooden as a cigar store Indian in contrast to the local excitement.

Not that "Juarez" isn't a great picture. It is. The brilliant performance of Paul Muni alone would have served to distinguish "Juarez," and in addition to Muni the flicker has performance gems by young John Garfield, Bette Davis, Brian Aherne, Claude Rains, Donald Crisp and Joe Calleia. Yet it is the impact of Muni's art that most strongly impresses you.

Muni, in this picture, depends only on his voice and his face to paint the character of the great Indian liberal. There are no movements of the hands to aid the development of the character, no raging, or ranting, nothing physical. Having deprived himself of all these "props," Muni projects a character that is so right, so perfect that you feel like standing up in the audience and cheering him.

Lucky that great performers surrounded Muni as he achieved this masterpiece, because his brilliant underscoring and underplaying would make inexpert players appear gawky and clumsy.

From the standpoint of acting Muni in "Juarez" turns in a performance that is unforgettable. He hung one up in the clouds that others will have difficulty in equalling if, indeed, they ever come close to it. If there were any doubt that Muni is the Number 1 dramatic star of the industry, here is the answer.

It is because of the improvement in pictures—improved performances, improved photography, improved mechanics—that Omaha tonight has 250,000 visitors at the "Union Pacific" preview. The movies could not generate that sort of excitement if they weren't hitting the ball at least once in every three trips to the plate.

Would Marry Man She Jilted After Quarrel

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

"I had been going with a man for six years when we had a terrible argument, shortly after which I got married.

"My husband and I have been married five years now, and realize that it is a terrible mistake, but because of financial reasons cannot get a divorce. I have met the other man a few times, and now we both know that we love each other dearly and were wrong in ever breaking up.

"I have been trying honestly to make a go of my marriage. Many, many times, when I have been so downhearted that I wanted to leave my husband, it was the other one who sent me back to him. It was he who gave me the courage to stay on longer and try.

"But now it has become unbearable for both my husband and me. I don't know what to do. I go out with this other man a few times, and as much as we fight against it, it is impossible for us to stay away from each other.

"What is best to do? Continue living with my husband or just leaving him and getting a divorce when either one of us can afford to get it? My husband has been grand about the whole thing. He is not eager for a divorce, and the worst part of it is that he wishes I would forget and give him a chance to show what he can do. But he says if it will make me happier he will do everything he can to get the money for a divorce. He is a likeable person, but our likes and dislikes are driving me crazy. I know I hurt him by marrying on the rebound, but it makes me feel worse to think what I did to the man I really love. UNHAPPY."

You make no mention, Unhappy, of the fact that the other man wants to marry you. He may not, you know. Sending you back would suggest 'twere easier to love you with the other man footing your bills than otherwise.

Many women have found to their deep chagrin that this outsider of theirs isn't so eager for their continued company once they're set free from legal ties.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1939: By Ely Culbertson.]

If a statistically minded person were to make a painstaking survey I imagine he would find that something like 8,642,758 contracts have been lost because the declarer, being able to win a certain lead in either hand, makes the wrong decision. The hand shown below would swell the total, whatever it is, by one.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 diamond	Pass	1 heart	Pass
2 clubs	Pass	2 diamonds	Pass
3 diamonds	Pass	4 diamonds	Pass
5 diamonds	Pass	Pass	Pass

As will have been observed, there was nothing sissie-like about the North-South bidding. North first chose to mention an unbiddable heart suit [unbiddable, even by a responder] and later, when his partner made the urging rebid of three diamonds, found values for a raise. As a matter of fact, the raise was not as bad as it looked. The ace-king of a suit bid and rebid by partner usually have a potential value in excess of any side suit ace-king.

West opened the spade king. Winning with the blank ace, declarer led a low diamond to the king and dropped East's queen. A club was returned and when East ducked, declarer properly went right up with the king and was delighted to find it hold the trick. A low club was returned and West's queen held. West now played the ten of diamonds and, at this point, declarer committed hari-kari—he let the lead ride to his own hand and won with the jack. Now, on another club lead, West showed out, and it did not matter whether declarer ruffed with dummy's remaining diamond ace or ducked and gave East the trick. Whichever he chose, success was out of the question. Actually, he chose to ruff. After that East still had to be given a club trick and West's diamond nine now was the master trump. Thus, although declarer had found a good lay of cards, he was down one.

Note the difference it would have made if declarer had taken West's lead of the diamond ten in the right instead of the wrong hand. Had he won with dummy's diamond ace, as he should have, he could have entered his hand with a heart to the ace or with a spade ruff, then could have led a low club. If West chose to ruff with the diamond nine he would be unable to take out dummy's remaining six spot and declarer could ruff away East's club ace at his leisure. If West chose to discard rather than use his diamond nine dummy would ruff and declarer, after returning to his own hand, would draw West's nine by leading the jack. Then he would concede a club trick to East's ace and claim the balance.

This sort of mistake is a type. Generally speaking, a declarer cannot afford to use a high trump as a ruffer when that trump is definitly required to draw an opponent's trump. In this case the declarer wasted the diamond ace for a duty that could have been just as well performed by the lowly six spot.

WEDDING

The approaching marriage of Miss Margaret Pease to Ples Harper of Tucson, Ariz., has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Pease of Tucson, formerly of Evanston. Miss Pease attended Northwestern university and the University of Arizona and received her master's degree from the University of Chicago. Mr. Harper attended Canyon college in Texas and the University of Washington and is now working for his doctor's degree at Stanford university.

Youngster Is Sure to Relish an Argument

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1939: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

Let's go on today talking about the behavior that is often typical of the years from 7 to 12.

With summer and the somewhat disintegrating effect of free vacation days, you'll probably find that your "in-between" child will show rather more than usual one of the traits of this period of childhood—a dislike of school on general principles.

Causes vary: Too great physical confinement [felt by children of some temperaments more than others] and too close concern with books and the printed page [a fault of most of our schooling].

Advice: Choose, if possible, a school that provides some physical freedom and also manual work; if this can't be done, provide in after school hours and week-ends lots of vigorous activity outdoors and opportunity for the crafts and arts, and even actual physical work.

Next on the list is: Troubles at school. The cause may be: Failing in school work due to poor teaching or being graded too high; disagreements with teacher over conduct or lessons with possible fault on either side; inability to get on with other children. So go to visit classes; talk with the teacher in friendly desire for help as to child's work or personality, or conduct; encourage association with children in the class out of school, and invite them to the house.

From 6 or so on up will appear "bad words" and "swear words" not heard at home. The reason is: Novelty, which is always intriguing to a child.

Advice: A general policy of ignoring and of never being shocked. Children soon outgrow this. If some words are too objectionable to ignore, explain you have a better word for the same thing—or that people who know how to talk use the correct name, or that that is not "our kind."

Fathers, perhaps more than mothers, are troubled by argumentativeness and the questioning of authority.

Cause: It may be the development of children's power to think for themselves instead of just accepting the opinions and word of grownups, as they did in babyhood; desire for independence and dislike of restraint.

Don't try to keep yourself on a pedestal, as you are more helpful to them and much nearer when you admit [tacitly] that you're not a superior being; avoid excess of authority and don't give commands as commands; use your power wisely; allow increasing freedom and try to avoid the argumentative and "disputatious" atmosphere by being willing to "sit down" and "talk things over." That is, be side by side mentally with your children instead of in opposing camps.

ess Potocka is looking forward to is a boar shoot. She will be able to pursue this thrilling sport at the country estate of Count Potocki's uncle and aunt, Count and Countess Tyszkiewicz. Their home, Wiala, is noted for having the best boar shooting in Poland.

Wiala once comprised 80,000 acres, but part of the property now lies in Russia and part in Lithuania.

Other Chicagoans abroad at the moment are Frank McNair and his daughter, Mrs. Glendon Gerlach. They arrived in London yesterday from the south of France.

Cyrus McCormicks Take House in Honolulu.

The Cyrus McCormicks, who live in Santa Fe, have taken a house in Honolulu for the spring. They will return to their New Mexico home in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Atherton Richards, who live in Honolulu, have gone to Bermuda for a spring holiday. They have been in New York since mid-February. They will visit Chicago next month as they go west to see the San Francisco fair before returning to their Hawaiian home.

A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Chesley of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Chesley, the former Nelle Offutt of Morgantown, W. Va., is well known in Chicago. She is a niece of the Nelson Thomassons.

Mrs. James M. Sheldon Jr. [Isabelle Hill] and her infant daughter, Sarah Hill, who was born on April 15 at the Evanston hospital, returned to their Winnetka home yesterday. The infant is a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sheldon of Glencoe and of Mrs. William H. Hill of the Homestead, Evanston, formerly of Memphis, Tenn. The infant's great-grandfather is John H. Stevens. The baby has an elder sister, Ann, who is 2.

"What shall I wear?" is a question that the women of the ticket selling committee of the North Shore Music festival are asked often. Many seem to think that because the new choral theater is in Dyche stadium that formal evening clothes will be out of order. This is not true, for the theater is indoors and will be heated, or cooled, depending upon the weather on May 16, 18, and 20. Consequently, the audience can wear anything it chooses.

Mrs. Addison Gardner, Mrs. Edward B. Woolf Jr., and Mrs. Royston Bigelow are in charge of a luncheon the Kemper Hall Alumnæ association is giving at 1 o'clock today at the Saddle and Cycle club.

From Hawaii come some of the most artistic dining table accessories we've seen in ages. They are made of native woods that have a lovely golden brown and beige color and they are carved into the graceful shapes of various tropical leaves. On these "leaves" you arrange little appetizers or canapes, or cheese and crackers, or individual salads, or cup cakes. The stem of the leaf serves as handle.

CONSULS OF 5 NATIONS TO GREET EUROPEAN BOXERS

MAYOR TO HAIL GOLDEN GLOVERS IN CITY HALL

End 4,000 Mile Trip Thursday.

When the international Golden Gloves boxers arrive in Chicago next Thursday morning, completing their 4,000 mile journey from Dublin, to compete in the eighth series of matches sponsored by the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., they will be accorded a reception in keeping with the custom long since established by Chicagoans as typical of good will and friendliness annually extended our visitors.

Dr. Franco Fontana.

The international team will arrive in Union station on the General of the Pennsylvania railroad at 8:50 o'clock Thursday morning, Chicago daylight saving time. That hour, perhaps, precludes a concerted effort by the five national groups represented to give the boys a welcome by thousands of Chicagoans. But it will not prevent each of the consulates of Sweden, Italy, Finland, Estonia, and Ireland from welcoming the boxers officially at the station before the boys are transported to the Medinah club, where they will complete their preparations for the bouts in the Chicago Stadium May 12.

Mayor to Greet Visitors.

Later in the day the boxers and the European officials will visit the city hall, where Mayor Kelly will greet them.

The boys on the international Golden Gloves squad and their countries are:

Olli Lehtinen, Finland; Patrick Dowdall, Ireland; Eric Agren, Sweden; Anton Raadik, Estonia; Guido Nardecchia, Egisto Peire, Luigi Musina, and Nemesio Lazzari, Italy.

Three of these fighters—Lehtinen, Nardecchia, and Musina—have visited Chicago before. Musina fought in the Stadium in 1937 and the others appeared last year.

Italians Have Chance to Cheer.

Since Italy has won four of the eight international positions for the Golden Gloves bouts this year, it is natural that Chicago Italians have taken the lead in arrangements for the team's arrival. Witih the approval of Dr. Franco Fontana, royal Italian consul in Chicago, a reception committee has been appointed. John Dolce, who served in this capacity last year, will be the chairman. The list of committee members follows:

Dr. Franco Fontana, honorary chairman; John Dolce, chairman; Philip D. Andrea, president of the Italo-American National Union; Vincent Ferrara, grand secretary of the Italo-American National Union; George Spatuzza, grand master of the Order of Sons of Italy; Dante Tadeucci, Daniel Covelli, Anthony De Julio, Sam Pecoraro, John Merlo, and Horatio Tocco.

The Italian boxing team fought in Chicago in 1935, losing 5 matches to 3. That was the last of the Chicago matches with individual European nations. Since 1937 the champions of Europe have been international opponents. Musina, two years ago, defeated Herman West, and Nardecchia won last year in the preliminaries from Jesse Salzer of Omaha. They need no further introduction.

Irish Consul Acts for Dowdall.

Daniel J. McGrath, Irish consul, has appointed Peter J. Peel as official representative to greet Patrick Dowdall at the station.

"We are pleased that again an Irish boy has proved his skill in the ring and has earned this trip to Chicago," Mr. McGrath said yesterday. "It will be our pleasure to assure

THE GUMPS—BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1939, by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.

In the Wake of the News

BY ARCH WARD.

WHEN Joe McCarthy was manager of the Cubs his greatest problem was to find a competent third baseman. . . . Gabby Hartnett is relieved of that worry. . . . In a comparatively short span the Cubs used the following men at that position: Riggs Stephenson, Elmer Yoter, Clyde Beck, Howard Freigau, Sparky Adams, Harry Wilkie, Norman McMillan, Lester Bell, Woody English, and Eddie Pick. . . . Doc Prothro, present manager of the Phillies, would have been added to the list, but he refused to report. . . . Now all they have to do is give Stanley Hack a glove and a bat. . . . He'll do the rest. . . . Honus Wagner's last official time at bat for the Pirates was as a pinch hitter in September of 1917. . . . The man for whom he batted was Billy Webb, then a utility infielder, who now is a White Sox coach. . . . Jack Dempsey will referee the wrestling bout between Jim Londos and Joe Savoldi in Louisville Derby eve. . . . Only four night games are scheduled in the National Professional Football league next season. . . . There were six last year. . . . Johnny Coulon and Battling Nelson are negotiating for appearances in boxing exhibitions at the New York and San Francisco fairs. . . . Jim Stucky of Syracuse, Ind., a tackle on the football team, has been named president of the student body at North Central college for next year. . . .

Manager Hartnett's recent refusal to let journalists into the Cubs' clubhouse before or after ball games was not without reason. . . . It has happened, especially in other sports, that authors have printed overheard conversations among athletes still sizzling from the heat of combat. . . . Internal dissension frequently has been traced to publication of personal remarks which probably never would be made an hour after the battle was over. . . . Jesse Owens, Ohio State's former track star, has discontinued his band and stage appearances. . . . He is a salesman for a distillery. . . . Gus Zarnas, guard on the Bears football club, is working out daily with the Buckeye baseball team. . . . He has signed with McKeesport in the Penn State league. . . . Western State Teachers' college's new baseball field, named for Judson A. Hyames, the school's athletic director, will be dedicated Tuesday in a game against Michigan.

So Blue.

I've a lovely spring hat
And a dashing new coat,
With a sparkling white ribbon
To tie at my throat;
I've a gay pair of gloves
And the newest in shoes,
But, sad to relate,
I've a bad case of blues.
Yes, I've dressed me so pretty
'Cause I know that inside
There's a sad, lonely heart
That I'm trying to hide.

Father's spading the garden out in the back yard,
He's sweating with unwonted toil,
But he's glowing with hopes of a glorious year
With that wonderful segment of soil.
It stretches from sidewalk unto the garage,
But no far-reaching landed estate
Ever stirred heart to beat with more bountiful pride
Than the garden within our back gate.
Dad has books, and of seeds an enormous supply,
Every tool that could lighten his labor,
The while he discusses the weather and crops

EUROPEAN RING STARS SPEED UP SHIPBOARD DRILL

They Think They Can Beat Chicago's Best.

BY STEWART OWEN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ABOARD S. S. NORMANDIE, April 27.—The Atlantic was as calm today as Lake Michigan on a balmy summer afternoon, but not the eight European lads who are on the way to Chicago on a boxing mission they say can't fail this time. Their first workout at sea was marked by the confident manner in which they ran the scale of boxing calisthenics. It becomes more and more apparent that Chicago's Golden Gloves champions are in for a busy night in the Stadium on May 12, when they will try to turn back this determined band representing the finest amateurs of all Europe.

There wasn't a murmur of dissent when Trainer Steve Klaus routed his charges out of bed at daybreak. Their first chore was to sprint two miles on the sun deck long before any of the passengers put in an appearance. Next they were introduced to deck tennis, Klaus explaining what an interesting game it was. They didn't suspect that this sport is part of the trainer's plan to get their legs and wind in shape and to keep them busy every minute of the day.

They'll Be Busy Every Day.

For the afternoon session, the boxers made their first visit to the ship's gymnasium, working more than an hour at punching the bag, skipping rope and indulging in a round or two of light sparring. This same program will be followed daily until the Normandie docks in New York next Monday. Two days of sightseeing in the big town is expected to take away some of their fine physical edge, but the warriors will have plenty of time to regain perfection after arriving in Chicago next Thursday.

Busiest of the eager youngsters today was Luigi Musina, light heavyweight standard bearer and one of the four Italians on the squad. He is a big, handsome broad shouldered 6 footer who gives you an impression of swaggering even in repose. Like many athletes of his race—Zeke Bonura, the baseball player and Tony Canzoneri, the old lightweight ring champion—Musina has color in large quantities.

You Know Luigi's Around.

You always are aware of the fact that Musina's around. He seems to be in the middle of things all the time. It is the same way with the boxing crowds—they are either for him in a great big way, or against him because of his swashbuckling actions. He keeps the fans yelling from the time he steps jauntily into the ring, giving the Fascist salute, until

Athletes of 80 Schools Attack Records in Drake Games Today

BY WILFRID SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Des Moines, Ia., April 27.—Forecast of excellent weather and an entry list that has exceeded expectations cheered Drake university officials tonight as they prepared for the annual relay carnival which in the last thirty years has become the outstanding event of its kind in the nation.

Although twelve records were broken last year and one was tied, the field of several hundred athletes from four score universities and colleges, it is predicted, will continue successful assaults on the records in the individual and relay events. The boys who will compete tomorrow and Saturday come from all sections of the country except the eastern seaboard and the southeast.

Hurdlers in Action Today.

From Ohio to California and from Minnesota to Texas, the best of the college and university track and field stars have registered for the Drake relays. Preliminaries in the high hurdle event, in which Fred Wolcott of Rice is expected to break his own record, will open the relays at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The championships which will be decided tomorrow are: Two mile run, university sprint medley relay, college sprint medley relay, university distance medley relay, and the college half mile relay, group one.

Borican to Race Fenske.

In addition to Wolcott the premier hurdler in the country, such stars as Greg Rice, of Notre Dame, and Walter Mehl and Milt Padway of Wisconsin, Beefus Bryan and Gilliam Graham of Texas, Myron Piker and Ed Thistlethwaite of Northwestern, Billy Brown of Louisiana, Bob Diefenthaler of Illinois will compete. John Borican of the Shore A. C., Elberon, N. J., and Chuck Fenske, formerly of Wisconsin, will headline the feature 1,000 yard race Saturday afternoon.

Mehl and Rice will resume their feud in the two mile. Rice won from the Badger athlete in the central collegiates last June, but lost by inches to him in the national collegiate race.

Notre Dame's two mile relay team will defend its Drake championship. The Irish also will compete in the sprint medley and four mile relays. Ed Beinor is entered in the shot put. Ed Burke, Marquette university's co-captain, will head a team of twenty athletes from Milwaukee, the largest team entered in the relays in years. Marquette runners will compete in the 440 yard, half mile, mile, and four mile relays.

INDIANA AT PENN RELAYS

Philadelphia, Pa., April 27.—[Special.]—Nine Indiana university track men arrived tonight to compete in the Penn relays starting tomorrow.

The Indiana squad, winner of the 4 mile relay event last season and runner-up in the 2 mile and distance medley relays, includes Mel Trutt, Fred Elliott, Jimmy Allen, Beverly Boyle, Roy Cochran, Bob Hoke, Ed Hedges, Archie Harris, and Wayne Tolliver.

3,000 to Compete.

Some 3,000 of the nation's leading track and field specialists—representing 500 colleges, prep, and high schools—were ready for the two day test. While skies were cloudy most of today there was no rain, and tomorrow's forecast was for generally fair weather.

Michigan will have defending champions in the individual events, including Ralph Schwarzkopf in the 3,000 meter run and Capt. Bill Watson in the broad jump. Watson also will seek titles in the shot put and discus.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cincinnati, O., April 27.—The Cubs tried this afternoon for the second time this season to make Larry French forget the nineteen defeats with which he was plastered last year and for the second time Larry got no cheer, for he suffered his and the Cubs' second whipping of the season. This time it was 11 to 3 at the hands of Paul Derringer and associate Cincinnati Reds.

Up till the eighth it wasn't as sorry a spectacle as the final score indicated. The Cubs actually were in a tie until the home half of that inning. Then the Reds knocked out poor Lawrence and absolutely tortured Vance Page, who relieved him.

Cub pitchers rarely wrangle over the privilege of opposing Derringer, but French took the assignment hopefully. He wanted any kind of a chance to make up for the 9 to 0 loss last week in St. Louis, when he suffered Lon Warneke to clear loaded bases with a double.

Just Like Old Times.

The Cubs, who gave Lawrence no runs against Warneke, were better right off today. They produced a run in the first inning. But this didn't seem to hearten Lawrence much. The eager but unfortunate lefty brought a surge of reminiscences by walking a runner and pitching a homer to Ival Goodman in the first inning. Larry was better from then on, until he blew up in the eighth after Harry Craft had driven in two decisive runs with a triple. That, by the way, was where Page staggered into the arena.

The Cub offense, for the fourth straight day, got along without any support from Powerhouse Boys Hank Leiber and Joe Marty, the No. 4 and No. 5 gents in the batting order. Hank did manage to scratch a single in the first inning, but Marty went through his fourth straight game without a hit. He showed improvement today, however, by getting two balls to the outfield, something he was not able to do in the three game Pittsburgh series.

Hack and Herman Star.

Stan Hack and Bill Herman, who have led the offense most every day this season, each batted .500 today and each scored a run. Hack had a double and a single and Herman two

STEINBACHER'S PINCH SINGLE DEFEATS TIGERS

Knott, Brown Halt Detroit Sluggers.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Consider the case of Hank Steinbacher—out of the White Sox lineup at 3 o'clock yesterday and a hero three hours later. Hank moved from the bench to a headliner with a pinch hitting single which drove in a run and vanquished Detroit's Tigers, 2 to 1, in a dazzling thirteen inning struggle the umpires already had decided could go no further. Hank saved the umpires the trouble and at the same time soothed the wounds still lingering from the fourteen round defeat hung on him and his pals by the Tigers a week ago.

The finish was satisfactory when it finally arrived, but it should have been reached earlier. The Sox, after tying the score in the seventh to balance a homer hit a moment earlier by Charley Gehringer, went through five successive innings, passing up scoring chances with reckless abandon. They could do nothing in the pinches with one Alton Benton, always a Tartar for them. But Benton was yanked for a pinch hitter in the final frame and this brought forth Japhet Jim Lynn. Mike Kreevich hit him for a single, went to second on an infield out, stole third in bold fashion, and raced home a moment later on the Steinbacher wallop.

Sox Pitching Is Good.

The Tigers were treated to two varieties of Sox pitching and neither appealed to them. Jack Knott yielded them a pair of singles in the first inning and that was the last hitting they accomplished until the seventh, when Gehringer's homer broke the scoreless struggle. In the course of tying the score, a matter handled by Kreevich and Marvin Owen, Knott was lost in the shuffle. Then that able rescuer, Clint Brown, took a hand and never was in straitened circumstances until the thirteenth, which Tebbetts blew open with a double, after which Rogell walked. Then there was a double play, and deadly Rudy York, batting for Benton, flied to Kreevich.

The decisive run carried home by Kreevich climaxed an afternoon which saw him in the center of the picture from start to finish. He singled in the second, singled again and scored in the seventh, produced another single leading off in the ninth, was turned back when Gehringer speared a liner in the eleventh, and lastly hit the single that started him on the round trip.

A Rally Is Stifled.

Gehringer's homer, which he walloped into the lower right field deck on the second pitch after one was gone in the seventh, wasn't the only happening of the inning. Greenberg went out on a fly ball, but Fox and Tebbetts singled before Rogell flied out.

Kreevich was willing to settle for a pass in the home seventh but couldn't get it, so picked off a single and thus launched the tying run. Benton's first three pitches to him were wide but the next two were called strikes. When the next pitch came drifting in Kreevich slapped it into center for a single. After Silvestri had contributed a sacrifice, Radcliff was sent forth to bat for Knott. He rolled to Greenberg. The first two pitches to Owen were strikes but this unfavorable circumstance didn't prevent him from picking on the next for a single over short, sending Kreevich home with the tying run.

singles. The other Cub run was made by Phil Cavarretta after a triple in the second inning.

Then the Home Run Ball.

The Cubs got a run in the first inning, which made them very happy until French loosed his famous home run ball in the Red half of the session. The game opened with Hack's double to left. Stan went to third on Herman's grounder to McCormick and scored on a passed ball.

Werber walked at the start of the Reds' first inning. Cavarretta made a swell play on Frey's grounder for the first out at first, after which Goodman socked the ball into the right field bleachers, scoring behind Werber.

In the second inning Cavarretta tripled past Goodman, held third while Derringer was tossing out Mancuso and scored on Bartell's sacrifice fly to Berger. French fanned.

The Reds Go Ahead.

The Reds resumed the lead in the fourth. After Craft had been called out on strikes. Berger rammed a double against the center field wall and scored on Myers' single to right.

The Cubs tied the score in the sixth and might have done better but for some unhappy base running by Hack and the continuance of the Leiber-Marty batting slump. Hack opened the inning with his second hit, a single to left. Herman lined a single to left, and for some reason Stan got the idea he could reach third. He was out by a dozen feet, Berger to Werber, but Herman got to second on the throw. He scored the tying run on Gleeson's single to center.

Goodman led off the home eighth with a single to right and advanced on McCormick's sacrifice bunt. Lombardi was given an intentional pass and then Craft tripled to the scoreboard in left center, scoring Goodman and Lombardi. French was yanked and Page, who had been warming up from the first inning, replaced him. Berger caromed a shot off Page's glove into Herman's hands and Craft was thrown out at the plate. Myers singled to right, putting Berger on third.

Derringer singled to center, scoring Berger and advancing Myers to third and when Leiber juggled the ball, Myers went on home. Werber and Frey knocked singles, loading the bases. Goodman, up for the second time in the inning, tripled to right, scoring Derringer, Werber and Frey.

At this juncture Manager Hartnett decided Page was not effective and replaced him with Jack Russell. McCormick doubled to left, scoring Goodman and Russell threw out Lombardi.

BRYANT MAY PITCH

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cincinnati, O., April 27.—Clay Bryant may pitch for the Cubs here tomorrow. Clay was due to work against Paul Derringer today but complained of a sore arm. Johnny Vander Meer is scheduled to pitch for the Reds.

Coach John Corriden visited home folks in Indiana this morning. John will be host to the Indiana university baseball team in Wrigley field Sunday. Jack Corriden, Jr., is right fielder and home run slugger for the Hoosiers.

It was ladies' day in Crosley field today. There were 9,652 guests and 6,889 paying customers.

Today was the seventh straight on which the Cubs have enjoyed perfect weather conditions. They fear something terrible in the way of storms is due to overtake them.

Crosley field, which was under water a week ago, was in great condition today. Ohio floodwaters receded before the sod was damaged.

Baylor Bear Becomes Chicago Bear

Billy Patterson, the famous quarter back of the Baylor university Bears, is still a Bear—but with Chicago's professional team. Regarded as one of the prize catches of the 1938 draft, Patterson (right) seems happy as he signs his contract. So does Owner-Coach George Halas (left). The poker faced gentleman in the center is Assistant Coach Luke Johnsos. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

PATTERSON JOINS BEARS; HE SIGNS 1 YR. CONTRACT

The Bears' quarter backing, which has been somewhat of a problem to Coach George Halas the last two seasons, was given a stimulant yesterday when Billy Patterson, the triple threat A scholar from Baylor, signed a one year contract.

After affixing his name to the agreement, Patterson, who previously had announced he was interested primarily in studying law, announced he would devote all his time to football during the fall and attend school in the spring and summer. Law and professional football, Patterson decided, after talking to Halas and Assistant Coach Luke Johnsos, are too much to bite off at once for a young man who is anxious to maintain a grade A average in each.

Halas intends to play Patterson at quarter back, where he will be entrusted with the team's passing and the signal calling. In the Bears' T formation, nearly all the passing is done by the quarter back.

Signing of Patterson completed the deal with the Pittsburgh Pirates by which the Bears acquired draft rights to the Baylor sensation for Sam Francis, former Nebraska full back.

White Sox Buy Pitcher; Sell an Outfielder

The White Sox acquired a pitcher and shed one outfielder from their roster yesterday. The incoming member is Edgar Smith, a 29 year old southpaw, purchased from Connie Mack's Athletics. He won three games while losing ten last season, but Manager James Dykes thinks he's a far better workman than indicated by the record. The release went to Outfielder Rupert Thompson, who was sold to the St. Louis Browns. Thompson was drafted by the Sox from San Diego in the fall of 1937.

The season's first ladies' day at Comiskey park will be observed this afternoon.

Ted Lyons, whose only previous pitching venture this season was his unsuccessful tussle with the Browns last Saturday, will test his luck against the Tigers in the final of the two game series today. Roxie Lawson will oppose him.

Billy Rogell was back at his old position—shortstop—for the Tigers yesterday, Mark Christman taking over third. Frank Croucher, the club's star rookie shortstop, was left in Detroit to rest an ailing back.

N. U. WILL MEET MARQUETTE AND WISCONSIN TEAMS

Northwestern university's baseball and tennis teams will open a busy week-end today. The baseball team will meet Wisconsin in the first of a two game series on Roycemore field. The tennis team will open its season today against Marquette, followed by Purdue tomorrow. Both matches will be played in Evanston.

Return Sealed Verdict in Giant Ticket Case

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—A sealed verdict in the trial of the New York Football Giants and Mrs. Helen Mara and Charles Chaplin, ticket sellers for the team, was ordered today by Federal Judge John C. Knox. The defendants were accused of a misdemeanor in failing to stamp the sale price on eight tickets to a football game last December.

A. A. U. WATER POLO TOURNEY OPENS TODAY

The first two matches in the National A. A. U. indoor water polo tournament will be held this afternoon at 2:30 in the Illinois Athletic club. Two matches also will be played this evening starting at 8 o'clock. Teams entered are the New York Athletic club, Rio Diablos of Pittsburgh, Kronka Recreational Center of Detroit, Downtown Y. M. C. A. of St. Louis, Illinois Athletic club, and Bielfuss Natatorium of Chicago.

The New York team, holder of the national championship since 1932, is expected to continue its victorious march. However, the I. A. C. team will furnish stiff competition.

Final matches will be played tomorrow night with a second game to decide third place. Francis O. McDermott, chairman of the National A. A. U. and American Olympic water polo committees, is supervising the meet. The tournament is open to the public.

ANOTHER GREAT CARSTAIRS WHISKEY

Harmony
Blended Whiskey
90 PROOF

LIGHT IN BODY, light in price! ! ! but extravagantly generous in flavor, Harmony is a smooth, delicious blend of selected whiskies by Carstairs.

Combining the best-liked features of several kinds of whiskey, Harmony pleases practically every taste. Priced for popularity, but rich in the same outstanding character as Carstairs' costlier blends. Just say—"Let's have Harmony!"

Dave is a "One-Highball Man!"

The Highball of Character "CARSTAIRS and SODA"

An impression of Dave Barrow by JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG.

Carstairs is 86.8 proof. It is a blend of several fine whiskies, every drop 4 or more years old. The straight whiskies in this product are four years or more old. 57½% straight whiskey and 42½% other whiskey four years or more old. Carstairs Bros. Distilling Co., Inc.

...but the whiskey in that highball has to be worth lingering over!

EVEN DAVE BARROW'S* pals, who josh him for nursing one highball all evening, admit that he's "got something". Dave claims that when the drinks come too fast, you don't even get acquainted with the charm of a fine whiskey.

Lately, Dave's switched his affections to Carstairs. He'll tell you it's smoother than any whiskey he's ever tasted. And light bodied! Carstairs is the same proof as many expensive Scotches—86.8.

And it isn't mere aging that does it either, although every drop in Carstairs is aged four years or more. It's the superb blending of several illustrious whiskies that imparts to Carstairs its light body and rich flavor.

INDIANS GET 7 HITS; BROWNS TRIUMPH, 4 TO 2

Heath Wallops Homer in Ninth with One On.

Cleveland, O., April 27.—(AP)—Johnny Marcum pitched and batted the St. Louis Browns to a 4 to 2 victory over the Cleveland Indians today.

Each club got only seven hits, but the Browns' were bunched off Willis Hudlin, Indian pitcher. Marcum opened a two run third inning with a single and drove a run home in the fourth. Jeff Heath saved Cleveland from a shutout by lining out a home run in the ninth with Earl Averill on base. Score:

SENATORS, 6; ATHLETICS, 3.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—Washington beat Philadelphia, 6 to 3 today behind the knuckle ball pitching of the veteran Dutch Leonard. Leonard held the Athletics to nine hits as Washington collected 13 off George Caster and Chubby Dean.

The Senators pounded Caster, who previously had held them to four hits, for three runs in the first two innings and continued the assault on Dean for the next two innings to build a 5 to 1 lead.

Meanwhile, Leonard was coasting, yielding only one run in the third inning on Pinch-hitter Dee Miles' single, Lou Finney's single and Joe Gantenbein's infield out scoring Miles. Leonard then pitched shutout ball until the eighth, when the Athletics gathered three hits and two runs. Score:

GALENTO LOOKS BAD, EVEN TO CALIFORNIANS

San Francisco, Cal., April 27.—(AP)—Tony Galento may rank as a heavyweight title contender in New Jersey, but San Francisco boxing fans think differently. Especially after his so-called exhibition last night.

Attired in ankle length, baggy trunks the roly poly Italian waddled through four rounds with his sparring partner, Phil Johnson. The sessions were of only two minutes duration, but Tony was puffing like an 1864 steam engine at the end.

The most damaging punch landed seemingly wouldn't have dented a cloud of smoke. Johnson just about wore out the seat of his pants hitting the canvas, but probably none of the 5,000 fans present would be willing to go on the witness stand and swear he saw a knockdown blow struck.

Cardinals Beat Pirates, 6 to 5, in 11 Innings

St. Louis, Mo., April 27.—(AP)—After Gus Suhr gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a lead with his eleventh inning homer, the St. Louis Cardinals came back today with two runs to hand Pie Traynor's men a 6 to 5 defeat for their seventh consecutive setback.

Don Padgett, Cardinal substitute first baseman, drove Terry Moore home to tie the count, and then scored when Pep Young, Pirate second baseman, erred on Rookie Catcher Herman Franks' grounder.

In nearly three hours of play, the Cardinals came from behind four times to tie the score before finally winning. Score:

How $am $nead Won $20,000

After a 24-Day Apprenticeship He Becomes Full Fledged Pro

[This is the third of a series of articles by Sam Snead, the 27 year old West Virginia golf professional, who collected $20,000 in tournament purses last year for an all time record. Although Snead has played big time golf for little more than two years, he has been runner-up in both the national open and professional tournaments and holds the Canadian open title.]

BY SAM SNEAD.

My work in the drug store was too confining, and since there appeared to be no immediate opportunity to get into electrical engineering, I decided to take Howard Bell's advice about having a whirl at golf. I knew the whole staff over at the Homestead course, including Toby Hansen, who was athletic director as well as tennis instructor, and Freddie Gleim Jr., who is now at Chicago's Shoreacres club. I made application for the job, and finally started to work in May, 1934.

It was with a great deal of misgiving that I approached my new tasks, for I knew that while I had a deep interest in golf my technical knowledge of it was confined to such fundamentals as how to bind and grip a club and mend broken ones, such as those with which I had started playing the game.

Sam's First Golf Lesson Pleases Woman Customer.

Two weeks and four days went by. Apparently I was destined to a long spell of trying to learn the ABC's of the game. On the twentieth day a middle aged woman whose name I never was to learn appeared at the shop. Gleim and Nelson Long, now the pro at the Homestead, were out on the course. The lady wanted a lesson, and I explained that neither of the pros was there. She insisted that I give her a lesson. I thought that this was presuming for a beginner, but under her urging I finally took her out to the practice tee.

For some reason or other she was pleased with the instruction I gave and said that I ought to have a club of my own. She even went so far as to say I should seek an interview with Fay Ingalls, president of the Virginia Hot Springs company. This seemed too much, and I did nothing about it until I was called into Hansen's office suddenly about four days later.

So He Takes the Pro Job at Cascades, Sans Salary.

I thought perhaps I had done something wrong, but Hansen asked me if I would like to go over to the Cascades course as professional. There was no money in the job, except what I might pick up in the way of lessons. I was stymied by the offer, but hurdled it by accepting. This seemed too much in the way of good luck. The

Cascades course was less than four miles away, and although there were a number of regular visitors the lesson business was not what you could call booming the first few months I was there.

The shortage of teaching work, however, did provide one break. It gave me the chance to practice. Practice is a grand and important feature of golf, but I believe it can become a handicap unless it's properly directed.

After two weeks at the Cascades course I found myself hitting the ball like I never did before. I set a course record of 68, breaking the 69 held by Freddie Gleim, and then added three 68s in consecutive rounds. The Cascades course still remains one of my favorites. It is long and narrow, and you cannot miss a shot and hope to escape.

Virginia Open His First Tourney; Finishes Fourth.

My first taste of competition as a professional came in the Virginia state open of 1934, held in Richmond. There was a little Scotchman down that way of whom I had heard tell. I could almost pat him on the head when I said, "Hello, Bobby Cruickshank." But how that little man could hit a golf ball in those days. In fact he can still hit one, if you remember the way he finished in the 1937 national open in Detroit. He won that Virginia open. I was fourth after playing generally well, although my short game was definitly in need of polishing.

Chmiel Hurls No Hit Game; Lane Wins, 3-0

Leo Chmiel, Lane Tech left hander, turned in a seven inning no hit game yesterday against Amundsen as Lane won its first city high school league contest, 3 to 0.

Chmiel, a junior, fanned fourteen. Until the seventh inning Amundsen failed to get the ball out of the infield.

In practice games Chmiel pitched hitless ball for three innings against Waukegan of the suburban circuit, and for four innings held Harrison to a blank, which, combined with yesterday's performance, gives him fourteen innings of no hit hurling.

Earl Gillespie, first baseman, hit a home run in the first inning.

MANHATTAN STAR TO PLAY IN 10TH MATCH FOR TITLE

Bill Gonsalves, star inside right of the Manhattan Brewers, will be participating in his tenth national soccer title final when he faces St. Mary's Celtics of Brooklyn, Sunday in Sparta stadium. In an opening game, Sparta will meet the Vikings.

Gonsalves, who is 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 180 pounds, is rated as one of the greatest players produced in this country. Having played with the nation's leading teams at all times, he is the only one in the country with five national title medals, winning them with the Shamrocks and Stix, Baer and Fuller teams of St. Louis, Fall River, New Bedford, and New York Nationals.

Gonsalves, who has scored at least one goal in every national cup final, will be pitted against two of the best defense men in the east in Ed Czerkiewicz, full back, and Capt. Jimmy Mc Guire, who played several seasons with the Glasgow Celtics of the Scottish league.

HEATHER BROOM WINS DERBY TEST AT KEENELAND

Beats 4 Other Eligibles in Closing Stake.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Lexington, Ky., April 27.—Trainer Earl Sande brought John Hay Whitney's Heather Broom from the east several days ago with the intention of testing the colt's Kentucky Derby prospects. Sande saw what he was looking for when Heather Broom outfinished Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree stable star, Third Degree, in the $5,000 Blue Grass stakes, feature event on this afternoon's final program of the Keeneland meeting.

The margin of victory was a length, with E. F. Woodward's Viscounty three lengths farther back. Third Degree's stable mate, Hash, ran fourth and C. H. Cleary's Calexico was last of the field of five Derby candidates.

Timed in 1:49 2-5.

The time for the mile and a furlong over a slow track was 1:49 2-5.

The Greentree colts had acquired so much prestige while dominating the events for 3 year olds earlier in the meeting that they went to the post as the odds on favorites at 3 to 5. Heather Broom at 5 to 2, paid off in the mutuels at $7.20 to win and $2.40 to place, no show tickets being sold.

Silvio Coucci took Calexico into the lead on the first turn, with Hash in close attendance. On the run down the back stretch the same two continued to set the pace, with Third Degree close up and Viscounty lapped on him. Heather Broom was striding along in last place under restraint.

Third Degree Takes Lead.

Nearing the far turn Third Degree began moving toward the front and on the lower bend he took the lead, Viscounty moving with him. There was a general closing up as they swung into the stretch, with Third Degree still a length in the lead. Meanwhile Basil James had started to move with Heather Broom. At the eighth pole he had cut Third Degree's margin to half a length.

Eddie Arcaro put Third Degree to a hard drive, but Heather Broom came on relentlessly. At the sixteenth pole they were head and head. Then Heather Broom began drawing away and had opened up a lead of a full length as he passed the winning post.

This was Heather Broom's second start of the season. He won his first outing at Jamaica on April 17, running a mile and seventy yards in 1:44 2-5. Last year he won two races out of eleven starts, was second twice and third three times. He was bred at John Hay Whitney's farm near Lexington, being by The Porter out of Janet Blair.

Wise Barrister Wins.

Wise Barrister, owned by Eddie O'Toole fo Chicago, was the winner of the Shandon handicap, secondary feature at a mile and a sixteenth. After the Bomar stable's Detroit Bull had set the pace for three-quarters, Wise Barrister caught him at the eighth pole and then withstood Diavolo Boy's closing rush to win by a head. The tiring Detroit Bull was third. The winner paid $14.80 in the $2 mutuels.

Consuls of Five Nations Will Greet Team

him continued praise accorded in Dublin after he won the European boxing championship."

Ernest Knuti, vice consul for Finland, was enthusiastic yesterday in his plans to receive Olli Lehtinen, who will represent Europe in the flyweight class in the international bouts. He expressed the sentiments of Elmer A. Forsberg, Finish consul, in a brief interview, and immediately appointed William Kohtala, chancellor of the consulate, Arne Hyppa and Frank E. Nelson to extend greetings to Lehtinen.

The Finns are particularly interested in sports since the 1940 Olympic games are scheduled to be held in Helsingfors. Nelson is a member of the Olympic committee in Chicago to arrange transportation for the United States Olympic teams to Finland.

C. C. Coldren, Estonian consul, will appoint a committee early next week to greet Anton Raadik, Estonian middleweight, who will fight for Europe. The Swedish consul, G. Oldenburg, staff members of the Swedish-American Tribune, and officers of the Swedish-American Athletic association are coöperating in arranging to meet Eric Agren of Stockholm, Swedish welterweight.

INDIANA TO PLAY CHICAGO TODAY ON MIDWAY FIELD

The Big Ten baseball season on the Midway will open today with the first of two games between the University of Chicago nine and Indiana, undefeated this season and conference co-champion last year.

Coach Kyle Anderson of the Maroon team will probably use Pitcher Art Lopatka in the first game. Lopatka may face Dale Gentil, who has been pitching excellent ball for the Hoosiers.

Rightmire and Brown Clash in Ten Rounds

Everett Rightmire, Sioux City, Ia., featherweight, now fighting out of Minneapolis, returns to White City, 63d street and South Park avenue, tonight for a ten round bout against Johnny Brown, former Chicago Golden Gloves bantamweight champion. It will be Rightmire's first White City appearance since Nov. 12, 1934, when he whipped Dave Barry in eight rounds. Rightmire also won five earlier fights there, his victims including Freddy Penn, Sammy Musco, Jackie Sharkey and Johnny Siegal.

Rightmire has scored six straight victories since he opened a comeback campaign last December in Minneapolis. He defeated Joey Silva on that occasion. In subsequent engagements Rightmire conquered Leo Rodak, Ray Baker, Pete De Grasse, Earl Gibbs, and young Armando Santiago. He will be risking his high rating as a 126 pound contender against Brown.

Brown, who has had his ups and downs during a three and a half year professional career, beat Eddie Dempsey, also a former Golden Gloves title holder, in his last start held in White City, March 17.

Joey Russano, northwest side featherweight, will be after his twenty-seventh straight triumph in a four round contest against Patrick O'Brien. In other matches at this distance Louis De Pirro is paired with Ralph Guagardo, Joe Law with Sam Scully. Tony Motisi, welterweight stablemate of Brown, meets Willie Ross in a five round secondary feature.

Dick Kist, 1938 Danville, Ill., sectional Golden Gloves welterweight winner, has returned from Danville to resume workouts this afternoon in Trafton's gymnasium for a ten round encounter with Milo Theodorescu of Rumania in the Coliseum next Wednesday.

Kist knocked out Danny Shaw in the fifth round of a scheduled eight round bout in Danville Wednesday. It was Dick's nineteenth triumph in twenty-one professional appearances. The other two ended in draw decisions. However, Theodorescu will be his biggest test. The foreign fighter will arrive from New York on Monday.

Milt Aron will clash with Sammy Angott, aggressive Louisville battler, in a ten round co-feature. Angott has delayed his arrival until today. Irish Eddie Brink will reach the loop tomorrow for a third ten rounder against Billy Marquart.

Efforts are being made to induce Mike Jacobs, New York promoter, into offering a heavyweight championship fight in conjunction with the American Legion convention in Chicago next September. If Joe Louis successfully defends the title against Tony Galento June 28 he will put the championship on the block against Lou Nova or Max Baer three months later, Jacobs said. Nova and Baer meet in an elimination June 1.

Harold Rodie of the 124th Field Artillery armory and Ross Griswold, south side welterweight, will meet in a five round amateur bout tonight in the Madison Athletic club. Other bouts are between Sammy Consolo and Robert Earl, Fred St. Germaine and Louis Johnson, and Tommy Mair and Terry Flannigan. . . . Johnny Shaw, south side middleweight, yesterday was substituted for Eddie Meleski in an eight round match against Tony Zale of Gary in Marigold Gardens Monday. . . . The Loyal Order of Moose of Chicago Heights will sponsor an amateur boxing show in Bloom Township High school tonight. Matchmaker Johnny Coulon will present Vernel Williams, Golden Gloves finalist, with George Dano, and Ray Cannek, Chicago Heights, with Alex Paul, Riverdale. F. M.

CHICAGO DEFEATS MICHIGAN, 9 TO 0, IN TENNIS MATCH

Opening the defense of its Big Ten title, the University of Chicago tennis team beat Michigan, 9 to 0, on the Midway yesterday. Singles matches were played on the varsity courts, but rain forced the doubles competition into the Maroon fieldhouse. Summaries:

SINGLES—C. Murphy, Chicago, defeated Tobin, Michigan, 6-2, 6-4; W. Murphy, Chicago, defeated Percival, Michigan, 6-1, 6-0. Shostrom, Chicago, defeated Kidwell, Michigan, 6-3, 5-7, 6-1; Krietenstein, Chicago, defeated Durst, Michigan, 6-1, 6-3; Jergenson, Chicago, defeated Morris, Michigan, 6-1, 6-3; Atkins, Chicago, defeated Porter, Michigan, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1.

DOUBLES—Murphy and Murphy, Chicago, defeated Tobin and Kidwell, Michigan, 6-2, 6-2; Jorgensen and Shostrom, Chicago, defeated Morris and Durst, Michigan, 6-2, 6-2; Krietenstein and Atkins, Chicago, defeated Percival and Woolsey, Michigan, 6-1, 6-1.

he waits for his hand to be raised. It never enters Luigi's mind that it won't be his hand and he has reason for such confidence, developed from eight years of amateur warfare.

Now 25 years old, he took up boxing at the age of 17 after watching a bout in his native town of Gorezia. He liked the sport so much he decided to become a boxer, never doubting that he would be successful. At the time he was only a flyweight. He won his first bout by a knockout and was undefeated during the first three years of his career, during which time he grew so fast he had to cast aside his old weight division along with his old clothes.

Titles Are a Habit.

Within five months after Luigi appeared on the boxing scene he was the flyweight champion of the province of Benezia. It was the first of a number of titles. The poundage was beginning to pile on and he moved up to the bantamweight division, which held him for only five months. So he started mingling with the featherweights with the same success as in the two lower classes.

By 1935 Musina had aimed at the features of antagonists in every division except the heavyweight, winning titles at each of the seven weights. This was the year he captured his first national Italian championship. He was named an alternate on the Olympic team in 1936, but did not compete in Berlin.

Returning to his home land, Musina again took up his title trail. He retained his national light heavyweight crown in 1937. For the last two years the young man has not competed in the Italian national tournament and for a commendable reason. Because of his acknowledged invincibility, there were few 175 pounders willing to risk entering the ring with him. As a result Musina in actuality became the light heavyweight division title holder.

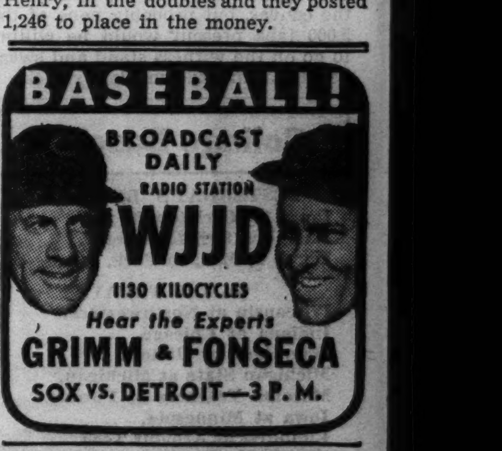
He Just Steps Down.

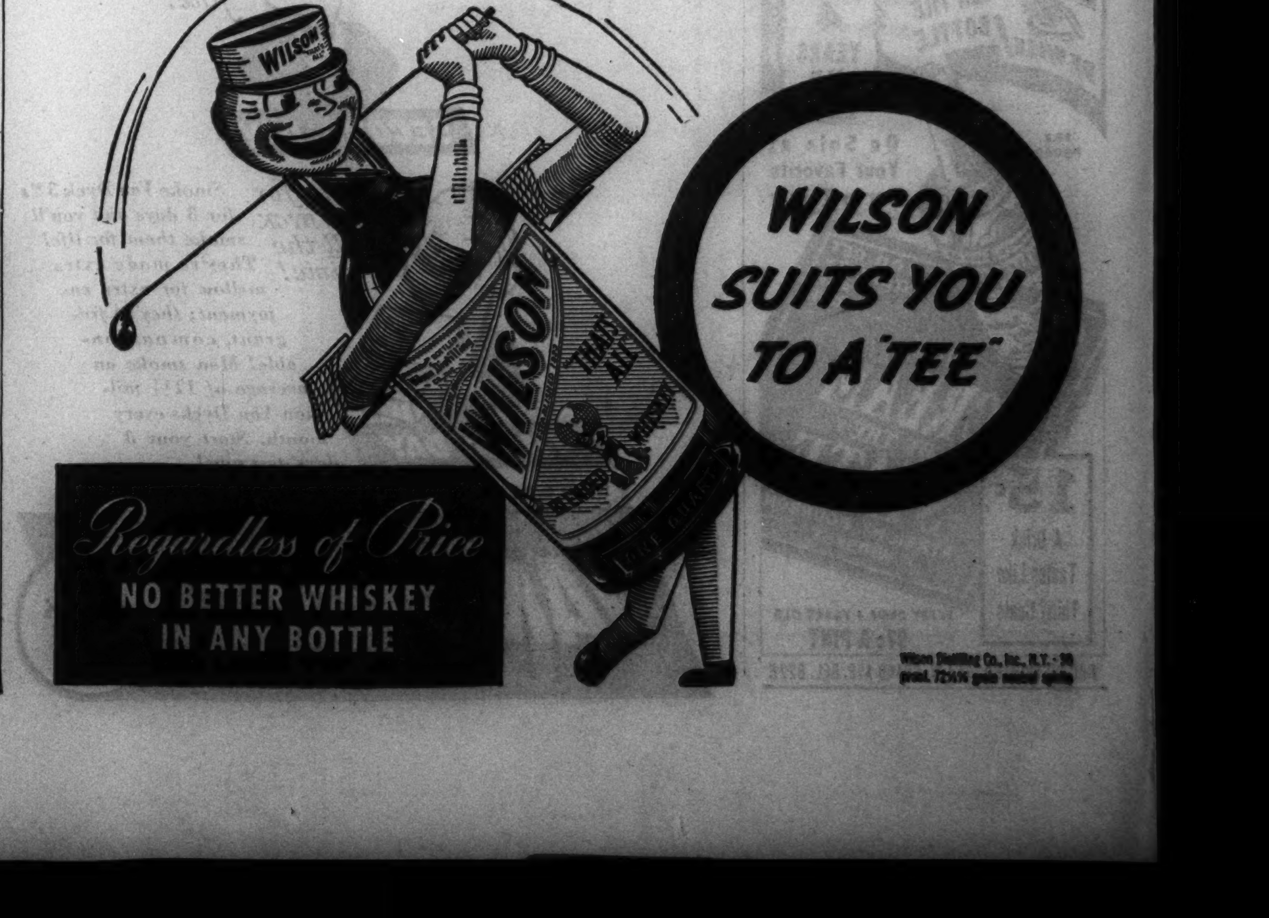
All his prospective opponents having gone into hiding, there was only one thing to do—withdraw from the tournament—and let the other light heavyweights come back into the open and compete for the vacated title. During his spectacular career the Italian has engaged in 250 fights, and suffered only ten defeats. That's a pretty good batting average in any league—.960.

By trade Musina is a baker, but by preference he is a soldier. This latter attraction is occasioned in part by the opportunity to parade in Fascist finery for the edification of Milan's pretty girls. Musina tells you with a sly wink that he does not appreciate the business of being a baker because of the difficulty of maintaining a cavalier appearance with his hands full of dough. He spent eighteen months drilling with Mussolini's army forces. Musina lives in Milan, but his parents and three sisters and brothers still reside in Gorezia.

THIRD PLACE IN ALL-EVENTS AT A. B. C. CHANGES

Cleveland, O., April 27.—(AP)—Norman La Croix, bank clerk from Mount Clemens, Mich., shot into third place in the all-events of the American Bowling congress tournament tonight with 1,977. Joe Wilman of Chicago tops the event with 2,028. La Croix hit 663 in the doubles, 687 in the singles, and 627 in the team event. He rolled with his father, Henry, in the doubles and they posted 1,246 to place in the money.

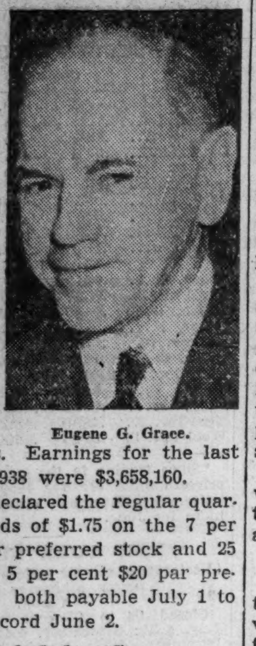




LARGE INCOME GAIN REPORTED BY BETHLEHEM

Company's Unfilled Orders at Peak.

The Bethlehem Steel corporation, second largest steel producer in the country, yesterday reported net income of $2,409,059 for the first quarter of 1939, against $994,908 in the initial quarter last year.



Eugene G. Grace.

First quarter earnings were equal to 17 cents a common share after dividend requirements on the preferred stocks. Earnings for the last quarter of 1938 were $3,658,160.

Directors declared the regular quarterly dividends of $1.75 on the 7 per cent $100 par preferred stock and 25 cents on the 5 per cent $20 par preferred stock both payable July 1 to holders of record June 2.

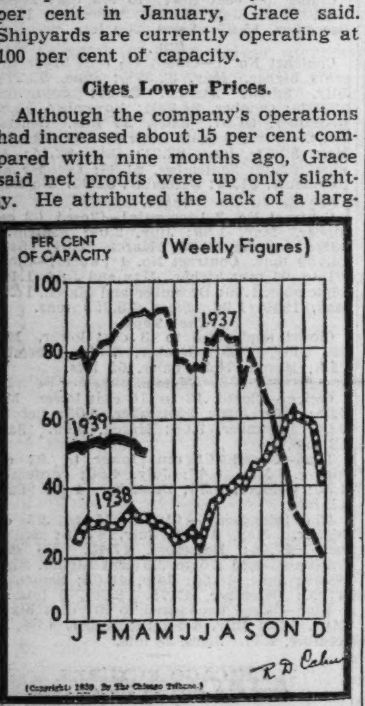
Unfilled Orders Soar.

Unfilled orders on March 31 were the largest in the history of the corporation in peace time, Eugene G. Grace, president, announced. They amounted to $192,040,906, against $162,774,713 on Dec. 31, 1938, and $99,934,192 on March 31, 1938. Shipbuilding accounted for two-thirds of the first quarter increased in unfilled orders, Grace said.

The company's current operating rate of 59 per cent of capacity compares with 56.6 per cent in March, 53.7 per cent in February, and 51.2 per cent in January, Grace said. Shipyards are currently operating at 100 per cent of capacity.

Cites Lower Prices.

Although the company's operations had increased about 15 per cent compared with nine months ago, Grace said net profits were up only slightly. He attributed the lack of a larger increase in earnings almost entirely to lower selling prices. Costs, he said, had been almost constant during the period.



Ratio of operations to capacity of nation's steel mills.

"It is evident that there is a slowing down in demand in the steel industry," Grace said. He added that he did not see any signs of an important pickup, but was instead looking for a little shrinkage. No "really sharp decline" in business for the second quarter is anticipated, however, he said.

Bethlehem Steel's capital expenditures this year will amount to between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000, but no big program is contemplated, Grace said.

Europe Buying Steel.

Grace asserted that American steel manufacturers are benefiting from the first definite European steel buying program which has developed since the current European crisis began.

Commenting on reports that England had ordered 100,000 tons of hot rolled steel in this country, he said: "I know of a definite inquiry for 100,000 tons, but as yet the contract has not been let. We feel we shall get our share of this business when it develops."

Standard Oil Income Cut as Gasoline Falls

A "staggering" number of gasoline price cuts in the first quarter of 1939 compared with the same period last year reduced net income of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana [parent company alone] for the period, Edward G. Seubert, president, said yesterday.

Seubert referred to the dealers' tank wagon price of gasoline, which, he said, was down an average of 1 cent in the company's territory. The dealers' tank wagon quotation is the price of gasoline sold to retail distributors. He said the company had no influence over, or statistics on, price cuts made by retail distributors to their customers.

Estimates Lower Earnings.

Estimates place earnings of the parent company alone in the first two months below last year, Seubert said. No estimates have been made for March, he said, but indications are that net income for the initial quarter will be somewhat below the same period last year. The company continued to operate in the "black," however.

Seubert said "the price reduction situation is about as bad as I've ever seen it. There is a great scramble for gallonage by major companies all over the country, and this desire to increase volume has knocked down the entire price structure. No improvement in the situation is in sight."

Seubert mentioned that in the east, where the company has subsidiaries, the price situation is not as unfavorable as in the middle west.

Volume of Sales Higher.

Smaller income for the first quarter will come in spite of increased volume, Seubert said. Total volume for Standard of Indiana alone will show an average increase of about 12 per cent for the quarter, he said, while gasoline gallonage will be up about 2 per cent.

A European war might produce a temporary business expansion, Seubert contended, but would result in a decline finally at the war's termination. He said that any such business expansion would be "unwholesome." Standard of Indiana has no foreign connections, he added.

At a meeting of the directors Charles J. Barkdull resigned as treasurer and chief accounting officer in order to give his entire time to his activities as executive vice president. His former duties as treasurer were divided between Ralph E. Clarke, who was elected treasurer, and C. T. Bergeson, who was elected to the new office of controler. All other officers and directors were reëlected.

DUTCH, BELGIAN CURRENCIES RISE IN DOLLAR VALUE

Netherlands currency rose against the dollar yesterday in foreign exchange trading at New York. Demand for the Dutch unit came principally from European money centers. The guilder closed 0.26 cents higher at 53.50 cents. Belgian currency advanced 0.04 cent at 16.93 cents. Sterling finished 1-16 cent off at $4.68⅛. The Swiss franc moved narrowly higher and the French franc was unchanged.

The New York Federal Reserve bank announced engagement of $3,000,000 of gold in England and $100,000 in India for shipment to this country. The bank's gold statement for the week ended April 26 showed imports of $58,069,000. Of this amount $48,368,000 was imported from England, $3,930,000 from Holland, $2,555,000 from India, $2,394,000 from Canada, and $822,000 from Switzerland. None was exported.

ANNOUNCE NEW ERIE, CANADIAN NATIONAL TRAINS

Two new trains to operate between Chicago and New York were announced yesterday.

C. C. Howard, passenger trafic manager of the Erie railroad, said a new train of that line, the Lakes Cities Express, will begin service June 3. It will also serve Cleveland and Buffalo. It will leave Chicago at 9 a. m. central time and arrive in Jersey City at 7:45 a. m. eastern time the following day.

A. B. Chown, passenger trafic manager of the Canadian National railways, said that road will operate a new train beginning April 30. It will leave Chicago at 11 a. m. daylight saving time and make the run to New York via Niagara Falls.

CHRYSLER SETS FIRST QUARTER PROFIT RECORD

Dividend Is Boosted to $1.50 a Share.

Earnings of the Chrysler corporation in the first quarter soared to the highest level in history for that period, the company reported yesterday. Net income amounted to $11,638,290, or $2.67 a common share, against $2,109,969, or 48 cents a common share, in the initial 1938 quarter.

The highest previous first quarter earnings were in 1936, when they amounted to $11,453,439. Only on one other occasion, in 1937, have initial quarter earnings gone above $10,000,000. That year they totaled $10,914,302.

Declare Larger Dividend.

Directors of the company yesterday declared a dividend of $1.50 a common share, payable June 12 to stockholders of record May 15. Previous payments were $1 in March, $1.25 in December, 25 cents in September, 1938, and 50 cents in June, 1938. For all of last year payments totaled $2 a share.

Current assets of the company at March 31 amounted to $146,631,133, including $91,562,532 in cash. Current liabilities were $48,368,994.

Other earnings reports made public during the day continued to show substantial first quarter gains over 1938. The Hershey Chocolate company reported net income of $1,795,515, highest for the initial three months since 1931, against $1,390,187 last year.

Steel Companies Earn More.

Two steel companies also reported a better first quarter. National Steel's net income amounted to $2,426,669, or $1.10 a share, against $1,088,636, or 50 cents a share, last year. American Rolling Mill turned a $197,310 loss last year into a $793,479 profit this year. This was equal to 10 cents a common share.

Spiegel, Inc., reported net income of $325,763, or 16 cents a common share, against a net loss of $331,223 last year. For the twelve months ended March 31 the company reported net profit of $2,270,648, or $1.42 a common share, against $1,694,597, or 97 cents a common share, in the twelve months ended March 31, 1938.

BUILDING WEEK PROCLAIMED BY COUNTY BOARD

Commissioners of Cook county yesterday declared the period of May 8 to 13 as Building industry week in Cook county. Mayor Kelly previously had proclaimed the week in Chicago, stressing the advantages of building and modernizing at present.

Paul D. Angell, general chairman of the committee in charge, and secretary of the Chicago Building congress, original sponsors of the week, said a comprehensive educational program has been arranged.

Aid Chicago Industries, Is 'Clinic's' Plea

Chicago should give greater support to its industries and railroads, speakers asserted yesterday at a business "clinic" held by the Chicago Association of Commerce. Thomas B. Hogan, president of the Yellow Cab company, presided at the session, held in the Palmer House and attended by about thirty business executives.

Thomas B. Hogan presides.

"Unless Chicago wakes up to the need for more coöperative interest in the railroads the city will lose many of its industries," John W. Bingham of the Corn Products Refining company warned. "We seem to forget that the railroads were one of the basic contributors to Chicago's growth. Today they are in trouble, and we offer them no help."

Rails Need Facilities.

Bingham said that one need is for assuring new railroad loading platforms, sidetracks, and other improvements. Lack of these facilities, he said, is forcing industry to leave Chicago as it has left other metropolitan centers to decentralize in smaller communities.

"Industry will only come back to our city when its railroad facilities are put back in a condition fitting current needs," he said.

F. H. Fowler, president of the Foote Brothers Gear and Machine corporation, asserted that something must be done to counteract the flattering offers being made by other cities to attract Chicago industries.

"General business here does not care about Chicago factories or their problems," he said. "It forgets that factory pay rolls pay for other branches of commercial and professional life. That explains our many empty industrial buildings."

Liberalized Loans Asked.

Other speakers said that Chicago banks should liberalize their loaning practices to give more aid to the city's industries.

Chicago women will hold a "clinic" at noon tomorrow in the Palmer House—the first to be held in which women have participated. Among the groups which will have representation are the Business and Professional Women's club, the Chicago Civic club, the Alliance of Business and Professional Women of Chicago, and the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

FEDERAL MEDIATORS INDICATE A BREAK IN COAL MINE DEADLOCK

New York, April 27.—(AP)—In the midst of reports of disorder resulting in one death at a closed Ohio mine, federal mediators indicated for the first time tonight a possible break in the deadlocked negotiations between bituminous operators and coal miners in the eight state Appalachian area.

"Slightly hopeful" was the comment of Dr. John R. Steelman, chief labor mediator, after conferences, jointly and separately, with the four negotiators for the United Mine Workers [C. I. O.] and the four operator representatives.

There was indication that the two groups were not far apart.

CAMPBELL GROUP SEIZES CONTROL OF REO MOTOR

Lansing, Mich., April 27.—[Special.]—A group of stockholders led by Thomas Campbell, New York attorney, amended the by-laws of the Reo Motor Car company today to provide for the addition of a ninth member of the board of directors, then seized control of the company by electing five of the nine. The election is subject to confirmation by the federal District court in Detroit.

Over the protests of E. E. Smith, Lansing attorney and a director, the Campbell faction forced through the election of F. G. Alborn of Cleveland, former chief engineer for the White Motor Car company.

Others named by the Campbell faction were Col. E. J. Hall, Palo Alto, Cal., chairman; William B. Mayo, Detroit; E. J. Connolly, Grand Rapids; and J. W. Robb, New York.

Jobless Draw Half Billion Under Social Security Law

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.] — Unemployed workers have been paid half a billion dollars in unemployment compensation benefits since this program went into effect, the social security board reported today. It stated that in March alone payments in forty-nine states and territories amounted to nearly $49,000,000. More than 1,000,000 workers drew benefits in March, but the number dropped to about 750,000 in the middle of April, the board said.

Aviation Group Gives a Lift to Stock Market

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 27.—Stocks continued into higher ground today, although trading was quiet as many operators remained on the sidelines awaiting Hitler's speech tomorrow.

With Wall street anxious to hear the German statement of policy, domestic business news, according to observers, received only perfunctory attention. However, some preliminary interest attached to the Bethlehem Steel and Chrysler reports, which came after the close of trading.

Gains ranged from fractions to about 2 points. Best prices were posted in the morning. At the close reduced interest and evening up transactions forced recessions from the top levels.

Aviation Issues Advance.

Reflecting government orders for 571 war planes, aviation issues featured the session. Douglas was a standout with a jump of 2⅜ points. Curtiss-Wright "A," United Aircraft, Glenn Martin, Consolidated Aircraft, and Sperry corporation each advanced more than a point. Boeing, North American Aviation, Bendix, and Curtiss-Wright gained substantial fractions.

Representative industrial shares held to a narrow course. Leading steels edged fractionally higher. Chrysler, up 1, and General Motors, up ⅞, were active in the motors.

Fractionally higher prices ruled in the rubber and oil sections. United States Rubber, Goodyear, and Texas corporation were among the leaders in their respective groups.

Copper Shares Firm.

Copper shares maintained a firm trend. Most merchandising shares worked fractionally higher. Sears-Roebuck spurted 1⅜ points on the good sales report.

Carriers contributed small gains in restricted trading. The rise in freight loadings last week was said to have had little influence. New York Central, Southern railway, Pennsylvania, Chesapeake and Ohio, and Southern Pacific were prominent in the group.

Power and light shares also worked slightly higher. Consolidated Edison paced the section. Eastman Kodak advanced further, closing at 145⅝ for a gain of 1⅝ points. Loft slipped fractionally in active supply.

Chemicals showed gains running to 2 points in Allied Chemical.

Germany Principal Buyer of Brazilian Cotton in 1938

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—Brazilian cotton exports increased 14 percent in 1938 to 1,239,000 bales, compared with 1,089,000 in 1937, the department of Commerce reported today. Germany was the principal buyer with shipments made on the basis of a barter agreement. Germany purchased 377,000 bales in 1938, against 391,000 in 1937.

AIR LINES ADD FLIGHTS, SPEED TIME SCHEDULES

Plan Better Service for Chicago.

Faster schedules and additional flights were announced yesterday by major air lines serving Chicago. Although the changes will take effect Monday, May 1, the day after daylight saving time is adopted, this does not mean that regular schedules are being changed to the new time, officials pointed out.

R. F. Ahrens announces new service

The air lines, like the railroads, will continue to operate on standard time. For example, an air traveler who this week takes a 12 o'clock plane will use the same plane next week at 1 o'clock, daylight saving time.

New and Faster Service.

R. F. Ahrens, regional trafic manager of United Air Lines, announced that United is adding a new and faster through sleeper service between Chicago and the west coast, serving Portland and Seattle.

The departure time for the new sleeper from Chicago will be 9:55 p. m. It will reach San Francisco at 8:41 a. m., cutting more than one hour from the Chicago-San Francisco flying time. The sleeper plane will continue to Portland, arriving there at 9:55 a. m., and reaching Seattle at 11:05 a. m.

The additional flight, Ahrens said, will give United six daily flights westbound from Chicago. Flying time between Chicago and Los Angeles will be cut thirty minutes under the new schedules and a few minutes will be saved on the Denver flight.

Three Reduce Time.

The three transcontinental air lines, United, American, and TWA, are all cutting flying time between Chicago and New York. On the eastbound trip, the reduction will be four minutes to three hours and fifty-five minutes. Westbound, a twenty minute saving will be scheduled, making flying time of four hours thirty-five minutes.

TWA's expansion program begin-

What You Ask . . . and Risk

When You Name a Friend Your Executor

If you name a friend or business associate executor of your will, you place a staggering burden on his shoulders.

You can rely, of course, on his honesty and good intentions. Probably you respect his sound financial judgment. But the most astute businessmen often find themselves bewildered by the number and variety of an executor's duties.

Your executor must make every move in strict accordance with a complicated body of law. He must be thoroughly familiar with state and federal taxes. He must keep the proper records, make collections and disbursements, review and handle your securities, manage your real estate or your business or both.

Even if you have a friend whom you believe capable of performing all these duties, is it fair to ask it of him? Can he spare the time from his own affairs? Remember that if your heirs are to be fully protected, your executor must be available at all times—and yet you have no way of knowing how long he will survive you.

If you name a trust company as your executor, your estate will be handled by a group of specialists in the management and care of all kinds of property. In such an organization you will find the impartiality, skill, permanency and financial responsibility that make an executor competent.

It will be a pleasure to discuss with you and your attorney the advantages available under our executor and trustee services.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, April 27.—(AP)—Gains of fractions to around a point were well distributed through the list at the close of today's bond market. Dealings reached a new low for the current lag, totaling $4,012,625 face value, the smallest since Sept. 6. United States government loans continued in good form despite minor reactions in a few treasuries. The group closed 8-32ds higher to 4-32ds lower.

Corporate issues closing higher included American and Foreign Power 5s, Anaconda Copper 4½s, Chesapeake and Ohio 3½s, Delaware and Hudson refunding 4s, Goodrich 6s, and New York Central 5s.

Some Italian loans dipped to new low levels for the week's decline, but other sections of the foreign list had better support.

Chicago Stocks.

Chicago stocks moved higher yesterday in quiet trading. Most leading issues showed gains of from ⅛ to 1¼ points. THE TRIBUNE average closed 9.74 against 9.65 on Wednesday.

Commonwealth Edison, volume leader, closed ⅛ higher at 26⅞. Borg-Warner gained 1¼ to 22½. Issues showing fractional advances included Mickleberry Food Products, Middle West, Aviation corporation, and Armour common.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stocks closed irregular yesterday in listless trading, dealers reported. Continental Illinois stock gained 50 cents and Harris Trust shares declined $3.

Commodities

Commodity futures prices closed mixed yesterday in much quieter trading than on Wednesday. The world sugar contract continued to move ahead under leadership of advances in London, but copper futures declined.

The price of domestic copper quoted by producers held firm at 10½ cents a pound, and smelters quoted 10¼ cents. Smelters are the buyers and producers are the sellers of copper. In the export market sales were reported as high as 10.34 cents a pound, against 10.08 cents on Wednesday.

Foreign buyers were bidding for copper yesterday. Cartel sales in the London market mounted to the highest level in months.

Copper futures slumped 0.12 to 0.16 cent a pound. Zinc was moderately improved. Straits tin jumped 0.15 to 0.25 cent a pound.

The international tin committee, meeting at The Hague, Netherlands, yesterday decided to leave unchanged for the second quarter of 1939 the export quotas of members adhering to the tin shipment restriction agreement.

AUTO INSURANCE GROUP ASKS RATE CUTS IN ILLINOIS

Reductions Submitted to State Department.

Proposed rate reductions of 20 and 25 per cent in automobile liability and property damage insurance by member companies of the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters are now being considered by the state department of insurance at Springfield. This was announced yesterday by H. A. Miller, special deputy insurance director.

M. P. Cornelius to grant large reductions.

Under the Illinois insurance code the department has fifteen days in which to act on the rate proposals, or until May 9. If the department takes no action the rate reductions will become effective. The bureau announced that the reductions, if authorized, would be made effective as of April 24.

There are about thirty-seven members of the bureau, which has headquarters in New York. Most of them are the larger eastern companies.

Western Firms to Comply.

That western companies that do not belong to the bureau will meet the competition of the reductions was indicated yesterday. O. L. Schleyer, president of the American Automobile Insurance company, St. Louis, one of the largest of the western companies, has notified the company's agents and brokers that "in the future, as in the past, we will protect our interests and those of our friends in the agency and brokerage fraternity."

The bureau companies' new rate structure includes their "safe driver award" plan, which provides that drivers who have had no accidents during a year will be given a 15 per cent return on their premium. Schleyer said his company has always deemed the safe driver award plan as impracticable and will not now adopt it.

Another Firm Grants Reductions.

M. P. Cornelius, president of the Continental Casualty company, large Chicago company, said that his company will grant reductions of 35 per cent to motorists rated by the bureau as class A1 and 30 per cent to class A drivers. Class A1 motorists are designated as those who do not drive more than 7,500 miles a year and whose cars are not driven by more than two persons, none of whom is less than 25 years old.

"We are meeting the bureau rates and we are continuing our policy of giving a fixed reduction at the beginning of the policy term instead of at the end," Cornelius said.

Officials of the Chicago Motor club, which conducts a large automobile insurance business, and of the Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty company, another Chicago organization, said no decision has been taken yet on how the bureau company rates, if allowed, will be met.

LA MAIR CHOSEN NEW PRESIDENT OF LYON & HEALY

Election of Louis G. La Mair as president of Lyon & Healy, Inc., to succeeed the late Raymond E. Durham Sr., was announced yesterday. La Mair has been associated with the music house since March 24, 1925, when he became paymaster. In January, 1927, he was made manager of the accounting department.

In July, 1929, La Mair was made manager of the general offices and he was elected vice president and general manager on Jan. 1, 1933. Soon after Lyon & Healy engaged in an expansion program which included the opening of branch stores in Evanston and Oak Park, Ill., Cleveland, Akron, Dayton, and Columbus, O.; Omaha, Neb., St. Paul, Minn., Los Angeles and New York.

Other promotions made by the directors included appointment of Evan M. Klock, advertising manager, as promotion manager in charge of advertising and promotion for all Lyon & Healy stores.

DROP AT NEW YORK LOWERS U. S. BANK CLEARINGS FOR WEEK

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Bank clearings for twenty-two leading cities in the week ended April 26 totaled $4,826,239,000, a decrease of 10.3 per cent from the $5,379,815,000 for the comparable week last year, Dun & Bradstreet reported today. The total represented a loss of $564,964,000 from the preceding week.

A drop of 18.8 per cent in New York City clearings carried the total for the country below the corresponding 1938 week for the second time this year. The New York figure of $2,902,640,000 for the latest week compared with $3,574,422,000 for the similar week of 1938. This was attributed to an unusually heavy upswing in the city during the corresponding week a year ago.

Clearings at most other cities, however, remained above last year's level. Combined clearings of the other twenty-one cities totaled $1,923,599,000, an increase of 6.5 per cent over the $1,805,393,000 for the corresponding 1938 week.

Chicago turnover amounted to $266,500,000, or 2.9 per cent ahead of the $258,900,000 in the similar week a year ago. All other centers, except Minneapolis, reported advances. Largest increases were: Louisville, 18.5 per cent; New Orleans, 12.9; St. Louis, 12.4; Detroit, 12.1; Boston and Kansas City, 10.5 each; Cleveland, 10.4, and San Francisco, 9.3 per cent.

BANKS' IDLE FUNDS, U. S. GOLD SUPPLIES REACH RECORD PEAKS

Idle funds of member banks and United States gold stocks rose to new record heights in the week ended April 26, the federal reserve board reported yesterday.

Excess reserves increased $120,000,000 to $4,120,000,000 during the week. An inflow of $109,000,000 in gold, bringing the total to $15,714,000,000, was primarily responsible for the gain.

Commercial, industrial, and agricultural loans of members banks in Chicago declined $1,000,000 during the week, and those of the New York banks fell $6,000,000. Loans by New York banks to brokers and dealers in securities dropped $4,000,000. Details follow:

BANKER WARNS TRADE IN ARMS AIDS NO NATION

French Lick, Ind., April 27.—(AP)—Arms manufacture supplies a "poor permanent basis for international trade, both from the standpoint of the buyer and the seller," W. F. Gerhart, president of the Bankers' Association for Foreign Trade, said at the annual meeting here today.

"It is a bad purchase for the buyer because he is using his nation's wealth uneconomically in buying nonreproductive goods—that is, war materials," he explained. "It is bad for the seller because he is diverting capital and labor to highly specialized production and disorganizing the normal industrial machinery.

"Labor is only temporarily employed, and after the war this labor must seek employment in the normal channels of peace time activity. Likewise, the capital used in munition production earns a negative reproduction fund and in only limited cases can the capital goods it represents be transformed or used for production of peace time products."

BILLION DOLLAR FHA MORTGAGE BOOST APPROVED

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—The senate approved today an increase from $3,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 in the total of home mortgages which the Federal Housing administration may insure.

The house previously had authorized the increase, but the senate completely rewrote the house bill, altering some provisions and inserting several new ones. A committee of senators and representatives will undertake to compromise the differences in the two measures.

The senate sharply revised a restriction inserted in the house bill after complaints that land values on FHA apartment projects in St. Louis had been written up so that owners did not have to supply the 20 per cent of cost not insured by FHA. The senate provision would limit FHA insurance to the cost of construction after certain deductions.

SEARS, ROEBUCK SALES SET NEW HIGH RECORDS

Sales of Sears, Roebuck & Co. for the third period of its fiscal year and for the first three periods ended April 23 were the largest for those periods in the company's records.

The mail order and retail store organization reported yesterday that sales in the four weeks ended April 23 totaled $49,159,636, an increase of 22.4 per cent over $40,156,151 in the corresponding 1938 period.

In the twelve weeks of the fiscal year which began Jan. 30, the company's sales totaled $125,428,184, a gain of 17.5 per cent over the $106,778,151 for the parallel weeks of the preceding year.

EGG FUTURES DECLINE TO NEW SEASONAL LOWS

Egg futures broke to new seasonal lows on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange yesterday. Closing prices were 4 to 12½ points down. October refrigerator eggs rallied from a low of 18.62 cents to finish at 18.72 cents a dozen, against 18.76 cents Wednesday. May storage eggs closed at 17½ cents, down ⅛ cent, and at a new six-year low.

BENDIX VOTES FIRST DIVIDEND IN 16 MONTHS

25c Payment Authorized; Other Firms Act.

Several corporations yesterday resumed dividend payments on common stocks after omitting them for long periods.

The Bendix Aviation corporation ordered the first dividend on its stock since Dec. 12, 1937. The payments will be 25 cents on June 1 to shareholders of record May 6. The previous disbursement was 25 cents.

Dayton Rubber Manufacturing company declared a dividend of 50 cents on the common shares of record May 10 to be distributed May 20. The last payment was 50 cents on Oct. 27, 1938.

Steel Company to Pay.

The first common dividend in more than a year was authorized by the Vanadium-Alloys Steel company. The disbursement will be 25 cents on June 2 to holders of record May 20. The preceding payment was 60 cents on March 2, 1938.

Directors of the American Metal Company, Ltd., did not vote the dividend on common shares expected at this time. The last payment was 25 cents on March 1. The regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 on preferred shares was ordered payable June 1 to stock of record May 20.

Payment on Arrears.

American Bemberg corporation declared a dividend of $3.50 on the 7% preferred shares of record May 4 to be paid May 11. Arrears as of March 1 will total $1.75 a share.

United Gas corporation declared a dividend of $1.75 on the first preferred shares of record May 11 to be paid June 1. Arrears after this payment will total $25.12½.

No Action.

Directors of the American Metal company, Ltd., took no action on the dividend for the common share holders. The last payment was 25 cents on March 1.

The letter "q" in the table refers to regular quarterly payments; "m," to regular monthly dividends.

HEAVIER COAL SHIPMENTS ADD TO RAIL TRAFIC

Heavier coal shipments in the week ended April 22 more than compensated for losses in industrial freight and boosted railroad car loadings to 558,706 cars. The freight volume was 2 per cent, or 10,890 cars, ahead of that in the preceding week, the Association of American Railroads reported yesterday.

The coal movement last week increased 12,700 cars. The larger trafic came from soft coal fields not affected by the Appalachian shutdown and from hard coal areas where controversy over renewal of the union wage contract was anticipated after it expires at the end of this week.

MURPHY TO TELL OF NEW DEAL'S TRUST POLICY

Washington, D. C., April 27.—[Special.]—The basic anti-trust policy of the Roosevelt administration will be outlined in a public statement by Attorney General Frank Murphy next week, he said today. He added that business would be advised in conferences how it could keep within the law.

"The policy outlined in the coming statement," Murphy said, "will not reflect any back tracking, but a vigorous enforcement of the laws. We cannot risk temporizing in prosecuting in the public interest, but there will be no discrimination. It is the plan to proceed with cases and hold any advisory conferences in the meantime."

The department of justice announced that anti-trust proceedings would be filed in Oklahoma tomorrow against four theater chains and the eight major producing companies.

FOREIGNERS REDUCE AMERICAN SECURITY HOLDINGS 29 MILLION

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—A treasury report disclosed today that foreigners reduced their holdings of American securities by $29,481,000 during January. The figures showed heavy selling began in the week ended Jan. 18, when the New York stock market was slipping downward.

The trend was contrary to previous foreign actions in the American stock market. A recent survey showed that throughout the many crises preceding 1939 foreigners invariably held American securities when the market was weak, and added to their holdings when the market was going up.

The January selling included $21,634,000 from England; $3,588,000 from France; $282,000 from Germany, and $2,381,000 from the Netherlands.

PLEADS GUILTY OF INVESTMENT TRUST LOOTING

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Ralph H. Robb, Boston lawyer, pleaded guilty and arranged to turn state's evidence today as his trial and that of five others charged with looting seven investment trusts of $10,000,000 got under way. The five remaining on trial are George H. Clayton, broker; Philip A. Frear, broker; Thomas W. Morris and S. Leo Solomont, both Boston lawyers.

The indictment says they stole $700,000 in securities from the portfolia of the Continental Securities corporation, then used the securities to obtain a majority of the voting stock in other trusts. Assistant District Attorney Barnet H. Ten Eyck contended that the operations began with an original investment of $5, spent in filing the papers of a Canadian corporation called Fiscal Management, Ltd., and used by the defendants as a holding company.

BROKERAGE FIRM ADOPTS 'ADS' TO TELL FUNCTIONS

New York, April 27.—(AP)—The financial sections of New York morning newspapers today contained an innovation—a half page advertisment by a brokerage house.

Fenner & Beane, which has branch offices in more than fifty cities, inserted the advertisment entitled, "Mass Opinion Makes Fair Prices." It described the function of brokers in general on the New York Stock exchange.

The advertisment, the first of a series, appeared after the announcement by the stock exchange, April 15, that members could engage in advertising programs limited only by honesty and good taste.

Engineering Awards Drop for Week, but Exceed 1938

New York, April 27.—(AP)—Engineering contracts awarded during the week ended Tuesday totaled $48,297,000. This was down to 10 per cent below the preceding week, but 38 per cent larger than the corresponding week last year, Engineering News-Record reported today. Details follow:

ILLINOIS JOBS AND PAY ROLLS RISE IN MARCH

Larger than Seasonal Gains Recorded.

Illinois employment in March showed an improvement over February and gave an indication of a resumption of the upward trend in industrial activity which prevailed during the latter half of 1938, the Illinois department of labor reported yesterday.

There was a larger than seasonal gain of 1 per cent in employment and a contra-seasonal gain of 1.9 per cent in pay rolls over February, Martin P. Durkin, director of the department, reported. For the sixteen year period, 1923-'38, the records show average increase of two-tenths of 1 per cent in employment and a decrease of nine-tenths of 1 per cent in pay rolls between February and March.

Chicago Jobs Increase.

Last month's statistics were based on reports from 6,916 manufacturing and nonmanufacturing companies employing 589,617 persons.

For Chicago alone, 4,231 establishments employing 367,209 workers, showed increases of five-tenths of 1 per cent in employment and 1.9 per cent in pay rolls. In the metropolitan area outside Chicago 348 enterprises reported an increase of 1.3 per cent in both employment and pay rolls.

During March practically no changes in wage rates were reported, Durkin said. Only eleven reports of wage increases, affecting but 157 persons, were made. There were no reports of wage decreases.

Among the industrial companies the sharpest gain in employment was that in the rubber division, and the greatest gain in pay rolls was the 10.3 per cent in the stone-clay-glass group.

Gain in Both Divisions.

Manufacturing divisions that showed gains in both employment any pay rolls included, stone-clay-glass; metals and machinery; transportation equipment, building and repair; wood and allied products; rubber; lether and allied products; chemicals and allied products; textiles; clothing and millinery, and food, beverages and tobacco. The paper goods, printing and publishing division, showed declines in both employment and pay rolls.

Among the nonmanufacturing groups the wholesale and retail trade showed increases in both employment and pay rolls; the service groups declines in both categories. Public utilities had a gain in employment and a decrease in pay rolls; coal mines had declines in both categories and the building construction and contracting group had increases in both.

TVA ASKS ENDING OF ZONE SYSTEM FOR RAIL RATES

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—The Tennessee Valley authority urged again today the elimination of geographical differences in railroad freight rates, declaring the present system tended to "obstruct and distort the flow of commerce."

The federal agency made this assertion in a second report on the inter-territorial rate structure. President Roosevelt tranmitted the report to congress, where it was ordered printed as a public document.

At the same time, the president nominated Harcourt A. Morgan for another term as a TVA director. Confirmation by the senate would give the 71-year-old former Tennessee university president, now board chairman, a nine-year term beginning May 18.

Whitney, Two of Partners Discharged as Bankrupts

New York, April 27.—[Special.]—Richard Whitney, former president of the New York Stock exchange now serving a prison term and two of his former partners, F. Kingsley Rodewald and Edwin D. Morgan Jr., were discharged from bankruptcy today by Federal Judge Conger. All six members of the defunct firm of Richard Whitney & Co. have now received their discharges. Donald G. Condon was discharged on Jan. 11, John J. McManus on Jan. 18, and Henry D. Mygatt on March 29.

COTTON

American cotton markets were unsettled yesterday. An early advance on buying by spot interests was followed by a reaction later in the session. Closing trades were .09 cent lower to .01 cent a pound higher. Trade volume was small as speculators cautiously awaited Hitler's speech.

A public hearing will be held in Washington today on the Bankhead export subsidy plan.

The New Orleans Cotton exchange reported that stocks of cotton in the hands of the trade outside of mills aggregated 2,220,000 bales on March 31, and 661,000 bales on farms or in transit.

Spot cotton closed .02 cent higher to .04 cent lower with New York at 9.11 cents; New Orleans, 8.89 cents; Galveston, 8.62 cents, and Houston at 8.61 cents a pound. Prices follow:

WAVE OF BUYING GIVES ANOTHER BOOST TO WHEAT

Prices Are Highest Since Early in January.

Closing prices on the May delivery of principal grains on the Chicago Board of Trade:

	Yesterday.	Wednesday.	Year ago.
Wheat	$0.70⅞	$0.69⅞	$0.80⅞
Corn	.48¼	.48½	.58¼
Oats	.30⅞	.30¾	.27⅞
Rye	.42	.41⅝	.59⅝
Soy beans...	.88	.88	.90¼

Heavy and aggressive buying of wheat futures by speculators, cash interests and professional operators yesterday advanced prices on the Chicago Board of Trade ⅝ to 1 cent a bushel and to new high ground since early in January. Closing trades were at the top.

A material increase was reported in the volume of outside speculative interest in wheat futures. Continued unfavorable crop comments from parts of Oklahoma and Kansas and general short covering because of uncertainty regarding Hitler's speech were responsible for the strength in the market.

Volume of Trading Expands.

The volume of trading in grain futures on the Board of Trade during the last three days, or since the "crop scare" started in the southwest, has been the largest in about four months, according to official reports.

Showers were reported in parts of Oklahoma and Kansas yesterday, but precipitation was too light to be of material benefit to the wheat crop. B. W. Snow, crop expert with Fuller, Rodney & Redmond, had a report from a southwestern grain map emphasizing the deterioration in central and western Kansas. The prospect on 2,000,000 acres in southwestern Kansas is said to be well below the department of agriculture's April 1 condition. Unless rain is received in the next ten days further serious losses will occur, it is said.

Nebraska Reports Unfavorable.

Unfavorable reports on the outlook for the winter wheat crop are now being received from parts of Nebraska. The weather bureau weekly summary indicated that the larger part of that state was in need of rain.

Cash interests bought May wheat and sold the deferred deliveries on a large scale. Tomorrow will be the first day for giving notice of intention to deliver cash wheat on May contracts. Because of the premium prevailing for contract grades of wheat, deliveries during the early part of May are expected to be small.

Corn showed an easy undertone and closed ⅛ to ¼ cent lower. Lack of export demand and expectations of larger country offerings were factors. Brokers expect liberal deliveries of cash corn on May contracts.

HOLDS ILLINOIS FIRM VIOLATES WAGE-HOUR LAW

Federal Judge Michael L. Igoe yesterday entered the first order restraining an Illinois corporation from shipping in interstate commerce goods produced in violation of the fair labor standards [wages and hours] act. The decree prohibits shipment of about 4,500 dresses by G. W. Eade & Co. of Aurora.

Arthur Carstens, senior inspector in charge of the Chicago office of the wage and hour division, said the company failed to pay its employés an hourly rate of 25 cents and had destroyed records required under the law. The company, Carstens said, employs about 100 workers.

Attorneys for the concern agreed to the decree, which also prohibits further violations of the act.

G.M. Dismisses Aliens Who Refuse to Become Citizens

New York, April 27.—(AP)—The General Motors corporation today announced that records of employés are being checked to determine who are not United States citizens. Aliens, a spokesman said, are being assisted in getting naturalization papers. Those who refuse to take out papers are being discharged. A canvass showed only a fraction of 1 per cent of its employés are aliens, the company said.

Pursuant to the order of Judge Alfred C. Coxe of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, filed February 28, 1939, a copy of the Plan of Reorganization sponsored by the undersigned Bondholders' Protective Committees and a proxy statement were mailed by the Trustees of Postal Telegraph and Cable Corporation to all known holders of Bonds and Debenture Stock.

To become operative the Plan must be confirmed by the Court and an adjourned hearing for that purpose is to be held on May 11, 1939. Before the Plan can be confirmed it must be accepted by the holders of 66 2/3% of the Bonds and Debenture Stock. Those holders who have already received copies of the Plan and proxy statement are urged promptly to accept the Plan by sending the form of acceptance mailed to them, together with their Bonds, to Bankers Trust Company, 16 Wall Street, New York City, where the Bonds will be stamped and returned to them. (Additional copies of the form of acceptance may be obtained from Paul E. Manheim, Secretary, 1 William Street, New York.)

It is believed that substantial amounts of Bonds are held by persons unknown to the Trustees. As the Plan of Reorganization materially affects the interests of all holders of Bonds and Debenture Stock, those holders of Bonds who have not received the Plan of Reorganization and the proxy statement are urged to communicate promptly with the Trustees of Postal Telegraph and Cable Corporation, 67 Broad Street, New York, giving their names, addresses and amounts of Bonds held, whereupon a copy of the Plan and accompanying literature, including the proxy statement, will be mailed to them.

PORK AND LARD EXPORTS RISE TO FIVE YEAR PEAK

Sharp Gains Reported in First Quarter.

Exports of pork and lard from the United States during the first quarter of 1939 were the largest in five years, the department of agriculture disclosed yesterday. During the three months this year packers exported 25 per cent more pork than in the 1938 period and 107 per cent more than in 1937.

Sales of lard to other countries during the three months were 42 per cent above the first quarter of 1938 and showed an increase of 262 per cent over the 1937 volume. There has been an almost steady increase in volume of exports of pork and lard since 1937 and a decline in imports.

Drop in Imports Less Rapid.

The decline in imports has not been as rapid as the gain in exports. The United States during the first three months of 1939 purchased 7 per cent less pork from other countries than a year ago, and 34 per cent less than in 1937, the government report said.

The most pronounced recovery of lost foreign markets has been in lard. A total of 75,161,292 pounds of this produce was shipped out during the three months, compared with 52,784,550 pounds last year and 20,749,709 two years ago. The latter is the smallest total on record for the first three months of the year.

Sales of pork abroad aggregated 27,552,998 pounds in the three months of 1939, compared with 21,961,513 for the first quarter of 1938 and 13,274,379 two years ago.

Cooked Ham Imports Lead.

Imports of pork for the three months of this year at 12,856,121 pounds, a big share consisting of cooked hams in tins, compared with 13,858,947 pounds a year ago and 19,533,693 in 1937.

Exports of pork exceeded the imports by 14,696,877 pounds. They ran 8,102,666 pounds ahead of the imports during the three months last year, but two years ago imports exceeded exports by 6,259,314 pounds, the only year on record when sales abroad were less than the tonnage imported.

Exports of pork for March were shown in the report as 10,864,417 pounds, compared with 8,243,210 pounds sent out in February. March exports last year were 8,863,999 pounds in February. March exports last year were 8,863,999 pounds.

Beef and veal imports were 6,219,763 pounds for the month and 14,255,608 for the first quarter of 1939, compared with 5,949,146 pounds and 12,881,412 for the respective periods last year. Exports of beef and veal at 1,047,385 pounds compared with 1,278,935 pounds in March, 1938, and the three months' total was 2,993,903 pounds this year and 3,336,267 last year.

U. S. Bureau Reports Rise in Wholesale Commodities

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—The bureau of labor statistics reported today a 0.3 per cent increase in wholesale commodity prices during the week ended April 22. The increase brought the all-commodity index to 76 per cent of the 1926 average of 100, but was 0.8 per cent less than recorded for the corresponding week in March and 3.3 per cent less than recorded for the same week in 1938.

AIR LINES ADD FLIGHTS, SPEED TIME SCHEDULES

Announce Improvements in Chicago Service.

ning May 1 will add 1,000,000 seat miles a month, bringing its monthly load to more than 17,000,000 seat miles, officials announced yesterday. All seven TWA Chicago-New York round trips, except one sleeper flight, will be placed on a seven day week. Six of these flights have been operating on a six day week, with a week-end suspension on Saturday, Sunday or Monday.

Service to Kansas City.

TWA also will add a flight between Chicago and Kansas City, making three round trips daily on this route. The new flight will leave Chicago at 5:35 p. m. and arrive in Kansas City at 8:15 p. m. Eastbound, it will leave Kansas City at 3 p. m. and reach Chicago at 5:22 p. m.

More than an hour and a half will be cut on May 1 from the flying time of TWA's westbound "Sky Chief" transcontinental run from New York to Los Angeles. The new run will take sixteen hours and forty-three minutes, against eighteen hours fourteen minutes heretofore. The eastbound "Sky Chief" run between the same two points will be made in fifteen hours fourteen minutes, a half hour saving.

Adds Chicago-Detroit Flight.

American Airlines on May 1 will add a round trip between Chicago and Detroit, making a total of eight round trips between the two points. The new flight will bring the number of arrivals and departures by American Airlines' planes to and from the Chicago airport to thirty a day, L. W. King, district sales manager, reported.

A new trancontinental flight, "The Plainsman," is being added by American, having three round trips daily between Los Angeles and New York. Cross country time on one schedule will be reduced by thirteen minutes.

Two round trips will be added to American's New York-Boston run, making twelve daily round trips on this heavily traveled and profitable route.

HOW MARGIN WORKS.

Investors' Guide: Suppose I buy 100 shares for $2,000 on margin, paying only 40 per cent in cash and borrowing the remainder from the broker. If the stock drops $5 a share to $15, can the broker sell me out? If he asks for more margin and I cannot supply it, would I lose my entire investment? A friend says I would lose it all, but my contention is that the broker would return to me whatever would be left after he had satisfied his loan to me. Who is right?—S. J.

Answer: The federal reserve board has specified that a customer must pay at least 40 per cent of the purchase price on a margin purchase of stock. This means, of course, that if the broker is willing the customer can borrow the other 60 per cent from the broker.

On the transaction you describe, you would pay $800 cash and borrow $1,200 from your broker. The broker holds 100 shares of stock, worth $2,000 when the purchase is made, as security for his $1,200 loan to you.

Now if the price of the stock drops to $15 a share, the broker's security for the loan is worth only $1,500. The New York Stock Exchange regulations provide, however, that the margin maintained after the purchase must be at least 30 per cent. In other words, the difference between the market value of the stock [$1,500] and the amount of the broker's loan [$1,200] must be at least 30 per cent of the market value.

Thirty per cent of the market value of $1,500 is $450, but the actual margin on a $1,200 loan would be only $300. In this case the customer would be required to put up $150 additional to meet the 30 per cent margin "maintenance requirement" of the New York exchange.

Remember, however, that a broker may at his discretion require the customer to put up more than a 40 per cent margin originally or to maintain more than a 30 per cent margin after the purchase. The figures are simply minimum standards. The percentage of margin actually granted by the broker depends on who the customer is and on the quality and marketability of the stock.

Margin dealings are essentially a credit arrangement between broker and customer and the broker may ask for more margin if he thinks that his margin is "impaired." If the broker sells the stock to protect himself, he keeps enough to repay the loan, and any sum that is left is returned to the customer.

WHO OWNS BURLINGTON?

Investors' Guide: I can't remember which two railroads control the Burlington. How much stock do they own?—R. M.

Answer: Ninety-seven per cent of the stock of the Burlington is owned in equal parts by the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railroads.

OUTPUT RAISED BY CREAMERIES, PACKING FIRMS

Increased March Sales Reported by Bank.

Production of packing house commodities and creamery butter in the seventh federal reserve district [Chicago] rose substantially in March over the preceding month and March, 1938, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reported yesterday.

Despite the increased production, tonnage sales of the packers remained in excess of current production, the bank said. The general price level was lower in March than in February. In the first half of April, output continued higher than in the corresponding 1938 period.

Gains 13 Per Cent over February.

Production gained 13 per cent over February and 9 per cent over March, 1938. Tonnage sales were up 15 per cent over February and 7 per cent over March, 1938. Inventories on March 31 were 3.5 per cent less than at the close of the previous month and 4 per cent less than on March 31, 1938.

March shipments of animal products for export declined from the February level. There was some hesitancy on the part of buyers in making commitments for prompt and future delivery because of the unsettlement in foreign exchange, the bank reported.

Butter Output Rises.

While production of creamery butter made a more than seasonal advance of 20 per cent in March over February, sales by creameries in the seventh federal reserve district rose only 6 per cent. Sales were 4 per cent under March, 1938.

American cheese production in Wisconsin during March was 29 per cent larger than in February but 4 per cent under March, 1938.

Illinoisan Is Low Bidder on Minnesota Postoffice

Washington, D. C., April 27.—(AP)—Fred T. Scheurman, Gibson City, Ill., submitted a $74,900 low bid to the treasury today for construction of a postoffice in Crookston, Minn. The Midwest Contracting company, Chicago, the only other bidder, asked $80,291.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

The general market for hogs yesterday sank back to a parity with the lowest price levels in almost five years, with some extremely heavy butchers and sows establishing new lows. Top loads of selected 184 to 252 pound fall pigs went at $7.10, off 5 cents for the day. The average also showed only 5 cents loss at $6.80, but declines in some classes of stock ranged up to 15 cents.

Farmers sharply curtailed their shipments of cattle to market yesterday, but buyers were well supplied with beef from the large cattle receipts earlier in the week and bought sparingly at barely steady prices. Slaughter lambs sold steady to 10 cents lower.

DAY by DAY on the FARM by BOB BECKER

Woodland Choir Fills.

THE farm woods have an imposing list of feathered songsters making music this week. A number of helpful birds that consume thousands of harmful insects in the spring and summer checked in this week to fill the woods with their songs and search for nesting sites.

The woods, with their big oaks, maples, elms, and other trees, plus acres of thick undergrowth and brushy hedgerows, offer the birds excellent cover and innumerable nesting sites. A large number of bird arrivals can be counted on to eat the seventeen year locusts which are to appear this spring in northern Illinois.

Brown Thrasher Arrives.

This week the brown thrasher, considered by many bird fans to be the most beautiful songster in our woods, checked in. [These birds nest in low, thick brush.] Among the migrants which always can be counted on in Chicagoland by this time of year are the following: The big bittern or pumper, whose spring song sounds like an old barnyard pump; the barn swallow [they nest in the barns]; several species of warblers; the red-headed woodpecker; the fast flying chimney swift; several species of rails, which the city dweller rarely sees, since they are marsh birds; the white crowned sparrow; the wood thrush, rated by many bird fans as the No. 1 songster, and several species of sparrows.

Of all the birds that nest on the farm, the house wren apparently is the least particular about a nesting site. Although most suburbanites and farmers think of the wren as a song bird dependent on a man made nesting box, they are so easy to please that a cavity in a tree, a hole in a fence post, or almost any other natural nesting place will do.

Many Prefer the Trees.

Despite the many boxes put out each year for the use of wrens [and these have entrance holes so small that English sparrows can't use them], we find many wrens occupying cavities in the trees. This is particularly true of the tract of oak timber on the east side of the farm. Every spring this lot is filled with the songs of wrens and the birds stay right on through the nesting season. Many of the trees in this lot are large, and a number of them have small holes in them which are ideal for the birds.

The rich, bubbling song of the house wren is one of the sweetest associations connected with country and suburban life. Its tiny body, long bill, strong feet, and sharp eyes adapt it for creeping into all sorts of places to get grasshoppers, beetles, caterpillars, bugs, and spiders. It also helps the landowner by eating large numbers of such injurious insects as cutworms, weevils, ticks, and plant lice. When the wrens have young in their nests they are busy from morning until night stuffing their offspring with insect food.

"How I Got a Loan of $100 without embarrassment or delay."

"I needed $100 in a hurry. I dreaded to ask friends for a favor. And I had no security for getting a loan at a bank. What was I to do? Fortunately I heard about Household Finance and so went to a nearby office. The manager was courteous and friendly. He merely asked me a few simple questions. The next day I got the money, with 20 months to repay. Only my wife and I signed the papers. I was delighted to get a loan so simply and promptly."

Whether you are married or single, if you need a loan of $20 to $300 the manager of the Household office near you will be glad to discuss your problem with you in complete privacy and without obligation. Why not phone or visit him today?
